

SONGBOOK CONTEST PRIZES ANNOUNCED

Monday, April 10, Is Date For Opening of Subscription Campaign.

A subscription contest for subscriptions to the second edition of the University of Nebraska song book to be issued soon, is to be held for five days starting next Monday, April 10. Prizes are to be awarded to the individual girl outside a sorority, turning in the largest number of orders, providing that number exceeds twenty-five, and to the sorority turning in the longest list of subscribers, providing the list is longer than half of the membership of the sorority.

The prizes to be awarded to the winners are a $40 seal grained cowhide traveling case, to the girl winning the individual prize; and either a $75 vacuum sweeper or a $70, 4-piece, Sheffield Tea service to be given to the winning sorority.

The sorority prize is to be awarded on a percentage basis. If a sorority turns in orders totaling twice its membership it will have a percentage of two, while another sorority may turn in more subscriptions, but it may only have one and one half times as many as its enrollment, making its percentage but one and one half.

Thirty more songs are to be contained in the second edition of the song book than were printed in the first issue. Fraternity songs and songs from other large universities throughout the country are to be included, and the book will be a typical university song book.

The alumni association is publishing the second issue of the song book in an effort to encourage the singing of songs by students of the university. Few students are able to sing more than one or two Nebraska NEB-FIVE songs and the need of more singing has long been felt at Nebraska.

GEN. PERSHING SENDS PHOTOGRAPH TO CADETS

"For the Pershing Rifles, with my very sincere good wishes, John J. Pershing"—this is the greeting sent to the Pershing Rifles on an autographed photograph received yesterday from General John J. Pershing. General Pershing has always shown his interest in the Pershing Rifles and it was demonstrated in the sending of the photograph.

A print of the picture is being made and will be used for a division leaf in the Military section of the Cornhusker. The picture will be hung in the Cadet officers' room.

The cadets have been drilling at 5 o'clock every Thursday for the perfection of their exhibition of Butt's Manual drill on Compet day.

alone, for the winners were chosen in the beginning with the idea that personality should play an important part.

The Cornhusker management feels gratified that Mr. Flagg consented to judge the contest. It is reported that he has refused many lucrative offers lately to write articles and make drawings for certain periodicals, because he did not have the time to devote to this work.

James Montgomery Flagg now enjoys a universal popularity that has been rivaled by few. He is known in all parts of the world as a creator, both in drawing and word-pictures of real human nature as it "sees itself and is seen."

If students did not order their 1922 year-books at the first of the past semester, they are urged to subscribe within the next few days at the Student Activities office. This opportunity to order additional year books will be for only a limited time. The Student Activities, in the southwest entrance to Administration Hall, will be open all day to receive subscriptions.
