

SENIOR LAWS MEET TO DISCUSS PLANS

Will Hold Hop Soon—Barristers Will Leave Gift for the College on Graduation.

The senior law class was called together for the first meeting of the semester Wednesday morning by President Doane Keichel. It was decided that the last year laws should put on a hop in the near future. Plans for the law barbecue were discussed, and committees were appointed. The seniors also agreed to leave a gift for the college.

The following committees were announced:

Senior Law Hop.
Andrew Shooppel, chairman; Emil Luckey, master of ceremonies; Robert Troyer, Ralph Ford.

Barbecue Committed.
Emerson J. McCarthy, chairman; Rodney Dunlap, treasurer; Irving Butler, cats; Edward Fisher, band; Farley Young, entertainment; Marcus Poteet, publicity.

Gift Committee.
Robert Van Pelt, chairman; Fred Walrath, H. Emerson Kokjer.

The junior laws also held a class meeting to consider barbecue plans, and they too decided to have a dance. The junior committees will be announced later.

DEVIL'S ADVOCATE TO APPEAR AT VESPERS

A novel vesper service has been planned for next Tuesday at Ellen Smith hall. It will take the form of a mock debate between the Devil's Advocate and the advocate for the defense. The discussion will involve the social ideals and the stand which the Y. W. C. A. takes in regard to industrial problems. This question will probably come up at the national Y. W. C. A. Convention at Hot Springs, Arkansas, in April and this will be a means to ascertain the way in which the Nebraska girls with their delegate to vote.

Florence Sherman will be the advocate for the defense and Dorothy Williams will be the Devil's Advocate. Jeanette Cok will have charge of Vespers and will enter into the discussion. There will be special music.

Some of the points of attack will be the eight hour day, labor unions, collective bargaining, child labor and minimum wage. Many people have attacked the Y. W. C. A. for its stand upon these industrial problems. For that reason it is necessary for the girls to have a clear knowledge of these facts and to make a definite statement of the standards which they wish to uphold.

In Years Gone By.

Twenty Years Ago Today
Ten delegates from the University left over the Burlington for the great International Convention of Student Volunteer Movement which was held in Toronto.

Seventeen Years Ago Today.
A complete set of regulations to govern the University Cadet Corps was adopted by the Regents at their meeting. One rule made was "The Commandant shall be saluted at all times."

Thirteen Years Ago Today
The hour from 11 until 12 was devoted to the second annual peace program to be given at the University of Nebraska. Judge Lincoln Frost of Lincoln and Hon. John L. Webster of Omaha were speakers.

Five Years Ago Today
Word was received that over eight hundred players, representing 113 high schools would participate in the annual inter-scholastic basketball tournament.

Two Years Ago Today.
Nebraska won her sixteenth game of the season by literally swamping Morningside College by a score of 44-12.

The University wrestling team returned from Omaha where they succeeded in winning the meet from the Omaha Y. M. C. A. by the score of 28-12.

SPRING FROCKS

--are charming

STOCKS are filling rapidly with new SPRING frocks direct from style centers—and by the way—they are going out rather fast too, for we are enjoying, already a good business in spring dresses.

Canton crepe with its soft clinging lines continues a great favorite—then taffeta with its buoyancy carries the spirit of spring in its crisp frills and puffs—and the new knitted fabric with an eponge finish is promised much popularity. Trimmings include elaborate beadings with matching and contrasting beads, chenille ornaments, long, rich tassels, embroideries, tuckings, ruffles, etc. Colors are mostly navy and black—the brown and new brighter shades are noted. Sizes range 16 to 44.

Prices range 25.00 to 85.00
