TROUTMAN REVENCES LAST YEAR'S DEFEAT

Two Squads Tied at End of Sixth Match But Renner Gets the Winning Decision.

By winning from the University of Iowa, 28 to 22, Nebraska grapplers won their second victory in the West ern Intercollegiate Wrestling and Fencing association, Saturday night. At the end of the first six matches the score was deadlocked, 22 to 22. Renner, in the heavyweight class, ob tained a decision over Heldt of lowa, in the last event which placed the meet in Nebraska's win column.

Pfeffer, lowa's 115- pound grappler, won from Pickwell of Nebraska after they had gone the limit of eighteen minutes. Pickwell had the advantage by a few seconds at the end of the regular 12-minute period and won the During the coming week certain first three minute period after by a slight margin but Pfeffer was behind given the decision.

Vana, Iowa's 1225-pounder, dropped De Ford after 3 minutes and 50 seconds of wrestling. De Ford was much faster than the Iowa boy but lack of experience allowed him to put himself into a hole and the more experienced grappler pinned him.

Captain Reed Wins Decision

Captain Reed of Nebraska was able to win a decision over the much touted James of lowa after staying behind his man 11 minutes and 26 seconds of the 12 minutes.

A feature of the meet was Troutman, of Nebraska, in his victory over Hunter of Iowa, the 175-pound phenom. Hunter threw Troutman at the Western Intercollegiate meet last year and the Cornhusker carried the mamory of that defeat into his bout Saturday night, pinning the flashy James in 8 minutes. Renner, Nebraska's heavweight, planted & schsors on Heldt of Iowa in the first few minutes and clug to him through thruout the period. Renner was able to put the heavy lowan's shoulder close to the mat a number of times but he broke loose each time. The Cornhusker heavy was on the point of making the Iowan's shoulders kiss the canvas for
