PRICE FIVE CENTS

SCRIMMAGE FOR VARSITY TEAMS

Three Complete Teams Battle On Practice Field In Monday Afternoon Workout.

WESLEYAN GAME SATURDAY

Haskell Indians And Notre Dame Get Off To Flying Starts With Grid-Iron Victories.

Three complete Varsity teams were put thru a stiff practice last night in preparation for the opening contest of the season against the Wesleyan Coyotes next Saturday afternoon on Nebraska field. Coach Dawson gave the men the preliminary work early in the afternoon and followed up with a snappy scrimmage with the three picked elevens battling each other.

Coach Dawson does not expect to announce any regular Varsity eleven until after the first two games on the Husker calendar have been taken care of. Following the Methodist invasion, the Haskell Indians will make their appearance on the Cornhusker grid-iron. The Indians got away to a flying start last Friday by taking the Pittsburg Danuals into camp by a 14 to 0 count.

Notre Dame demonstrated to the sporting world something of the strength of their 1921 machine by defeating the Kalamazoo college eleven by a 56 to 0 score. The "Irishmen" secured eight touchdowns against the Kalamazoo athletics before the final whistle was sounded. Coach Rockne lost five men by graduation last year but this year's lineup read practically the same as the 1920 championship team. Straight football and one forward pass were the tactics used by the Rockne warriors in their victory over the Kalamazoo men.

Coach ReCandless has a string of Varsity men that are experienced in the gridiron sport and should keep the Huskers guessing Saturday. At the ends are Harrell and Kahm, both who have had two year's experience. McFarland, Raitt, and Quante are the best candidates for the tackle positions. Flivecoate and Bernard are slated to fill the guard positions with Parkinson and Hansen battling for the pivot position.

he choice for quarterback will be between Weymouth and Anderson with either Stemple or Neil working at the fullback position. Captain Harry McCandless, Hare, Alabaster, and Seekman are the shining lights for the halfback positions. The Wesleyan squad are working conscientiously in preparation for the Husker tilt and intend to make it interesting for the Scarlet and Stream performers as well as the spectators.

First Year String to Mix in Scrimmage With Coach Dawson's Protoges.

Coach Farley Young has started his freshman football team into action. The yearlings are showing up very good in the scrimmages.

The freshman are very anxious to battle with the varsity and the contest will come off very soon. They are working in separate teams now for the purpose of finding out exactly where they can play the best. Coach Young has picked no special team as yet but within a few days he can tell who is going to make the team and who is not.

Some of the Fresh backfield material that are showing up very good are: Hubka, Dewitz, Hinman, Hummel, Burgess, Creclivous, Day and several others, there is also some excellent line material.

All Freshman who have lost interest in football please turn in your uniforms, there is hardly enough for the regulars to go around but with your equipment they may be supplied very nicely.

CLASS ELECTIONS

Filings for class presidential elections must be made at the Student Activities office in the basement of Administration hall by 5 p. m. Friday, September 26, 1921.

Florence I. McGahey, Registrar.

AG. CLUB MEMBERS ARE PLANNING RECEPTION

Ag club met Thursday evening, Sept. 22, for the first meeting of the year. A large number of old members were present to start the activities of the society for the semester. Plans for a reception for new members were discussed and other business of college interest was planned.

DEPT. OF COMMONS IS ESTABLISHED

L. F. Seaton is Placed in Charge of Uni Eating Houses and Dormitories

In the re-organization of the business departments of the University, all the eating houses and dormitories under University control have been placed in one department called the Department of Commons. The head of this department is the Director of Commons, L. F. Seaton being at present acting director.

The eating houses under control of the Department of Commons are the Cafeteria in the Temple building and the Women's Commons, both on the city campus, and the Cafeteria in Home Economics Hall at the College of Agriculture.

