

KOSMET KLUB SELECTS PLAY

"The Match-Makers" to be 1922 Production of Honorary Organization.

BIG MUSICAL COMEDY AT ORPHEUM ON MAY 1

Tryouts for Cast to be Held by Members Some Time in the Near Future.

The big annual musical comedy produced under the direction of the Kosmet Klub has been announced as "The Match-Makers," and will be given at the Orpheum theater Monday evening, May 1. This night has been declared open by university authorities for the event.

The Kosmet play is an annual event at Nebraska and is usually given on the evening before Ivy day. On account of the fact that Ivy day will be held this year in connection with alumni week in June, the members of the club decided to change the date of the production and give it the first day of May. No students will be barred from coming by university rules as that Monday night will be considered as a week-end date.

"The Match-Makers," selected as the 1922 play is a two act comedy, the plot of which will be announced. The play committee of the Kosmet Klub in presenting it to the members recommended it as the best play given in many years by the club.

Tryouts are open to all university students and will be held within a very short time. The cast is a large one, so that opportunity for plenty of talent, both in the leading parts and in the choruses will be given. Official announcement as to the place and time of tryouts will probably be ready for the Sunday edition of the Daily Nebraskan. Last spring in the Kosmet tryouts for "The Most Minister," several scores of students applied. For that reason, the club will probably hold tryouts this year on more than one evening in order that no talent will be missed.

Frank Winegar, president of Kosmet Klub, which is an honorary organization of fifteen men from the three upperclasses has announced the following play committee: Roland B. Smith, Mike Myers, and Herbert Brownell, jr. Arrangements for the business management are well under way, according to the president.

AG. GIRLS BASKETBALL GAME CLOSE CONTEST

The Ag. girls basketball game played Saturday afternoon was a very close contest as the final score of 20 to 28 indicates. The senior girls won by this narrow margin when they took a goal shooting streak during the last few minutes of play.

The college freshman girls easily outplayed their opponents, but in so doing exhausted themselves to the extent that Edith Burr, forward, and Theresa Hartz, who played center, both fainted after the final gong. The girls had exerted themselves to the limit and succumbed to the reaction. Both were reported better after a good rest.

Jack Best Has One Grand Time Attending His Very First Dance

Jack Best had the best time Friday night since he came to the University of Nebraska thirty years ago, he said so himself. Surrounded every minute by a group of pretty co-eds, Jack was the center of interest at the formal dinner dance given to him, the 1921 championship Cornhusker football squad and the coaches, by a group of Lincoln business concerns.

Jack Best, veteran trainer for the Cornhusker athletes and known throughout the middle west as Nebraska's grand old man, enjoyed his first dance so much that he stayed from the beginning of the first fox-trot to the final strains of "Home Sweet Home." Throughout the evening he was busy trading dances with his athletes and his face beamed with smiles throughout the evening as the crowd of co-eds joked with him about ever imaginable subject.

Seated in a chair in the door of the Lincolnshire club room, Jack kept a watchful eye on his Cornhuskers. It was the first time in his thirty

UNIVERSITY CHORUS TO GIVE "FAUST" THURSDAY

The University chorus will present "Faust" at convocation, Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. It will be under the direction of Miss Carrie B. Raymond and merits the attendance of all students that can possibly be there.

This will be one of the biggest grand opera programs that university students will have an opportunity to see this year. It will be especially interesting to all, as the entire cast of characters is made up exclusively of university students.

The advantages to be derived from such a program will make a strong appeal to students are all lovers of good music will appreciate the cultural advantages offered.

Further details of the convocation and a full program will be printed in tomorrow's paper.

SENIOR GIRLS VOTE FOR MORTARBOARDS

Annual Election for the Black Masque Chapter This Week in Library.

The annual election of Mortarboard will be held Wednesday and Thursday of this week in the library. Every senior girl is to vote for thirteen girls, who in her opinion are the most representative of the junior class.

