

NEILSON TALKS TO THE LAW STUDENTS

Speaker is Connected With the State Department of Washington Making Treaties.

The students of the law college had an opportunity Wednesday morning to hear Frederick K. Neilson who is one of Nebraska's most prominent alumni. Mr. Neilson is soliciting for the state department at Washington D. C., and it is his duty to draw up the foreign treaties negotiated between the United States and other powers.

He was graduated from the arts and science college at the University of Nebraska in 1902, and took his law degree from the same school in 1904. In 1907 Mr. Neilson was granted the degree of Master of Law by Georgetown university.

Since finishing his college work, Mr. Neilson has been in the diplomatic service and in the state department. He is familiar with all the important present day treaties, and told of the manner in which they are negotiated, of the effect, and of the difficulties involved when state legislatures enact statutes in derogation to the international agreements.

In closing, the speaker commented on the growth of the university, and assured the students that they could get a foundation for future enterprises from Nebraska, that would equal that given by any educational institution in the United States.

NO PUSH BALL

every year except in the war year of 1918. The fight is held with the expressed purpose of deciding whether the freshmen shall or shall not continue to wear their little green caps. The freshmen this year are slated to wipe the sophomores off the earth but the olympics cannot be decided until after the actual contest. The first year men outnumber the sophomores but the sophomores have some fine athletic talent.

The second year athletes have already started preparations for the contest. Nothing has been done as yet by the freshmen. As a result, the first year men are becoming impatient and looking for a "call to arms" from President Giles Hinkle. Only ten days remains before the battle so both classes must get busy.

FINANCE CAMPAIGN STARTED BY Y. W. C. A.

The finance campaign of the Y. W. C. A. was started at vesper services, Tuesday evening, which were led by Dorothy Williams.

The good which one's money creates on the campus and in the hearts of the girls when it is invested in Y. W. C. A. was brought out by the leaders talk.

Adrielle Dettman explained very clearly that the Y. W. C. A. stands for purity, democracy, and Christianity.

"The Y. W. C. A. in the Community" was the theme of the talk given by Mary Sheldon, chairman of the social service committee. She told of some of the work carried on in all the fields of social service.

Florence Price, chairman of church affiliation spoke of the broadening influence which is brought about by the association of the members of different churches.

LINCOLN POST BAND
TAKES SECOND PLACE

Lt. Gen. Baron Jacques, commander Iron division of Belgium army, and Major General John A. LeJeune, United States Marine Corps.

Tuesday morning, the dedication of the Liberty Memorial took place and each of the above distinguished guests gave a short talk which was greatly applauded because of the fact that each country represented talked very favorably for the disarmament question. The memorial to be erected is to be the finest in the country costing a sum of two million dollars. In the afternoon the big parade was held, the parade was eight miles long and all states were represented, ex-servicemen totaling sixty thousand. One hundred bands participated and the Lincoln post band won second place, a prize of $500.00. The evening followed by convention meeting and rallies, and shirt-tail parades.

The main convention meeting was called to order on Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock. Committee reports, unfinished business, new business and election of officers took place. It was decided to have the next convention at New Orleans.

All who attended this great event, say that it was the greatest experience that they ever had and would not miss another. The meeting of old buddies, friends and officers was a great event for the men.

Nebraska is rated fourth in the convention and she had a large delegation at Kansas City, practically all of the Nebraskans there were either in school or had graduated for it was not at all common at any time of the day or night to hear old Nebraskan yell and songs.
