SUMMER SESSION PLANS COMPLETE

Two Terms Will Be Held, Covering a Period of Twelve Weeks.

BULLETIN IS NOW READY

Courses Planned to Accommodate Teachers of State as Well as Regular Students.

Plans for the summer session have been completed, according to Prof. A. A. Reed. The bulletin has been printed and may be obtained at the Registrar's office.

The summer session has been increased to twelve weeks, with two terms. The schedule and courses are so planned that students can enter either term. Over twelve hundred students attended the summer session last year and a larger enrollment is expected this year.

The courses of the summer session have been planned to accommodate the teachers of the state as well as to offer unusual opportunities for the students who wish to shorten their college course.

Attractive courses are offered for superintendents and principals, elementary teachers, high school and normal graduates, undergraduates and adult specials. Every department of the Teachers' College offers one or more courses. In addition to the regular members of the teaching staff Dr. Henry A. Ruger of the Teachers' College, Columbia University, will give work.

Summer Athletics.

For several years there has been an increasing demand for assistance at the summer school in coaching. (Continued on Page 4.)

CAPTAIN HAGAN EXPLAINS REQUIREMENTS FOR MEDAL

Active Service Not Necessary to Receive War Department Honor.

Capt. James H. Hagan, in charge of the Victory medal distribution, 2nd floor, Nebraska Hall, states that there seems to be a general misapprehension as to who is entitled to the Victory medal, also that only a few applications for the medal have been received, that the reasons given for this are: "Men who saw no active service feel that they are not entitled to them and would be sailing under false colors," and "Others do not wish them feeling that they have no value under the erroneous belief that any slacker honorably discharged from Leavenworth is entitled to one."

As to the first it was not the man's fault that he saw no active service, for comparatively few did. He did as he must do, obeyed his orders and served wherever those orders required. There is no deception or sailing under false colors, for the clasps, or absence of them on the medal tell all where he served and what engagements he took part in.

Just who are meant by "slackers" is not quite clear, but the war department orders state that Victory medals will not be issued to conscientious objectors who refused to wear the uniform or accept service in a branch of the army, nor to men accepted by the local boards but rejected at camp before entering on regular duty there.

All that is required of one desiring to submit application for Victory medal is to present his discharge certificate to Captain Hagan or Sergeant Patton of the Military department they will prepare all necessary papers.

SENIOR PICNIC.

The meeting place for senior picnics has been changed from 11th and P to 11th and R. Chancellor Avery requests that all students that have cars bring them to help take the seniors to Crete.

YOU WILL WANT TO SEE the Educational Exhibit at the Farmers' Fair! There are only four more days until May 7. Yes, you'll want to be there. That'll be your night to HOWL.

FACULTY MEMBER JUDGES CONTEST

Miss Esther S. Anderson of the Geography department returned Sunday from Wayne, where she was one of the judges in the interstate spelling contest. The other judges were Mr. A. V. Teed and Mrs. Mabel McCandish of the Wayne State Normal.

Miss Pilley of Grand Island, and Walter Urbach, Swaledale, Ia., won first places in the oral and written contests. Arthur McMann, Hartington, and Miss Schenck, Miranda, S. D., received second places.

Contestants from Nebraska, Iowa, South Dakota and Minnesota entered the contest.

The contest will probably be held at Sioux City, Ia., next year.

Schulte Writes

Letter To All

Loyal Huskers

It is true that such men as Wright, Deering, Moulton, Dale, Gibbs, Smith, Strome, McCarthy, McDonald, Allen, Kretzler, Meyers, and Dorn have upheld Nebraska's honor very acceptably in meets this year. But Nebraska is asleep while the other universities are going at great speed and gathering momentum.

Kansas, Missouri, and Ames in the Valley, Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan, in the Western conference, Penn, Cornell, Yale, Princeton, and Harvard in the east all have great teams.

Nebraska should be in their class and Nebraska can be with the right sort of interest on the part of the student body. The men who should carry the burden for the years to come, the three hundred men that we need out for daily work are loafing on the job. They are holding back the old school. They are losing momentum instead of adding punch to the game.