It is hoped and expected that the present organization will bring these eating houses into closer relationship with each other to their mutual benefit and to the benefit of faculty and student patrons. The sole object the University has in maintaining eating houses at all is that students may be assured good, wholesome, well cooked food at low prices. However, in order that this may be carried out in an entirely businesslike manner the items of heat, light, water and fuel are charged to the different eating houses on the basis of the cost of these items to the University. It is now, as heretofore, the object of both Cafeterias and of the Commons to furnish faculty, administrative forces and students the best food at the very lowest prices possible when items of food cost, preparation and service are taken into consideration.

UNI DIRECTORIES OUT IN OCTOBER

Student Guide Book to Make Its Appearance Within Four Weeks

The work on the 1921 student directory is rapidly progressing and the book will probably be placed on sale within three or four weeks. The editors have prepared a complete card index system of every student in the university and only the matter of address changes is holding up the publication. It is expected that these changes will all be taken care of this week and the material placed in the hands of the printer.

The 1921 directory will contain several new features that have not appeared in past years. The men in charge are planning to make it the most complete directory that has ever been issued. While the book will be similar to that of last year in general make-up, it will be equipped with information valuable to students that has been omitted from other directories.

It cannot be stated at present what the price of the 1921 student roster will be. The editors are trying to make the cost as low as possible in order to offer it for sale at a very nominal figure.

Ervin B. Gaston '23 is editor of the directory and Eugene Ebersole '22 is business manager.

Union Meeting.

University Union society held its first meeting of the year Friday evening in the society hall in the Temple building. About seventy attended. The evening opened with the following five number program, followed by some novel get-acquainted games.

Monologue Mr. Fobel
Violin Solo Miss Jacqueline Bost
Monologue Miss Lillian Votaw
Vocal Solo Miss Inez Bruce
The hall was decorated in Scarlet and Cream.

KOSMET OFFER IS NOW OPEN

Cash Prize Of $100 For Best Original Play To Be Produced Next Spring To Be Given.

KOSMET NIGHT IS MAY 17

Manuscripts Should Be Handed To Professor Scott Within Month—Open To All Students.

Kosmet Klub announces that the prize of $100 for an original play, which was offered last spring has not been awarded and that manuscripts which have not yet been turned in will be given consideration.

Kosmet Klub, an organization of fifteen upper-classesmen, annually produces a musical play written by University of Nebraska students and has this year opened a contest to all Cornhusker students who wish to try their skill in writing a play for next spring. The play will be given on Ivy Day Eve in May.

Prof. R. D. Scott or any member of the club should be consulted about manuscripts which may have been started during the summer which will be completed within a month. All plays submitted will be given equal consideration and the musical numbers need not be included in the plot.

The play produced by the Kosmet Klub last spring was "The Most Prime Minister." It was given before a large audience of students and friends of the University at the Orpheum theater.

The story of the play was written by members of the society under the direction of Professor Scott, the musical numbers were written by Nebraska students and the play was produced by the club members.

November 1st is the latest date that stories will be accepted. Frank Winegar, president of the club this year and Professor Scott will receive the contributions that are to be turned in.

NIGHT PRACTICE BY PENN STATE SQUAD

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Sept. 26.—Four large arc lights, with bright reflectors, have been erected at the sides of the practice gridiron on the new Beaver field in order to enable the Penn state football squad to hold workouts at night.

NEWS OF THE DAY

To Make Big Loans

OMAHA, Sept. 26.—Eugene Meyer, jr., of New York, expressed the opinion here today that the war finance corporation of which he is chairman, would make large loans locally for the relief of the livestock industry.

"We feel that we have established confidence and loans through our local committees can be promptly made," he said following a visit to the Omaha stock yards and a conference with Omaha bankers relative to war finance corporation loans to live stock interests, to stop what he has termed "immature marketing and enforced liquidation in an effort to promote breeding."

Conference Opens.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—The national unemployment conference which the administration hopes will evolve means of putting the nation's involuntary idle back to work, was formally opened here today by President Harding.

