AWGWAN.

Today the Awgwan subscription campaign starts. It's a real magazine that is coming to Nebraska this year! It has many features not present last year and the price is reduced.

For years the comic has been noted for its wit and humor. It is a common occurrence to have its jokes, its cartoons, and its witticisms quoted in the best professional and amateur fun magazines in the United States. The Weekly film reviews are users of Awgwan material.

Last year the price of the magazine was two dollars—this year it has been cut to one dollar for the entire nine numbers. Most of the editorial force of last year is back and are already working on the first issue which will appear October third. A more highly organized editorial staff this year will result in a publication that will ever be a pleasure to readers.

Four big "N" blankets are being given—one each day—to the co-eds that sell the most subscriptions to the monthly. You'd better get your dollar ready for they have some mighty convincing arguments for Awgwan if you hesitate.

Awgwan represents the laughing side of your university life. It brings out the things you like to laugh at, the funny things that take place in classes, and brings a happiness to its readers that make Awgwan Day, each month, a enjoyable one.

THE TWENTIETH CENTURY.

Today the last lap of the big athletic ticket race is on. Over nineteen hundred tickets have been sold and just a few more sales will push the campaign over the top. You all know what it will mean to nineteen hundred students if this last hundred buy. It will mean tow dollars and fifty cents in all our pockets.

The successful culmination of this drive is YOUR responsibility, Mr. Nebraskan. It will show that we have the school spirit to put a drive across that really amounts to something. If you, and you, and you, all talk and talk and talk—the few tickets remaining to be sold will be gone in a short time.

The Students Activities offices, located in the basement at the west end of the Administration building, has the remaining tickets for sale. Get one today or sell one.

CONTEMPORARY OPINION

(The Grinnell Scarlet and Blue.)

AN EDITORIAL.

By Pres. J. H. T. Main.

The welcome Grinnell gives to you is not perfunctory. It comes from the heart, it meets you more than half way. It gives you promise, today, that it will stay with you thru the college years, whether you are an old student or a new one, so that you may finish your course with joy.

Grinnell college is an opportunity. It is offered to you in all its richness. It is your privilege to take the opportunity and to realize it. It is your glorious task to demonstrate, for yourself, Grinnell as an opportunity. The college opportunity, here or elsewhere, is a problem to be solved. It is a mountain to be climbed. It is an ideal to be realized. An opportunity means defeat, or it means victory. Which shall it be for you? It is wholly within your power to decide.

The college is an investment. It is stupid to say that we spend money for an education. We spend money only for candy and movies; a college education is a primary investment. It is the most profitable investment one can make. It brings larger returns. It brings returns in money, but the returns in money are insignificant as compared with the larger understanding of life it contributes, as compared with the spiritual development it insures, as compared with the "home feeling" it gives you as a citizen of the world.

The opportunity taken, the investment made—Grinnell college becomes a possession. It becomes yours. It becomes yours in spiritual fee. It is a unique and extraordinary possession. It goes with you wherever you go. Tho you go to the African jungles to serve humanity, it goes with you. Tho you go to the uttermost parts of the world, it goes with you. The college has become yours. It is your support, your credential, your demonstration of capacity and power.

Moreover it goes with you to the end, and into the Great Beyond. You leave money behind, and all things material; but your college—its ideals, its realities, the truth it has given you, the life it has enriched—these all go with you as you pass over the Great Divide.

These are golden days of promise for you. Wrapped in them are all the realities that make life worth while. May you see and know this now.

COLLEGE PRESIDENTS AND PROFESSORS TO ASSIST WILSON FOUNDATION

New York, Sept. 10.—A committee of college presidents and professors is to be one of the major groups to assist in the work of the Woodrow Wilson Foundation, according to an announcement just given out from the headquarters of that organization at 150 Nassau Street, New York. Hamilton Holt, editor of The Independent and executive director of the Foundation, announced that Stephen P. Duggan, director of the Institute of International Education of New York, is to be chairman of what is to be called the educational committee of the Foundation and that Professor Duggan has already outlined his committee and is receiving acceptances for membership on it.

It is the hope of the Woodrow Wilson Foundation to rally to its support the largest possible body of college graduates and undergraduates, says Mr. Holt's statement. The purpose of the Foundation is to honor and perpetuate the ideals of Mr. Wilson, and to use the words defining its purpose, it is to be "created by public subscription in recognition of the national and international services of Woodrow Wilson, twice president of the United States, who furthered the cause of human freedom and was instrumental in pointing out effective methods for the co-operation of the liberal forces of mankind throughout the world."

"The Award of Awards from the Income of the Foundation will be made from time to time by a nationally constituted committee to the individual or group that has rendered, within a specified period, meritorious service to democracy, public welfare, liberal thought or peace through justice."

It is proposed to give the Foundation an endowment of one million dollars or more, to be subscribed as a free-will offering from all parts of the country and from all classes of its people, the sum to be kept permanently intact and the income to be used as an award or awards somewhat like the Nobel Prizes, one of which Mr. Wilson, himself, holds. The money is to be raised without the usual campaign or drive methods since the committee feels that such a means of money-raising in this instance will be unnecessary so long as their purpose is only to afford "Americans an opportunity to pay tribute in lasting form to the democratic ideals of another American who has served his country and the world, and who achieved greatly and suffered greatly."

Franklin D. Roosevelt, President Wilson's assistant secretary of the navy, is chairman of the National Committee of the Foundation, and Cleveland H. Hedge is chairman of the executive committee, which is composed of the following members: Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Frank L. Cobb, Stephen P. Duggan, Mrs. J. Malcolm Forbes, Edwin F. Gay, Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, Edward M. House, Frederick Lynch, Henry Morgenthau, Adolph S. Ochs, Frank L. Polk, Miss Virginia Potter, Miss Caroline Ruutz-Rees, Mrs. Charles E. Simonson, Mrs. Charles L. Tiffany and Mrs. H. Otto Wittmann.

State chairmen are organizing in thirty-six states, it is announced, and nation-wide organization of all the states will be completed early in September. Great interest in the movement has been manifested by women, Mr. Holt says, and a national woman's committee is being organized by Miss Virginia Potter.

Adding Style to Quality

STYLE is to quality what a polish is to fine wood. A cheap coat of varnish will put a bright temporary gloss on good old mahogany, but it takes thorough workmanship to put on that lasting polish which brings out its fullest glories. So does perfect tailoring bring out the richness of fabrics and style in clothes. It is their perfection of tailoring, fit and finish that gives to Stratford Clothes their unequalled style.

It pays to buy the best.

COHN RISSMAN & COMPANY
CHICAGO

The new Stratford styles for Fall and Winter again definitely attest to the fact that Stratford designers are anticipating America's style trend. Stratford Clothes are also distinguished by several vitally important and exclusive tailoring features. Sack coats are made with the exclusive fabric trim—no body linings to wear out. They have two-way pockets. All coat seams are silk-satin piped. All trousers are made with double crotches and double pocket stays.