It is up to the student body. I have pleaded and begged with at least 500 promising-looking men. In today's try-outs for the Missouri Valley Freshman meet less than thirty men turned out.

Is this the sort of thing that the student body wants—that you want? MR. READER? Give us the men and we can put Nebraska at the top. With out men and lots of them we shall stand in the row of mediocrity.

The daily jazz dance and the cozy limousine will not produce Wrights, Thompsons, Simpsons, Merediths, Reeds, or Paddocks.

It is up to you. We want 300 men out in regular daily training. Can we have them?

Signed, HENRY F. SCHULTE, Track Coach.

Debaters Debate

Debate Once More

Professors and members of the two debating teams that met Iowa, April 28, on the closed shop question held a "post-mortem" Monday afternoon in U 106. Dean Warren A. Seavey and Prof. H. H. Foster of the College of Law and Prof. M. M. Fogg and the six members of the teams discussed the merits of Iowa's and Nebraska's work. O. A. Drake, Law '22, of Kearney, of the negative team, and C. C. Strimple, Law '22, Omaha, of the affirmative team, reviewed the cases in detail.

That the Iowans at Iowa City did a good deal of unsupported assertion was the impression of the Nebraska team. The Iowans, promptly put on the defensive by the Nebraskans soon abandoned their affirmative case.

That Nebraska in the debate at Lincoln excelled both in the use of evidence and in form was the impression of the professors.

The Open-Forum discussion which ran warmly for sixty-five minutes after the close of the formal debate in the Temple theater, during which hour a large group of labor unionists of Lincoln pelted the Iowans and the Nebraskans—especially the visitors—with pointed questions giving the debaters capital training in off-hand rebuttal, was not matched at Iowa City, where only a few questions were shot at the Nebraskans. In closing at 11 o'clock the Open-Forum discussion at Lincoln, Professor Fogg expressed, in behalf of the University, gratification that so many Lincoln labor unionists had come to that University event and that they had exhibited such live, intelligent interest in the discussion.

BASEBALL PLAYERS REPORT SORE ARMS

First Workout Since Return From Kansas Held Last Night.

Coach Schissler put the Husker baseball squad through their first workout last night after the return from Kansas. On account of the extremely cold weather of last week a number of men have reported with sore arms.

The Huskers will leave early Friday morning for Ames where the Scarlet and Cream nine will meet the Iowa State Farmers' 10-game series on Friday and Saturday afternoons. The team will leave directly following the Saturday contest and arrive in Lincoln the same evening.

The opponents for the Varsity in last night's game was a picked team composed of part of the Varsity and a few of the scrubs with Pickett and Hollingsworth as the battery. The final outcome was 3 to 0 in favor of the Varsity. Coach Schissler will probably take about the same crew to Ames that made the trip to Kansas.

Inter-Greek Tourney.

Inter-fraternity baseball will be the next sport in which the Greeks will participate in. All entries for the tournament must be in to John Pickett or the athletic office sometime before 6 o'clock tomorrow night. A few entries have already been turned in and the tardy fraternities are asked to get theirs in as soon as possible.

Last year practically all of the fraternities on the campus entered the tournament and this helped to create a great deal of interest in the national pastime about the University. The schedule for the tournament will be changed as soon as the entry list is completed and will probably be announced in the Friday edition of the Daily Nebraskan.

A. S. A. E.

Regular meeting has been postponed from May 5 to May 12.

Ag Club.

Ag Club pep meeting to be held in Social Science 105 at 7 o'clock Wednesday. New articles of the constitution to be voted on.

JUNIOR GIRLS WIN BALL GAME FROM SENIOR NINE

First Inter-Class Contest Goes to 1922 Aggregation by Large Score.

