DOUBLE VICTORY SEASON'S CLIMAX

The first half of last night's game was fast with the Nebraska team securing a big lead. Newman and Bekins were the chief point winners during this period of the game. When time was called for the half, the score stood 15 to 4 in favor of Nebraska. Ames played better basketball during the second half and negotiated a number of pretty baskets. Smith got started this half and rung up four baskets for the Huskers. The final count was 36 to 12.
