FRIDAY.

Delta Gamma.

Delta Gamma entertained seventy-five couples at an unusually attractive spring party at Knights of Columbus Hall. The entrance of the ball room represented the porch of a colonial house. The hall was transformed into a garden with a lighted fountain, surrounded by palms in the center. Suspended from the ceiling were baskets of lilacs. Lattice work and spring flowers were used around the sides of the room. Ice and wafers were served. The chaperons for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. E. P. McLaughlin, Prof. and Mrs. E. V. Lantz, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Lloyd, Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Plehn.

Gamma Phi eta.

Gamma Phi eta entertained one hundred couples at an attractive spring party at Roseville. Lattice work and spring flowers were used in the decorations. A solo dance by little Miss Margaret Townsend and songs by a quartet of four little colored boys were features of the party. Roses were given as favors. Refreshments were made of pink petals of spun sugar combined with green ice and cakes. Chaperons were Mrs. Samuel Waugh, Sr., Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Emerson and Dean and Mrs. J. E. LeRosignol. Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Guad, Mr. and Mrs. T. Fred Green and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Noble were guests. Out-of-town guests were Elizabeth Johnson of York, Teresa Mullaly and Ethel Whalen of Omaha, Vivian Bala of Plattsmouth, Hula Thompson of Logan, Iowa, Marvel Trojan and Miz Frank J. Trojan of Chicago.

Alpha Gamma Rho.

Kappa chapter of Alpha Gamma Rho entertained forty couples at a house dance. Roses and ferns and the fraternity colors, green and gold, were used in the decorations. Chaperons were Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Metzgar. Out-of-town guests were P. B. Campbell, Osceola; Roy T. Bang, Minden; Walter F. Roberts, Wahoo; Ora L. Webb, Pender; P. H. Stephens, Tekamah; Leroy Ingram, Friend, and Russell Benton, Norfolk.

Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Kappa Kappa Gamma entertained thirty couples at a dancing party at the chapter house. The house was attractively decorated in the sorority colors, dark blue and light blue. Perfumery and wafers were served. Chaperons were Mrs. McHenry and Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle Jones. Out-of-town guests were Helen McCarthy of Ponca and Marjorie Scoville of Wahoo.

Catholic Students Club.

Catholic Students Club entertained seventy-five couples at a dancing party at Antelope Park. Music was furnished by a five-piece orchestra.

Lutheran Club.

Fifty members of the Lutheran Club in costume enjoyed a hard times party at the Art Gallery. An excellent musical program was furnished consisting of both vocal and instrumental numbers. A pantomime, a circus and games completed the evening's entertainment. Hard times refreshments were served.

Commercial Club.

One hundred couples attended the Commercial Club party at the Chamber of Commerce. Palms were used in decorations and carnations were given to the guests as favors. Chaperons were Dean and Mrs. J. E. LeRosignol.

Phi Beta Kappa.

About ninety members of Phi Beta Kappa attended the annual banquet and initiation held at Ellen Smith Hall Friday night. Kenneth Fradenburg, '21, gave a response for the new members to the remarks made by the toastmistress, Miss Ilvia Pound.

Frances Botkin spoke on "The Argonauts." Orin Stepanek told a number of his adventures during the past summer on his trip through Czechoslovakia in his discourse on "Star Dust." Constance Rummons gave a number of pieces in her "occasional Verse," one piece of which was composed in commemoration of Dr. Harry Kirz Wolfe and which was a high tribute to his memory.

Kenneth Forward spoke on the subject "A Good Time to Be In," comparing the present with the past, and Lawrence Fossler spoke on "The Young Lady Across the Way," mentioning in relation to his talk the large number of women in the organization to the men. He faced the portrait of Ellen Smith, for whom the hall is named, and who was the first woman to instruct in the university, telling of the work she had done and the aid which she had given to students.

She—At the dance the other night the men didn't seem to dance as enthusiastically as they used to.
He, (mournfully)—Yes, somehow they seem to miss the old punch.
Yale Record.

Dr. H. B. Alexander, president of the society, conducted the initiation. Very few of the fifty-three new members were forced to be absent. The meeting ended by the entire company joining hands and singing "Auld Lang Syne," a custom inaugurated by Edward Everett Hale when he spoke before the society a number of years ago and which has become a tradition in the society.

SATURDAY.

Delta Zeta.

Freshmen of Delta Zeta entertained forty couples at a house dance. The house was attractively decorated in the sorority colors, pink and green. Chaperones were Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Davis, Prof. and Mrs. Lamb. Out-of-town guests were Eveline Kramer and Ella Wilson, both of Manhattan, Kans.