The junior nine walked over the senior aggregation at the first game of the girls' inter-class baseball Tuesday noon with a score of 42-23. During the first two innings things were pretty evenly matched. At the last half of the third inning the seniors got wild and allowed their enemy to cross the plate twelve times. Eleanor Snell was on the mound for the juniors clear through the game, with Bob Henderson and Annabelle Ranslem taking turns at receiving her speedy pellet. The seniors changed pitchers at the fifth inning and were able to hold the juniors to a mere collection of points. Mary Shepherd, sport leader, pitched the first four innings, was relieved part time by Ruth McKenney, who in turn handed the twirling over to Martha Krogmann for the remainder of the game. Ruth Carr did some good base stealing. Bob Henderson and Eleanor Snell both registered home runs for the juniors. A distinctive feature of the senior team was its ability to register errors, and thus allow the juniors to race around the diamond at their own free will.

Miss Janza and Miss Clark umpired the game. Miss Mann and Miss Donati were score keepers. The second freshman team will meet the mixed team today noon on the athletic field. The sophomores will meet the freshman Thursday at 11 o'clock.

The members of the junior team are: Annabelle Ranslem, c.; Eleanor Snell, p.; Nannie Roberts, lb, capt.; Coleta Aitkin, 2b; Eunice Hilton, 3b; Bob Henderson, ss.; Josephine Reymann, rf.; Mary Hardy, cf.; Katherine Wolfe, lf.; Betty Ball, sub.; Alice Stevens, sub.

LEGISLATURE DEFINES DEPARTMENT'S DUTIES

The recent session of the state legislature has newly defined and revamped the duties and work of the Conservation and Survey department of the University.

The statute now includes fourteen divisions such as soil survey, geological survey, water power survey and the forestry and motion picture service.

All these departments are housed in Nebraska Hall.

'UNKNOWN LATIN AMERICA' DESCRIBED BY WARSHAW

Professor of Modern Languages Tells Freshmen Importance of Southern Countries.

Professor Warshaw of the Modern Language department addressed the freshmen Tuesday on the subject of the "Unknown Latin America." He spoke of Latin America as being unknown to us in a way that we do not appreciate its worth and importance enough to study its people and countries. We sometimes think that when we trade with its countries we are trading with bead-buying Indians. They are not that class. "Most of the people of South America are as much Europeanized as we. They use the modern machinery and methods that we use," said Professor Warshaw.

He also quoted statistics to his audience to show that Latin America is by far our most important trading field. In proportion to its size and population it surpasses any other field with which we trade. The silver and meat industries are larger than we realize. The Armour Packing company has a $10,000,000 plant in Brazil and all of the other large companies of a similar nature are buying land in South America.

Most of the countries in Latin America resent the attitude of the United States in regard to the Monroe Doctrine. Brazil is the one exception. The majority of them regard us as an unwelcome big brother. They realize the immeasurable benefits they have received from our protection but they believe they are now ready to "walk alone."

Latin America is yet in its infancy. It is our duty to become acquainted with the circumstances which surround the relation of the two grand divisions, both so rich in natural resources and both holding such subtle power.

Journalism Group (Omaha Day). Present and former members of journalism classes wishing to join the group that will visit the Omaha newspaper plants are requested to leave their names at Professor Fogg's office, U 112.

Beautiful Repast

At Party Staged

By 'Near-Phys-Eds'

The Near-Phys-Eds treated the members of the Physical Education department to a feed Tuesday noon after the baseball game. The table groaned and sagged under the weight of home made cakes, sandwiches, cookies, and all sorts of good food. Over forty hungry girls made quick work of the food. The members of the winning team were presented with candy from the president of the W. A. A. who is a charter member of the "psuedoes." Mrs. Jessie Begthol Lee was informally made an honorary member of the society. Miss Louise Pound and Miss Della Marie Clark were present.

The "Near" society is an informal gathering of girls that play around the gymnasium, love the sports, and do all they can to wear out the gymnasium equipment. This is the second large meeting of the group and probably the last one of the season, unless some members calls her sisters together, with an order to bring all the food that she can swipe from home, as well as all the paper plates she can swipe from the supply of more respectable organizations. Every member is a live wire, and decided that the best way to control such superfluous pep, was to form a band that met under the satisfying influence of food.

SQUARE AND COMPASS MEETING THURSDAY

The date for the last meeting this year of the Square and Compass club has been changed to Thursday, May 5, in room 101, Social Science Hall at 7 p. m. Professor Wolcott will speak. A business meeting will follow when officers will be elected, and reports made on the dance and plans for next year. All University Masons are eligible to attend this meeting.