It has been the custom of Black Masque chapter, since they were organized in 1905, to give every senior girl the privilege of expressing her choice as to who should be active in the organization for the coming year. Each senior is expected to vote for the thirteen girls she considers most representative of the junior class.

The names of the girls receiving the twenty-five highest votes must be approved by dean of women, the executive dean, and the registrar. After the names have been approved, the Mortarboard elect thirteen from the remaining number to be active for the coming year.

Every loyal co-ed senior should consider it a duty and a pleasure to vote for the thirteen girls who she deems most worthy to be Mortarboards.

Black Masque, the senior girls' honorary society, was organized in the spring of 1905. The "Senior Book" of that year said, "Thirteen energetic and original senior girls have established a permanent organization known as the Order of Black Masque."

Through the successful efforts of the Black Masque of 1920, the girls of 1920 and 1921 were granted a charter and initiated into the Black Masque chapter of Mortarboard. Mortarboard is a national honorary senior society. It is a very conservative organization, only entering the larger universities in the United States.

Though the Black Masques are now Mortarboards, this chapter still retains some of its established customs and traditions. Among these is the messaging of thirteen junior girls each year on Ivy day. This Ivy day will be the second of June and the messaging of the junior girls will be late that afternoon.

Scandals Of University Night Are Explained To Newcomers

"Say I sure hope that they don't mention my name Saturday night. That's one reason I hate Uni night. We notables always get picked on."

Have you ever noticed that people who talk like this are the first ones present at the "show" and are the ones who prick up their ears to hear their name mentioned in a skit or are the ones who thumb excitedly through the "Shun" to catch a glimpse of their names? If it should be that they were excluded entirely from mention—horrors what could be any worse?

Now for you'uns that do not even know what University night is it will "heroby" be explained. It is the night of nights when all faithful and patriotic students turn out to witness a performance that even the Orpheum cannot excel. In those skits names of most any one (Uni persons, of course) might be mentioned, ridiculed (according to the wishes of the "skit-terers") or praised. If you don't like it, well—you know what you can do. If you like it, well you're fortunate.

Not only are skits the feature of the evening, but one can fill himself up on candy, pop-corn or even—perhaps Eskimo Pies. Really almost anything from "thoup to fish" can be secured Uni night.

The band plays better than Sousa ever thought of playing, and when it comes to ragtime, well—they don't have Royal Court players but say boy—all that is necessary to say it, "some jazz."

Of course it is impossible to divulge all the deep, dark secrets of the happenings of this important night, but a hint is really all one needs to be "jogged up" into coming. It is expected that every student will come out to this occasion for it is a closed night for everything else; remember that and make all other plans accordingly. You know that saying "meet your friends here"—well that is to apply to all you'uns Uni night.

The things which must be impressed is that this is "publicity night" and every one must expect to be "made public." The skits and the Shun take care of that part of it. Say, did you ever hear of the "Shun"? Well it is a wild, wooly, wondrous paper and the only time that it is in circulation is Uni night. If you know what side "your bread is buttered on" just "flutter" into the high school on February eighteenth.

The Corps Area match which began today is looked forward to with great interest by the members of the R. O. T. C., for about sixteen universities are entered in the competition. The winners of this match receives a $250 cup and enter the national meet held at Camp Perry, N. J. Matches have also been scheduled with Minnesota, Missouri and Wisconsin.

FOOTBALL MEN

Coach Dawson desires all football men to report for instruction in boxing as often as possible. Regular classes will be conducted at the Armory daily from 3:30 to 5:30, and football men will be able to take this without interfering with their work in other athletic squads. Coach Dawson will be assisted by Coaches Day and Young.

W. S. G. A. VOCATIONAL TALK AT VESPERS TODAY

W. S. G. A. will have charge of vespers tonight when they will offer to the university girls the third of the year's series in vocational talks. The subject is "Social Work," with Mrs. F. F. Teal talking on "Camp Fire," and Miss Eleanor Duffield, city Y. W. C. A. Travellers' Aid secretary, explaining her work.

All university girls who do not know just what line of work they intend to take up after leaving college, will find these talks especially interesting.

