

SECRET PRACTICE FOR DAWSON CLAN

Signal Practice and Scrimmage Will Be Held Behind Locked Gates Till Next Contest.

RED MEN EXPECT BATTLE

Haskell Will Send a Husky Bunch of Indians After Nebraska Warriors' Scalps.

Football enthusiasts at Nebraska are due for a light week as far as excitement is concerned.

A hard scrimmage followed by signal practice was the drill given the Huskers last evening.

Reports from Kansas indicate that the Haskell Indians are expecting one of the hardest contests on their schedule when they tangle with the Cornhuskers on Nebraska field a week from Saturday afternoon.

Kansas university has now introduced secret practice and have a big squad working out.

The freshmen will tangle with the varsity this afternoon in the first scrimmage of the year for these two teams to face each other.

Coach Far- (Continued on page 4)

FIRST W. A. A. MEETING OF YEAR HELD YESTERDAY

Over fifty members of the women's athletic association attended the first meeting of the year at Ellen Smith Hall last night.

The main part of the meeting was spent in making out the calendar for the year and scheduling the sports.

CONTEST CLOSE IN RACE FOR PRIZES

Kappa Delta Leads List in Players' Ticket Campaign but Others are Strong Competitors

The third day of the University Players' ticket selling contest found all sororities and all literary societies with all members hard at work to earn the big cash prizes that are offered by the business management of the Players.

Every student on the campus is strongly urged to avail himself of this opportunity to secure a season ticket for the productions to be staged by the University Players this year.

Reservations for the season will begin Monday October 17, at the Ross P. Curtice Music Co.

YANKEES WIN OPENER AT WORLD SERIES TITLE RACE

Mays Allows But Five Scattered Hits—Ruth Fails to Clout Pill for a Homer.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—The Yankees won the opening clash for the baseball title of the world by shutting out John McGraw's Giants with a 3-0 score.

Here is the score by innings: Yankees 1 0 0 1 1 0 0 0—3

Batteries: Mays and Schang; Douglas, Smith, Barnes and Snyder.

TWINS WILL MEET TWINS AT TWINS' PARTY FOR TWINS

Are you a twin? If you were so lucky as to be a duplicate of some other member of your family then you are eligible to a twins' party.

SCABBARD AND BLADE HOLDS INITIATION

Five Cadet Officers Taken Into Honorary Military Fraternity Last Evening.

Scabbard and Blade, honorary military fraternity for cadet officers held initiation last evening.

The officers who received election to the fraternity are: Colonel Richard C. Talbot, Captain Clarence F. Rogers, Captain Richard E. Dearmont, Lieutenant T. Pierce Rogers, and Lieutenant H. Stephen King.

The chapter of Scabbard and Blade at Nebraska university is known as "C" company of the Third regiment.

Election to Scabbard and Blade is based upon proficiency as a cadet officer, only commissioned officers being eligible to election.

COACH WANTS MORE CROSS-COUNTRY MEN

McMaster Has Issued Call for Long Distance Runners—VaViley Meet in Lincoln.

Coach J. Lloyd McMaster yesterday issued an additional call for candidates for the cross country track team.

Captain Williams, Neilson, Bowman, and several other members of last year's team are fast rounding into form.

The Missouri Valley cross country will be held in Lincoln on Homecoming day, November 12.

Coach McMasters had notable success with last year's team and plans to repeat with this year's team.

BACK TO NORMALCY

Now the election is over and won. And we're back to the "normalcy" rut.

We think we will study; we think we will grin!

We go to our eight o'clock Wednesday A. M.

We bluff through our French and in Spanish we sleep.

In English and History, in Lit. and in Math.

We bluff, and stay in our rut

We wish that we'd studied, but—

GIRLS TO COMPETE FOR TENNIS HONORS

Racquet Tourney Will be Held For All-Uni Singles, Class Doubles and Sorority Doubles.

Three girls' tennis tournaments will be run off within the next week or so.

The courts are in the best condition ever and special ones will be reserved for the use of the tourney.

There will be regular class teams of five persons each, and in case there are more than that number signed up for each class, try-outs will be held to pick the best players.

PLEDGE VERDICTS TO BE ANNOUNCED SOON

Eligibility Committee to Release the Names of Approved Pledges For Publication Soon

The names of all Lincoln, Omaha and Grand Island fraternity pledges will be announced within a few days.

It is quite probable that a number of Omaha men will be denied the privilege of pledging a university fraternity, as will two or three Lincoln men.

The man whose pledges are broken will be further investigated, and an effort made to have them made eligible for pledging at a later date.

The names of all pledges who are approved will be announced in the Daily Nebraskan as soon as sanctioned by the Inter-fraternity Council Committee.

UNI BAND TO RECEIVE MILITARY INSTRUCTION

The band this year is to be conducted in a little different manner than the band was conducted last year.

The band made an exceptionally fine appearance at the Nebraska-Wesleyan game and the prospects are bright for a better band than ever before.

FRESHMEN ARE ISSUED THEIR ARMY UNIFORMS

The freshmen of the university are to appear in uniform on the drill field in the near future.

OLD MAN AWGWAN IS OUT ON THE CAMPUS

University of Nebraska Comic Appears with Freshman Issue—Special Number

Awgwan feature freshman number arrived on the campus on the schedule Wednesday.

As for jokes, well there are a lot of funny men in Nebraska.

Second Elimination in Fall Contest Will Leave But Sixteen in Championship Race.

Practically all of the matches of the first round of the University tennis tournament have been played and the balance of this and the second round should be played by this evening.

The total number of entries were fifty-nine and so at the end of the second round there will be sixteen contestants still left in the running.

Six courts have been reserved for the exclusive use of contestants and endeavors are made to keep these courts in the best of condition but the members who are not playing in the tournament must co-operate with the tournament officials to gain this end.

Those contestants who for one reason or another did not play their first match by last night will have to play two matches today so that there will be no delay in the playing of the matches according to schedule.

The University of Nebraska dairy products team leaves today for St. Paul, Minn., to take part in the National Dairy show to be held at that place.

The University of Nebraska dairy products team leaves today for St. Paul, Minn., to take part in the National Dairy show to be held at that place.

Application for manager of University Week will be received at the student activities office up until 5 p. m. Wednesday, October 12.

FROSH TO LEARN OF NEBRASKA SPIRIT

First Year Men to Receive Injection of Spirit and Loyalty at Special Convocation.

UNI TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Director of Athletics and Executive Dean Scheduled For Pep Talks on Program.

Freshmen men will be called to convocation this morning at 11:00 o'clock in the chapel in the Armory.

The university band will play in front of the armory shortly before the hour of convocation.

Green caps are expected to top the heads of all yearling men at the gathering.

F. W. Luehring, director of athletics and physical training, at the university, will be on the program to talk to the beginning men.

C. C. Engberg, executive dean of the university, will also speak.

On account of the fact that the booklet published annually for the freshman's information concerning the university, its customs and traditions, was not published this year because of the prohibitive cost.

Speeches by members of the faculty will be made to give the yearlings an idea of what is expected of them, especially in their class work.

Every freshman must come to convocation. Every first year student who has the proper spirit and who is interested in their own self of the institution, will be present at the meeting of the freshman class.

Instructions for Freshmen.

The University of Nebraska dairy products team leaves today for St. Paul, Minn., to take part in the National Dairy show to be held at that place.

The University of Nebraska dairy products team leaves today for St. Paul, Minn., to take part in the National Dairy show to be held at that place.

University Week.

Application for manager of University Week will be received at the student activities office up until 5 p. m. Wednesday, October 12.