

SIGMA XI TO MEET THURSDAY EVENING

The regular monthly meeting of the University of Nebraska chapter of Sigma Xi will be held in the general lecture room of Brace hall, Thursday, January 28, at 8:00 p. m. T. Townsend Smith, Ph. D., professor of experimental physics in the university will give a lecture illustrated by experimental demonstration and by lantern slides. The subject of Doctor Smith's lecture will be "Lens Errors and Lens Calculation."

The meeting of the society is open to the public. Non-members are welcome.

POSTERS ON DISPLAY FOR ANNUAL EXHIBIT

Posters made by the students in the drawing classes to be used later in advertising the annual art exhibit are now on display in the art gallery. This exhibition is considered one of the best collection of posters yet made by the students. This display of posters will be held for remainder of the week.

TWO NEW APPOINTMENTS FOR 1922 CORNHUSKER

Editor-in-Chief Ward Randol has announced two new staff appointments for the 1922 "Everybody's Cornhusker." Gerald Hamilton, '25, will replace Delos Coe on the circulation section and Beulah Butler, '24, will be a member of the art staff.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF FELLOWSHIPS MADE

value of from one thousand to twelve hundred dollars, offered annually. It is available for research in physics, chemistry or biology. This fellowship is open to American women holding the degree of Doctor of Philosophy or to those similarly equipped for further research. It will be awarded only to those who give promise of distinction in the subject to which they are devoting themselves.

The A. A. U. W. European Fellowship
This fellowship of one thousand dollars available for study or research in a degree in arts.
Europe, is open to any woman having a degree in arts, science, or literature, who has completed at least two years of graduate study, and has a definite piece of research in preparation. The award is based upon evidence of character and ability of the candidate and promise of success in her chosen line of work.

The Julia C. G. Piatt Memorial Fellowship

This memorial fellowship of seven hundred and fifty dollars is offered in alternate years by the American Association of University Women as trustee of the memorial fund given by the Julia C. G. Piatt Association.
This Fellowship is open to any woman having a degree in Arts, Science or Literature, who intends to make teaching her profession. In general, preference is given to those applicants who have had successful experience in teaching and in addition who have completed at least two years of graduate study. The award is based upon evidence of character and ability of the candidate and the promise of success in teaching.

The Latin-American Fellowship

This Fellowship of one thousand dollars is established by the American Association of University Women to further friendly relations with women students of the Latin-American republic, and to assist them to prepare for public service in their communities.

The Gamma Phi Beta Social Fellowship

The Gamma Phi Beta sorority offers a Fellowship of five hundred dollars available for the year 1922-23 to be awarded by the Committee on Fellowships of the A. A. U. W.

This Fellowship shall be devoted to preparation for the profession of social service, and is open to any woman who is a graduate of a college of recognized rank, and who has done at least one year of graduate work. Some of her courses must have been in the department of social science.

It is understood that the Fellow will devote herself entirely to preparation for social service in a school whose standing is equal to that of the New York School of Social Work.

Boston Alumna Fellowship

The Boston Branch of the American Association of University Women aided by the Radcliffe Alumnae Association, the Boston Alumnae Clubs of Smith College, Bryn Mawr College, Vassar College, Wellesley College, Boston University and Mount Holyoke College offers a graduate fellowship of five hundred dollars, for the purpose of stimulating scholarship among women.

The holder of this fellowship must be a woman who is a graduate of an approved college, is of good health and excellent character and has proved her ability and initiative. The fellowship must be used in Europe or in America for one year of constructive work, and not for the purpose of general culture.

Applications for the fellowship should be made to the Chairman of the Committee on Fellowships of the American Association of University Women, which is the Committee on award. Inquiries may be addressed either to the Chairman of this Committee or to Mrs. Everett C. Fisk, 135 Winthrop Road, Brookline, Mass.

The Rose Sidgwick Memorial Fellowship

This fellowship of $11,000 has been established by Americans and the American Association of University Women in memory of Rose Sidgwick, a member of the British Educational Mission which visited the United States in 1918, and in recognition of her services to the cause of Anglo-American friendship.

The fellowship is open to British women of graduate standing and is to be held for the purpose of graduate study in American colleges or universities. The award of this Fellowship will be made by a committee of the British Federation of University Women. Further information may be obtained from Miss Theodore Bosanquet, 50 Russell Square, London, W. C. 1, England.

Announcement has been made, also, of scholarships offered to American women by French institutions under the jurisdiction of the American Council on Education.

The American Council on Education has received from the French Department of Education and the Office National des Universités francaises, in appreciation of the scholarships and fellowships awarded to French girls in America, an offer of scholarships and fellowships in Lycees and Ecoles Normales. The institutions offering these scholarships and fellowships are situated at Paris, Sevres, St. Germain en Laye, Versailles, Beauvais, Tours and Caen.

Necessary Credentials

(1) A statement from the College Registrar of work done by the student.
(2) Birth Certificate. (3) Photograph.
(4) Health Certificate from the College physician, giving the medical history of the applicant for the past two years.
(5) Testimonials from two professors with whom the applicant has studied, one of whom shall be from the Department of Romance Languages, and a testimonial from the Dean of Women as to the character, ability and promise of the candidate.

These testimonials and the health certificate should be sent directly to the Committee and will be treated confidentially and not returned.

The letter of application should contain an account of the applicant's training and aim in studying abroad, and should be sent to Professor Margaret E. Maltby, 419 West 117th Street, New York City. All applications must be in the hands of the Committee by February 1. Only American-born women are eligible for these scholarships and fellowships.

The scholarships and fellowships in the Ecole Normale Supérieure de Sevres are open to women who have done graduate work and have a university career in view. These scholarships and fellowships are granted only to those who speak and read French easily and intend to study seriously.

The scholarships and fellowships in the Ecole Normale de Saint Germain en Laye are open to women not over twenty-four who hold a Bachelor's Degree and have had some work in education. These scholarships and fellowships will be granted only to women who have the teaching profession in view. They must have a knowledge of grammatical French and such a command of spoken and written French as to be able to carry on their work in that language.

The scholarships and fellowships in Lycees are open to women between the ages of seventeen and twenty who are Freshmen, Sophomores or Juniors and who can understand spoken French.

Thirty per cent rebate on passage over and back (approximate cost of passage, $85 one way). This rebate is given on the French Line only.

Board, lodging and tuition fees are given. The student has $20 per month for incidental expenses.

Successful candidates will sail about the middle of September.

child. In a sense, therefore we are all custodians of the race and have the responsibility of determining the character of the race for generations to come. Our government spends ten to fifteen thousand dollars a day for the care of defective and degenerates. If people understand their responsibility to the race and the principles of heredity and propagation, the number of defectives would in a few generations be reduced materially and eventually obliterated.