Prof. M. M. Fogg addresses the Lincoln High School at the Assembly this morning. The special assembly is in the interests of "The Advocate," the school paper.

PHARMACY WEEK COMMITTEES OUT

Manager Wm. Simpson Announces Appointments in Annual Gala Event.

The college of pharmacy is laying plans for a "pharmacy week" in the spring which will eclipse all preceding affairs staged by the pharmacy college. General Manager Wm. Simpson has announced the following committees which will begin work immediately in order to insure the success of the celebration:

Advisory committee—J. B. Burt, chairman; Dr. Albert Schneider, Dean R. A. Lyman, Miss Redford.

Picnic committee—M. Mikelson, chairman; A. Behrens, Ted Smith, E. Geisfeld.

Publicity committee—R. A. Chittock, chairman; Wm. Davis, Chas. Einspahr.

Convocation committee—Leon A. Crawford, chairman; Esther Lyman, Gladys Easton.

Banquet committee—J. G. Noll, chairman; Anne Herney, Ellen Nelson.

Scientific committee—Bob Hardt, chairman; E. Sturb, C. A. Ruckles.

Pharmacy Night Committee—Chas. Weibel, chairman; R. L. Weimer, Scott Buckley, A. P. Howe, Grove Bixby.

Decoration committee—Geo. Harcraves, chairman; Phyllis Roberts, M. C. Mayo.

Pharmacy hop committee—Dean McMillan, chairman; B. Hackett, Geo. Carpenter.

Pharmacy week has been scheduled for the first week in May. Manager Simpson has been working since the first of the semester in arranging his committees and preparing for an activity which will display the real spirit of the college of pharmacy. Its success this year will be due almost entirely to his efforts and careful planning.

The staging of Pharmacy week is an established custom of the college of pharmacy and was the first holiday to be named and maintained by any college on the campus. Open meetings will be held to which all who are interested will be given a hearty welcome and shown some of the secrets of the inner workings of a pharmacy.

A subscription drive has been scheduled for Friday, April 7 in order to secure funds for the proper carrying out of all the plans which have been laid.

BASKET TOSSERS TO MEET AGGIES

The Nebraska basket tossers invade the Kansas Aggie camp today, meeting the former crew on the latter's court at Manhattan tonight. Although these two teams have not yet met this season, the Huskers are expected to have little difficulty in disposing of the Aggie quintet, who have won but two conference games this year. However the Kansas team has been strengthened by a pair of likely looking cagers, McKee and Dobson, and may spring a surprise on the Scarlet and Cream flippers. The Cornhusker squad of goal shooters left this morning for Manhattan. The Cornhusker cagers, who came back strong last week and defeated the Grinnell Pioneers, 28 to 25, in a close battle, after losing to Ames the week before by the lopsided score of 26 to 7, have been working hard in preparation for the Farmer contest. The Huskers' scoring ability, woefully lacking in the Ames game, showed an improvement in the Grinnell contest, due to several changes in the Husker lineup.

Coach Frank is expected to use the same lineup that triumphed over the Pioneer five last week, with Tipton and Captain Smith at the forward positions, Warren at the pivot position, and Riddlesberger and Russell holding down the guard berths.

The Kansas Aggie lineup has been strengthened by the addition of McKee and Dobson. Dobson, although he has only played in three games, has made sixteen points. The Aggie lineup will probably be as follows: Williams and McKee, forwards; Dobson, center; and Hahn and Cowell, guards.

Eight Valley games are on the card this week. Besides the Nebraska-Kansas Aggie contest tonight, the Kansas U. five meets the fast Ames quintet at Ames, Wednesday the Jay-hawkers invade the Drake camp to battle with the Bulldogs. Thursday on the same trip, Kansas meets Grinnell, while Missouri clashes with the Washington Pikers. Saturday Nebraska battles the Wake Bulldogs for the first time this year. On the same day Ames plays at Grinnell, and Washington journeys to Norman to meet the Oklahoma Sooners.