Row, Fish and Dance

At the Senior Picnic

A little excursion up the Blue—a fish or two—back to the pavilion—then a little dancing—that's what is in store for you Thursday if you are a senior.

The Chancellor and Mrs. Avery are the hosts. All members of the fourth-year class are the guests. The Lincoln Chamber of Commerce is furnishing sixty cars for transportation to and from Crete. Members of the graduating class will meet at 8:30 Thursday morning at 11th and P streets where cars will be waiting for them.

This is the last senior "get-together" before the end of the year. If you are a member of that dignified body, cast aside your sedateness Thursday and roll up your sleeves, put on your rowing arms and go to the scenes of the merry-making!

DENTAL COLLEGE PICNIC SATURDAY AT ASHLAND

Students, professors and alumni of the Dental College will leave Lincoln at 10:30 a. m. Saturday morning by automobile for Ashland where they will spend the day picnicking.

There is a splendid program arranged for the day beginning with a ball game between men from the college and men who are now practicing in Lincoln. Following the ball game will be tennis tournaments, both singles and doubles, and at 4:15 there will be a wrestling match between Byers and an unknown champion.

At 6 o'clock there will be a big picnic lunch at the picnic grounds, followed by a dance. The students will return late Saturday evening.

LAST CHANCE TO ENROLL FOR TRIP

Registration for Omaha Day Excursion Closes Today at 2 P. M.

ROY N. TOWLE TO SPEAK

Committee Urges Professors to Use Features of Trip as Laboratory Exercises.

Enrollment for the Omaha day excursion will close at 2 o'clock today and the number to go in each group will be telephoned to Omaha soon after so that preparations can be completed. Complete directions for those making the trip will appear in the Daily Nebraskan Thursday.

One of the features of the day will be an address by Roy N. Towle, one of the Omaha city commissioners, on the $10,000,000 Dodge street project now under construction in Omaha, where part of the city is being cut down so that the business district may extend north. The talk will be given at the Omaha Chamber of Commerce at 2:30 and all students are invited, although it is primarily for the engineers.

Those who want to go to the big $700 dance must have a ticket even though they neither go nor return with the students on the special train. Registration should be made at once so that the committee in Omaha may be notified.

The Omaha day committee urges more professors to enroll so that they may use the excursions as laboratory work for their courses.

All Omaha students are asked to meet in Social Science 105 at 7 o'clock Wednesday. Leaders will be assigned to Omaha day groups, and all ticket sellers will be expected to turn in unsold tickets and the money for those sold.

JUNIOR BARRISTERS

WILL DANCE THURSDAY

Law Hop to Be Staged Early Because of Omaha Day May 6.

The Junior Law Hop will be staged at the Lincoln hotel Thursday night, May 5, instead of Friday night as originally planned. The change was made after the announcement that school would be closed Omaha day regardless of whether one thousand students make the trip. This makes Thursday night the beginning of the week-end.

Students are urged to buy their tickets early because only a limited number will be validated. Pasteborders will sell for $1.25 and may be procured from any member of the hop committee: Ralph Ford, chairman; Chalmers Seymour, Hugh Carson, Franz Schlaebitz, Robert Van Pelt, Lloyd Rolfe, "Lum" Doyle, John Williams, Ross Byers, Elmer Gudmundsen, William Sloan and Emil Luekey. Story Harding has charge of the publicity and Ransom Samuelson of the music.

"The party will be just a little different than the usual 'run' of hops," said a committee member yesterday. "There will be novel favors, refreshments, music and two or three surprises. There isn't any school Friday and you'll want to dance Thursday night."

Plans are already being made by the members of the Law College for the annual barbecue and celebration which will be held May 13 this year.

All inter-fraternity baseball entrance fees must be paid to John Pickett before Thursday night.

VARSIITY TENNIS.

In order to be eligible for the Varsity the student must be an undergraduate carrying twelve hours of work this semester and carrying successfully at least twenty-seven hours work the two preceding semesters.
