

ANNUAL IVY DAY TO BE CELEBRATED WEDNESDAY

Those Who Expect to Eat Box Lunches at State Farm Must Buy Tickets Beforehand.

Twenty-third annual Ivy day will be celebrated by all colleges Wednesday morning, afternoon and evening with the most elaborate program ever arranged. The morning program begins on the city campus south of "U" hall at 10 a. m. while the afternoon and evening program commences on the State Farm campus at 2:30. The official program appearing in this issue should be used for the Ivy day exercises and the announcements are important to all students who expect to participate.

Everyone who expects to have a picnic lunch served after the tapping of the innocents on the Farm campus must buy a ticket before tomorrow night. These tickets may be obtained at the Student Activities office for 50 cents. Preparations for the open air pavilion at the State Farm have started and the platform will be erected south of the Home Economics building. The platform will be used as the place from which innocents and Mortarboards will be tapped. Guy Reed has been secured to give a short talk to the thirteen men who will form the new innocent chapter immediately preceding the serving of picnic lunches.

All the girls of the senior class and two hundred under-class co-eds will form the Daisy chain and procession of honor for the Queen at the morning exercises on Ivy Day. White robes for the senior and colored gowns for the other girls may be obtained by presenting a receipt at Ellen Smith Hall Monday or Tuesday between 1 and 5 o'clock. The receipts may be obtained starting today from any member of Silver Serpent, Xi Delta or Mystic Fish for a deposit of $1.00, 75c, of which will be refunded after the ceremonies.

The senior girls carrying the Ivy Chain form one of the prettiest parts of the ceremonies preceding the crowning of the Queen. The Mortarboard committee in charge predicts 100 per cent representation for the senior girl. The underclass daisy chain group will be limited to two hundred girls. Those who obtain and present their receipts first will have first choice. The 25c, which is cleared on each gown, is announced, is to go toward paying for the gowns. Every girl in the procession will have a special place reserved from which she can view the exercises. The senior girls obtain their receipts from members of Mortarboard beginning today.

BASEBALL TOURNEY IS WELL UNDER WAY

Xi Psi Phi Shut Sig Eps Out With a Score of 2-0 Without Even a Hit.

The inter-fraternity baseball tournament is now well under way with both the first and second rounds being nearly completed. The remainder of the contests will be played this week.

The most interesting game of the tournament was staged between the Xi Psi Phi team and Sig Eps nine. "Rudy" Ziegenbein, a freshman from Ashland, hurling for the Zips let the Sig Eps down without a hit or run. The final count was 2 to 0 in favor of the dentists. Ziegenbein had seventeen strikeouts to his credit and pitched the best game of ball witnessed here this season. The Sig Eps nine have won the championship the past two years and winning a game from them by the no-hit no-run method would be considered quite a feat for even a big leaguer.

The managers of the teams have the privilege of scheduling the games for their respective teams so that it will be convenient for both teams. Reports should be given to John Lawlor the same night as the games have been played if possible. Games may be played at any place that is the most desirable for the contestants.

Following is a summary of the games to date:

The senior members of Palladian Literary Society presented the Annual Senior Program at an open meeting on Friday. The program consisted of an original sketch, including a "prophecy" by Ruth Hall, and a "will" by Olive Hartley, each of which was presented in a unique and clever way. Vocal solos were given by Alice High and Alverta Buchta. There are nineteen members who receive their degrees this year. The meeting next Friday will be closed for initiation of new members.

Pi Beta Phi.
 Pi Beta Phi entertained Saturday afternoon and evening in honor of their mothers. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Geo. H. Oetgen, Mrs. J. L. Patterson, Nebraska City; Mrs. W. C. Ross, Mrs. A. S. Rockwell, Mrs. G. C. Meierjurgan, Omaha; Mrs. A. J. Faul, Council Bluffs; Mrs. W. A. Harrison, York; Mrs. V. Beemer, Emerald.

Y. W. C. A. Tea.
 The Y. W. C. A. entertained at a tea Friday afternoon for all University girls in honor of Miss Eliza Clark, a representative of the Presbyterian board who is here in the interest of the Y. W. C. A. Sunday morning the new Y. W. C. A. cabinet and staff members will entertain the old members at a May breakfast at Ellen Smith hall. Miss Clark will be an honor guest and give a talk to the girls.