Miss Olive Hartley who was graduated from the university last spring, has gone to Council Bluffs to take up Red Cross work there. While in school Miss Hartley was a Black Masque and a member of the Pail-Indian society.

STUDENT DRIVE TO START TODAY

Friendship Fund for European Sufferers to be Raised on School Campus.

EVERYONE URGED TO GIVE SACRIFICIALLY

Tables to be Placed in All Main Buildings to Receive Student Subscriptions.

The student friendship drive, for the purpose of obtaining funds for the aid of foreign students who are in the famine area of Europe, opens today on the campus. The committee in charge of the campaign, which is to be carried through on an individual basis throughout, expects to enlist the aid of every university student and make them feel the individual responsibility which surely rests on them.

Tables will be placed in all main campus buildings and each student is expected to subscribe at least two dollars and more if it is at all possible. A tag will be given to each person who subscribes. An opportunity to make pledges payable March 1 will be given to those students who are unable to pay cash.

The horrible sufferings, deprivations, and hardships which the European students are now undergoing, are being lessened only by the generous help offered by American universities such as the University of Nebraska. The starving students accept the aid given them as an obligation, the first to be met when conditions will permit. Other English speaking nations will do what they can, but the principal load must be borne by the United States because she has far more unspent resources than any other country in the world. The aid given by American students will do more than anything else to build up a strong international tie between the United States and foreign countries.

The European student relief scheme has been endorsed by prominent men in every country. Universities over the entire country have subscribed thousands. Will the University of Nebraska be at the top? This is up to every individual student.

The committee announced in Sunday's Daily Nebraskan will have charge of the campaign today. Campaigns at each sorority and fraternity house last night netted the following pledges:

- Achoth, $80; Alpha Chi Omega, $105; Alpha Omicron Pi, $62; Alpha Phi, $76; Alpha Xi Delta, $100; Chi Omega, $33 (already paid); Delta Delta Delta, $50; Delta Zeta, $100; Gamma Phi Beta, $2 per member; Kappa Alpha Theta, $50; Kappa Delta, $66; Kappa Kappa Gamma, $50; Farm House, $36; Delta Sigma Delta, $840; Phi Tau Epsilon, $36; Lambda Chi Alpha, $30.

Some organization reports will not be ready till tonight while others are putting the campaign on an individual basis.

The class in field geography under Mr. L. A. Wolfanger is making a study of the physical environs of Lincoln. Last Saturday was spent in mapping the terrace front along the Salt Creek valley in the southwest part of the city.

Order Of The Golden Fleece To Hold Annual Meeting Soon

The time draws near when once more the Order of the Golden Fleece will gild the edge of the banquet board. Wagers are in line now as to who will be this year's prize winners. Will Betty Kennedy add another bar to her two-year championship, for the most vivid tufts, or will some upstart snatch the premium? Is it true that her hair is dimming? Who will compete with Vivian Hansen for the most fascinating tresses? Will Marie McGeer carry off the honor again for the most bewitching freckles or will Mary Thomas prove something more than mere runner-up? Can any one out do Gwendolyn Damerell for quantity?

All these questions will be settled by a group of carefully selected judges, who are in turn endowed with topping qualities that make them fit for careful discriminating povers in shades of red. Miss Mary Gant and Mrs. Howard Kennedy of Omaha, and Mrs. D. Landis Seward have been invited to determine who will be this year's winners. The Order laments the loss of many of its prominent members. The brilliant Atry lineup has been broken in half by the departure of Camille and Cozette this year, leaving the two younger sisters to keep together the family reputation. The Gettys trio was routed when Frances left for the east to study music. Evelyn Jones, Al O'Laughlin, and Frances Botkus are other outstanding members who left vacant places to be filled by new lights. The committee that passes on the various eligible shades is working overtime in eliminating the "undesirables," who are classed as "nears" and "medicinals." Positively only the reddest will be able to get a ticket for the most brilliant affair on the year's calendar. Ellen Smith hall has been chosen as the place of meeting this year because of the pleasant contrast of the predominating blue of the interior against the various dints and hues of gold.
