ORPHEUM

ORPHEUM THIS WEEK HAS $5,000 VAUDEVILLE SHOW DE LUXE.

Every devotee of high class vaudeville bill will be interested in the announcement that the Orpheum theater, beginning Wednesday matinee, will offer the costliest program ever presented in Lincoln—truly a show de luxe. Lincoln's favorites, the Lightner Sisters and Newton Alexander, in their big new musical comedy "Little Miss Vamp," with ten fascinating Barabish vamps, tops the big bill, while other featured attractions of headline calibre are Conlin and Glass in "The Four Seasons" and "The Four Reasons"; Joe Laurie, Jr., the pint-size comedian, and Jimmie Lucas, with Francene in "Vamps and Fools." Other attractions include Ed Healy and Allen Cross in smart songs, Selbini and Grovini in the follies of vaudeville, Herbert's marvelous loop-the-loop and leaping canines, Kinograms, news events and Topics of the Day. Rae Samuels, one of the most popular song stars and comedienne of the day, is announced for an early appearance in Orpheum vaudeville.

FAVORITES COMING TO ORPHEUM

LIGHTNER SISTERS AND NEWTON ALEXANDER

These popular vaudeville stars come here Wednesday matinee in their pretentious new act "Little Miss Vamp," a musical comedy, with fifteen people, including ten very vampish vamps. They headline the costliest bill ever presented in Lincoln—a great show throughout.

screen this season. "The Woman in His House" is more powerful than "The Miracle Man," and it ranks with the few great pictures of the world. It is a masterpiece tuned to all women's hearts. A wife to be loved or just a woman in his house? Who can resist this wonderful story of the love that girdles the earth? It holds a woman back from the brink of destruction; it awakens a man to the love he has lost; it fans the flickering flame of life in a child; it triumphs where science fails! Its mother love, the grandest love in the world. It is a screen achievement enacted by Ramsay Wallace, Thomas Holding, Mildred Harris, Gareth Hughes and the screen's most delightful child actor, Dick Hendricks. "The Woman in His House," a splendid array of "hot subjects, and a brilliant musical program completes a program nobody can afford to miss, the first half of this week.

The play by Henri Bernstein.

Hundreds of Miss Pearl White fans will flock to the Colonial theater to see their favorite next week in "The Thief." She is sure to please them, as this play, written for the stage by Henri Bernstein, was produced with tremendous success in London, Paris and New York.

It has been lavishly produced by William Fox for the screen, and in it Miss White wears magnificent gowns—some of which she personally brought from Paris during the summer. Dressmakers take notice.