Alpha Tau Omega.
 Alpha Tau Omega entertained forty couples at their annual picnic at Crete Friday afternoon and evening. Swimming, boating and dancing were enjoyed and a picnic lunch was served at seven. Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. John Wenstand, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Zumwinkle and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bush.

--the New Sport Clothes are in a Gay Mood!

"The Gayer the Better"
 Say the Smartest Sport Hats

—and they surely practice what they preach! You couldn't imagine anything more vivid than the array of chic models from Eastern designers, now on display in our millinery section. Jade, flame, tangerine, tomato, porcelain blue, henna—they're all here, in sports styles, varying from the simplest sailor to large picturesque leghorns and organdies. Priced from $5.00 to $27.00.

--One must have the Right Blouses to wear with Sweater and Sport-Coat

The tailored ones are most satisfactory and becoming, and they may be had in a wealth of fabrics.

One smart model of heavy white crepe de chine has a long tuxedo collar and a tucked front. It is priced at $7.50. Similar styles in white and striped dimity, cost $3.75. And then there are blouses with youthful Peter Pan collars which may be had in plain white or trimmed in color. They are priced at $3.00. These, of course, are but instances of the selection from which you may choose.

—Second Floor.

How About a White Silk Middy Suit Miss College Girl?

We mean the kind that are "regulation" in every particular, of course!

Among the genuine "Mar-Hoff" suits we have recently received is a stunning one of white habutai, trimmed in white. It is $25.00. There is one of white Rajah silk too, for $27.50. In white surf satin these suits are $16.50; in white Kool-cloth, $8.50; and in white Indian head, $7.50. Note also the middy suit of black and white checked taffeta, and the one of tan pongee with collar and trimmings of brown, at $25.00 each.

These are the sort of suits Vassar, Smith and Wellesley college girls wear.

A Jersey Suit Will help along the game of everyday living

CAN you think of any sort of suit that adapts itself so gracefully to any occasion? They're so practical too, because they do not wrinkle easily and always look trim. We have them in heather mixtures and navy as well as in the bright colors for sports wear. You can buy a very nice one, well tailored and of thoroughly creditable appearance in every way, for $25.00.

—Second Floor.

This New Sport Pump combines white buck skin and tan calf--

Doesn't that sound good! And it looks even better, for the lines are gracefully tailored and lend an appearance of distinction to the foot. Reasonably priced at $11.00.

—Second Floor.

You'll Want Two or Three of These Gorgeous Silk Sweaters

—they're so good-looking and, really, they are so much cheaper than in several seasons past, that one can almost afford several this year. The blue, black and brown ones are mighty attractive, but they share honors with their more brilliant sisters in tomato, jade, coral, apricot, purple, tangerine and flame. Slip-over, tie-back and Tuxedo models are featured, at prices ranging from $3.50 to $27.50.

COZY WOOL SWEATERS, often with Angora collars, are equally as picturesque as the silk ones, and may be had in practically the same colors. They are priced from $5.00 to $15.00.

What nice things shall we say first about the New Sport Skirts

SUPPOSE we start to talk about the pleated white serge skirts, because they look well with any sort of a sport coat or sweater. With box or side pleats and narrow belts, many of them are priced at $13.50, $16.50 and $22.50. Something a bit more dashing perhaps will be found in certain "candy stripe" skirts of flannel, combining such colors as jade, pink and tangerine with white. They are priced at $16.50. Flannel skirts in solid colors cost $12.50.

And then there are perfectly beautiful skirts of white silks—Habutai, Crepe de Chine, Rajah silk, or exquisite novelties, as the case may be. Sometimes they choose a broad satin stripe of color, a black check perhaps, or a tiny figure. Some of the more elaborate ones might well furnish the inspiration and major part of a smart costume for informal social occasions.

Of course, we must not forget the faithful woolen plaid clan, which bobs up in new patterns and color combinations just as sure as the season for golf, tennis, and every other feminine sport comes 'round.

Warner's Corsetette
 —brassiere, abdomen corset, and hose supporters in one, is just the thing for golf, tennis, or dancing.
 Priced at $3.75.