Addressing the half hundred industrial, economic and labor delegates, comprising the conference, the president described the present industrial depression as "a war inheritance thru-out the world" for which as applied to the United States, he added, he "would have little enthusiasm for any proposed relief which seeks either palliation or tonic from the public treasury."

Belief was expressed by the president that the results of the conference would be felt beyond the borders of the United States and that the delegates in their deliberations would be performing "a service to the world."

Woman's "Bill of Rights."

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—A woman's "bill of rights" proposed for enactment by the federal and all state governments to remove legal discriminations against women, was outlined Sunday in a statement by the national woman's party.

FINAL RESULTS ARE ANNOUNCED

Daily Nebraskan Subscription Drive Meets With Success Among Students.

SUBSCRIPTION LIST IS 1,700

Ruth McGill and Betty Reddell Win Individual Prizes—Delian Gets A First Place.

With a subscription list touching seventeen hundred, the Daily Nebraskan drive for the first semester closed late last week and announcement of the prize winners has been made.

The individual prize of fifteen dollars was won by Ruth McGill with Betty Riddell a close second. Both of these girls turned in over one hundred and fifty subscriptions. The organization prize of twenty-five dollars was carried off by the Delian Literary Society. Three sororities were close behind the Delians at the close of the campaign. They are Achoth, Chi Omega and Gamma Phi Beta. Every sorority assisted in the drive and were able to turn in subscriptions.

Following is a list of the houses which, by subscribing 100 per cent, have obtained a place on the roll of honor:

The subscription manager, Clifford Hicks, announces that this list will be added to during the coming week. Further announcement of 100 per cent organizations which earn the right to the special morning delivery service will be made thru these columns.

JUDGE H. H. WILSON TO GIVE ADDRESS TO LAWS

Next Friday morning at eleven o'clock the morning of the law college will have the privilege of hearing Judge H. H. Wilson deliver an address on legal ethics. The judge is a most interesting speaker, and the next general lecture is being looked forward to by all law students as a real treat.

VARSITY DAIRY TEAM MEMBERS ANNOUNCED

Will Represent Nebraska at "Cattle Congress" in Waterloo, Iowa, This Week.

Elton Lux, M. G. Sherman, Glen A. Hunt, and J. R. Thomas are the men who have been selected to constitute the Dairy Judging team from the University of Nebraska this fall.

The team, accompanied by Coach B. H. Thompson who has been drilling the men for the last three weeks, left Saturday morning for Waterloo, Iowa to participate in the dairy judging contest at "The Cattle Congress" held there Monday Sept. 6.

The Nebraska men will also attend the National Dairy Show at St. Paul on October 8 to 15. Here they will compete for honors against other college teams.

An extensive trip of two weeks duration is the plan of the team. They will visit many large dairy herds thru-out the lake states. From Waterloo they will go to Chicago where they are planning to visit the Guernsey herd of T. K. Babson at Hinsdale and the Deering herd at Lake Villa.

From Chicago they will go to Milwaukee and Waukausha where they plan to visit the Guernsey herds of Fruit Brothers and William Jones, and also the Holstein herds of Aitken, Baird and Sons, as well as the Baird brothers. At Oconomowoc, they will visit the famous Carnation herds and the Pambst herd.

The return trip will be by way of St. Paul where the team plans to visit William Moscrip's Holsteins the Brackett Jersey herd and J. M. Hackney's herd of Guernseys. They will return home after the contest at St. Paul.

CO-ED SOCCER TEAMS START SCRIMMAGES

Field East of Social Science Building Reserved for Girls Athletics

Scrimmage work in the girls' Soccer camp has begun on their new field just east of the Social Science building. Almost any time of the day blower-clad co-eds may be seen chasing or kicking the ball in its own certain course through the high grass. Practice has not been so intense yet that battered shins are in vogue, but stiffness reigns supreme.

