

MYSTIC FISH HOLD REGULAR MEETING

Mystic Fish held their regular meeting Tuesday. Plans to help raise money for the Grace Coppock campaign were discussed.

A committee was appointed to plan a party for freshman girls which will be given soon after vacation.

Bernice McHale, newly initiated member of Mystic Fish from Chi Omega, attended the meeting.

Minnie Yoder, '25, of Cheyenne, will be the guest of Bernadine Smith, '23, at her home in Shelton.

the cleverest acts ever staged at the Orpheum. Preston is an old time acrobat having spent three years with Ringling Brothers.

Unusual Dance Numbers
Another attractive feature of the program will be the act presented by Phyllis Unthank, Mildred Johnson, John Costello and "Polly" Butler. Featuring special dance numbers of an unusual nature, these well known young actors and actresses promises to make a strong run for presenting the best of the show.

A picked quartet of university men will present a feature act in song numbers. A good many surprises in the nature of songs is being planned by this quartet.

The University band is preparing a special concert to be presented at the show. Special numbers of every kind will be featured. Solos by some excellent musicians will be given.

With a program such as has been picked, the Variety show promises to be the biggest thing of the season in the university school year. Showing this year for the first time, the Variety show looks like one of the strongest points in the life of each school year.
