DAILY NEBRASKAN'S SECOND SEMESTER PLATFORM

1. Clean politics in competitive campus affairs.
2. More paid readers on the campus.
3. A wider scope of news.
4. Realization of the new gymnasium and stadium.
5. Lower prices to University students.
6. Each student an "unofficial" staff member of the Daily Nebraskan.
7. Adoption of the Single Tax System next fall.

SCORE ONE FOR SINGLE TAX.

In a communication directed to the Daily Nebraskan, the following resolutions were set forth:

"To the Editor of the Daily Nebraskan:

"At a special meeting of the University Omaha Club, assembled, the following enactment was unanimously passed upon:

"Be it enacted that we, as an organization of the campus of the University of Nebraska, collectively and as students, members thereof, individually, believing in the ultimate good to all students and to the University as a whole, heartily endorse the introduction and use of the Single Tax system as suggested and published in the Daily Nebraskan for the following reasons:

1. It gives a substantial fixed amount upon which the school can rely upon for the furtherance of school activities.
  2. It allows all students equal opportunities for attending all games and get-togethers.
  3. It does away with the cost and time required in putting on numerous campaigns, such energy if insisted upon, being put to arousing school spirit.
  4. It brings into operation the doctrine that life outside of the classroom is important to a degree that it approaches the importance of the classroom.
  5. It will increase the attendance at the games and ultimately bring to the eyes of outsiders the realness of a stadium.
  6. It places Nebraska in the class with other universities in one more accomplishment.
- "Be it further enacted that the members of this organization forth all efforts toward bringing about the Single Tax system by letting all students thoroughly understand what the system is.
- "Also be it further enacted that a copy of this enactment be sent to the editor of the Daily Nebraskan."

INTER-FRATERNITY ATHLETICS.

Inter-fraternity athletics can be made one of the more important events at the University in the spring if feeling between the contestants, toward the officials and between some of the spectators is eliminated. It is unnecessary to state that clean athletics are the only kind. Petty fights and arguments in interfraternity athletic battles only tends to remove these affairs from the program of "clean athletics." There can be friendly rivalry without bitterness, if is childlike to take the attitude of one spectator at one of the games in the Greek basketball tourney, who was ready to break out into wrath every time a decision was pronounced doubtful.

It is indeed fortunate that General John J. Pershing has been secured to speak during Commencement Week this year. As his sister, Miss Mac Pershing, has taken an active part in the Ivy Day exercises for a number of years, it will seem like the realization of a complete program for "Nebraska's General" to speak to those who will receive their diplomas this year.

We wonder if the weather in Washington inauguration day was as pleasant as that in the Cornhusker State. If such was the case, Mrs. Harding probably had a chance to display some of her new spring gowns that have become so celebrated since her recent "New York" shopping tour.

Maeterlinck said that man's dreams are made of the stuff that is nearest kin to himself. If some of our dreams these spring days, when we think of campistry and outdoor fancies, are taken as a basis for ourselves, then we must be closely allied with leaf bees. We hope these kind of spring dreams don't determine our character.

EDITORIAL OF THE DAY

(Grinnell Scarlet and Black.)
 ON CRABBING.

It seems to be the inherent right of every college student to "crab" and of every alumnus to criticize. At its worst, however, crabbng is of some help to those against whom it is directed, if it is really made known to them, and not kept in the undercurrent of campus talk. Every leader welcomes what he calls "constructive criticism." Even just plain criticism, without any constructive suggestions, is not an entirely useless thing, for the director of an industry, of a college or of any large undertaking, can carefully weighing the knocks he gets, feel the success or failure of his work.

UNI NOTICES

Tickets will be on sale by the church group sellers for the Committee of Two Hundred banquet to be given Friday night, March 18. All students desiring tickets should secure them through these sellers.

DEAR OLD NEBRASKA.
 To the of "Margie."

Dear old Ne-bras-ka, Let's keep on fighting for Ne-bras-ka. We'll tell the world you'll beat them; We are back of you all the time. As we sing play hard and fight like everything, Ne-bras-ka, You've won our administration, Scarlet and the Cream; Fight the foe with all your vim, And we know that you will win, Ne-bras-ka, we're back of you.

ASK SUPPORT IN CARING FOR HIGH SCHOOL PLAYERS

F. W. Luehring, director of athletics, and Captain Swanson of the 1921 football team spoke at the Greater Nebraska luncheon Friday noon at the Grand hotel. They asked the support of the men in caring for the high school basketball boys who will be in Lincoln this week. The chairman announced that Earl Mast, boys' secretary of the Y. M. C. A., would speak next Friday at the luncheon on the topics, "Two by Two or Two by Four."

The Y. M. C. A. men will meet trains bringing the high school boys into Lincoln this week, and the speakers urged that every man volunteer to help on at least one of the committees who have charge of the recreation hours of the tournament boys. Nebraska cheers and songs were sung between the courses of the chicken pie luncheon.

Our Inquiring Reporter

Five persons picked at random are asked a question each day.

Today's question: "Where are you going to spend your spring vacation?"

1. Tommy Roope, 1945 C st.: Just stick around and do most anything I can.
2. Gladys Nelson, North 14th st.: Say, I'll be working all the time. Music students don't get any vacation. Isn't that—awful?
3. Jack Jackson, 518 North 16th st.: I don't know yet. Still too far away to decide.
4. Valora Hullinger, 500 North 16th st.: Back on the farm. As soon as I find a rake I'll be all prepared.
5. Al Pace, 518 North 16th st.: Home, I guess, but it'll be just my luck to have it snow or something during that time and ruin the whole week.

PROF. FOGG WILL SPEAK TO THE AXIS CLUB

The Axis Club of Lincoln announces an address by Prof. M. M. Fogg on "Irvin Cobb—Reporter and Humorist" at the monthly meeting of the club Tuesday evening. Under the auspices of the club, Mr. Cobb will lecture in the auditorium, March 22, on "Made in America."

Louise Fox, '24; Helen Nieman, '20 and Mary Brundage, '24, are visiting at the latter's home in Tecumseh.

There's a Surprise Waiting for You In the Sweater Section!

—In the form of many, many gay new sweaters both of silk and wool. One slip-over model of fibre silk has short sleeves and boasts of fringe fully a quarter of a yard long. Another model in black silk comes clear to the knees. Tuxedo sweaters come in the new almond shade, checked in brown, navy, black, tomato and many other colors. You'll be agreeably surprised at their low prices too. On striking evidence of the better values prevailing may be found in a tie back model of fine wool yarn, priced at only $3.50.