The game of soccer football is scrappy but not rough enough for the padded leather head-gear or corrugated shin guards of the men—but it seems to call for brightly colored tams and bands. Even the feathered bonnet may be occasionally seen clinging at an uneasy angle on the head of an active player as she hops around the field.

The older girls assist the coaches in teaching the game to the new girls, as well as recruiting new players. Freshman girls are urged to come out at once and learn the game, so the class may have a strong team. The class team members are picked from the girls who have completed ten practices, and only those are eligible for consideration. The class tournament which always winds up a sport season will probably be staged in the latter part of October. The victorious team will have their class numerals engraved on the Soccer cup. The hours for practice are posted on the W. A. A. bulletin board in the Gymnasium.

Awgwan Contributors.

Contributors for the freshman number of the Awgwan should be mailed to the Awgwan editor, Station A, immediately. Members of this year's staff will be selected from those who contribute the most and best material regularly.

AWGWAN DRIVE TODAY ON CAMPUS

Nebraska Comic Magazine to Make Its Appearance on Local Campus Early Next Week.

PRICE IS SLASHED IN TWO

Sigma Delta Chi Reduces Subscription Rate to $1.00 For Entire Year With Nine Issues.

Today opens the Awgwan subscription campaign. Awgwan will appear on the campus the first of next week with the same old smile in a new costume. Especial care will be taken this year to see that each and every student has an opportunity to get his or her name on the Awgwan subscription list.

No one will be paged over the entire campus a hundred times to force them to purchase the comic as a protection from more paging. The magazine is worth twice what it sells for this season and is just half as costly as the other comic papers originating in the rest of the colleges and universities. The Awgwan publishers, Sigma Delta Chi, honorary journalistic fraternity, decided at the close of the 1920-21 term that students this year would appreciate reductions in their college expenses. Awgwan was promptly reduced in price by fifty per cent.

"Life" of The University.

The University comic is the life of the University and has been the chief source of fun and frolic for a decade. It is one of the ranking publications of the country. Students who miss it but little when they subscribe during their college days will live to rue their folly in after years. It is no unusual thing for the editor of the publication to receive letters from graduates asking if a bound volume of the Awgwan for "the year I was in school could be furnished them." Don't mind the cost, I want that volume" is the trend of their epistles.

To prevent any such misfortune in the lives of the students of today the staff will see to it that each student has an opportunity to subscribe to the magazine. In case there should be a slip up on the part of the staff an added precaution is taken. Anyone may get their subscription taken at the Student Activities office. Keep the receipt. It is your chief source by which to get the magazine when it comes off the press.

Covers are Unique.

The cover designs of the coming volume of Awgwan are being prepared under the supervision of "Hobb" Turner, art editor of the magazine. "Hobb's" cover design for the May issue of Awgwan made a nation wide hit and calls for similar designs of unique pattern have been coming to the school from every corner of the country. Hobb's latest design, painted expressly for the Freshman number of the Awgwan, is a knockout. The cover alone will be worth all a subscription costs.

But more than this. The intention of the department to run a number of cartoons of original ideas more varied than ever before has brought forth a legion of penmen and women. The cartoonists seem to have all decided on Nebraska this year. However, the Awgwan staff is fortunate in having had drawings submitted by some twelve or more artists, many of the sketches being of merit and worthy of much praise.

Get Your Awgwan.

Everyone should get in on the campaign and hasten it to a swift conclusion. The main thing about the subscriptions to Awgwan this year is the speed with which they can be attended to. The subscription line should be somewhat similar to the registration line and everyone in it and anxious to get thru.

The magazine will be distributed thru the postoffice on the campus. All who subscribe should retain their receipts in order to insure that they get their copy of the comic without delay. Every organization should show 100 per cent subscription. Its up to you, each individual, to make the Nebraska comic successful as it has been in the past, by your participation in contributions, your enjoyment of its pages and your subscription.
