

FIFTY TEAMS READY FOR "NEBRASKA IN EGYPT" DRIVE

A. L. Miller, General Y. M. C. A. Secretary Will Be in Lincoln to Assist in Campaign for $1700.

Fifty teams under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. will start Tuesday morning to raise $1,700 for the partial support of Steele Holcombe, '16, who has been at work in Egypt during the past year. "Nebraska in Egypt" has for its object not only the raising of the budget, but also acquainting a University men with conditions in this foreign land and the needs of the missionary fields.

A. L. Miller, general secretary at Lahore, India, will come to Lincoln and give a series of three talks beginning Tuesday in the interests of Nebraska in Egypt week. Mr. Miller was for four years general secretary of the student association at Indiana University and as a fraternity man (Sigma Chi) he is well known to students all over the middle west.

Member of British Board.

Mr. Miller was appointed by the British government a member of the Board of Economic Inquiry which dealt with certain aspects of the self government scheme now introduced in India. His wide travels, his broad outlook and genial personality have given him access to many varied types of people. His talks are well known for their interesting personal incidents and fine quality. The place where Mr. Miller will speak both to workers and men students not on teams, as well as the times for the meetings will be announced definitely soon.

The $1,700 goal, set for Nebraska in Egypt week, covers only a little more than bare salary expenses so that it is necessary that the full amount be raised before Friday night. Almost all of the larger universities of the country are carrying on similar weeks this year to support graduates who are at work as missionaries abroad.

UNIVERSITY PLAYERS RETURN FROM TOUR

The University Players returned recently from a tour of Nebraska towns, in which they presented Bayard Veiller's stirring comedy-drama, "Within the Law," a story of New York police circles.

Following is the itinerary of the trip:

- Monday—David City.
- Tuesday—Geneva.
- Wednesday—Superior.
- Thursday—Wymore.
- Friday—Pawnee City.
- Saturday—Falls City.

These towns were played in during spring vacation week. The members of the cast are very enthusiastic over the reception accorded them in every town, and report that they had very good attendance at every performance. Prominent people of each town spared no efforts to add to their comfort and enjoyment.

The play was also given in Seward April 8, and proved to be highly successful.

Society

Alpha Gamma Rho.

Fifty active members and alumni of Alpha Gamma Rho celebrated founder's day at the annual banquet in the Chinese Room at the Lincoln hotel. The table was attractively decorated in the fraternity flower, the pink carnation. Out-of-town guests were Russell Beaton, Norfolk; Ora Webb Pender; Phillip Stevens, Tekamah; Walter Roberts, Wahoo; Elliott Davis, Hastings; Lee King, Central City. Walter Roberts acted as toastmaster and called for the following toasts:

- Knocks—Hugh E. Beall.
- Action—Ralph E. Fortna.
- Patience—John N. McNay.
- Price—Harley N. Rhodes.
- Alumni—Carl W. Jones.

Chi Omega.

Sixty active members and alumni were entertained at the annual banquet of Chi Omega, Saturday evening at Ellen Smith Hall. The table was beautifully decorated with flowers, the center piece being a half-open hat box filled with opbella roses and snap dragons. Tiny wax hats were used as place cards. With Esther Little as Milliner, the following toasts were given: Crown, Margaret Cowden; Trimming, Helen Wight; Brim, Lillian Blanchard; Lining, Billy Bressen; Dame Fashion, Mrs. Elmer Reeder Horn. A prophecy, the Hat Box, was given by Beatrice Baird. Out-of-town guests were Beatrice Kasch, Norfolk; Camilla Kasch, Fullerton; Dorothy Pharr Rhokart, Denison; Helen Scott, Stromsburg; Violet Simms, Aurora; Elsie Busche, Seward; Margaret Roebeling, Omaha; Mildred Shirley, Humboldt.

Iron Sphinx.

The active members of Iron Sphinx, the honorary sophomore fraternity, entertained their alumni at an informal party at the Chamber of Commerce. About one hundred and twenty-five couples attended.

ORGANIZATIONS.

Palladian.

The open meeting of Palladian Literary Society Friday evening was unusually well attended. The program was under the direction of Miss Mary Baker, new chairman of the program committee. A sketch from Poe's, "Some Words with a Mummy," was presented by Dwight Sprecher and assistants. Miss Hertha Wyman, hypnotist, and Miss Louise Smith, palmist, led their audience still further into the realms of the mysterious. Francis Flood and his troupe of "strong men" did the inconceivable in their attempt to demonstrate that their strength was without limit.

On next Friday evening, a short play, "Aunt Martha's Wards," written by one of the members, will be presented. All are invited.

The Victim—Ordinarily, that's the last house on earth I'd pay ten thousand dollars for.

Real Estate Agent—Ah, yes... ordinarily, but you see that is the last house on earth.
