An applicant must have been and be, wholly or in part, self-supporting. 3. An applicant must be a regularly enrolled student in the University of Nebraska. She must be in good standing at the time of her application. 4. An applicant must have scholarship and must have some interest in general college activities. 5. Every applicant must furnish five references. Three of these should be from persons on the campus; the other two from persons not connected with the university. The dean of women will always be used as reference so her name should not be given. The applicant should make arrangements with the persons whose names are given as reference to send their recommendations to Miss Gertrude Jones, 2427 P street, Lincoln, not later than May 25. 7. The scholarship, a gift of one hundred dollars, will be paid in two parts, fifty dollars the first semester, fifty the second semester. 8. All applications for the year 1922-23 must be sent, together with a transcript of grades earned by the applicant, by May 25 to Miss Gertrude Jones, 2427 P street, Lincoln.

LAST JUNIOR PARTY WILL BE SATURDAY

The last Junior party of the year will be given Saturday evening at the Rosewilde party house. Owing to the lateness of the season the party will be informal.

The committee has been hard at work and they think they have planned an especially good party. Ackerman's orchestra will furnish the music and there will also be special favors. Refreshments will be served during the evening. There have only been one hundred fifty tickets validated and no more will be issued when those are gone because the favors and the refreshments have been arranged for only that number. Tickets are for sale by the members of the committee, of which Auburn Atkins is chairman.

Junior Class Day, which was to have been held the thirteenth, is postponed until May 20 due to the track meet on May 20.

STUDENTS GIVEN NEW PHARMACY LABORATORY

With the beginning of the second semester, students in the college of Pharmacy had an additional laboratory placed at their services. A laboratory room in the basement formerly occupied by the Physiology department was made entirely over and given over to the dispensing and manufacturing departments of the college. Here there is now a complete prescription laboratory with modern drug store facilities where the student taking dispensing courses may have every advantage. In this laboratory there is also located the power machinery of the manufacturing department. Here drugs are electrically sifted, ground and powdered, and here also a modern tablet machine exists, which is capable of throwing out 125 average tablets a minute. This is one of the several laboratories that will be thrown open to the eyes of the public Pharmacy night.

MISS FULK SPEAKS AT Y. W. C. A. VESPERS

Miss Fulk, Industrial Secretary of the city Y. W. C. A., and a graduate of the University of Nebraska, spoke at Vespers Tuesday night on her work in Bryn Mawr as a graduate student in the Industrial Research department. Her first experience was in a hosiery factory. There she had to work hard and found the wages low—not enough to live on. This was brought about because the factory was a non-union factory in a non-union town. She told many amusing little incidents about keeping her identity hidden from the other workers in this factory and in the other places where she worked while getting her practical experience.

FARMERS FAIR KITE SAILED ON CAMPUS

Escaping from two hundred yard of binding twine which held it to a telegraph pole, the Farmers Fair kite left the drill field Tuesday for parts unknown. After a search of several hours it was found, uninjured, in Rock Island ball park. This enormous kite, six by eight feet, is a forerunner of the big fair to be held on Ag campus Saturday afternoon. It was made by some Farmers Fair boosters as a special feature to let everyone know that May 6 is the day they are all invited to attend the greatest event of the year at Ag College. If you haven't seen this aerial messenger, look now.

SHAW TO ADDRESS COMMERCIAL CLUB

The members of the Commercial Club will have the opportunity to hear Mr. Shaw, manager of the Lincoln Traction company, speak at their regular meeting at eleven o'clock today. He will speak on "Public Corporations." This is a topic that should interest everybody as it is a subject everyone is more or less connected with. Mr. Shaw has been with the Traction company for a number of years and is a man of ability. He is well versed on public corporations and is capable of giving a splendid talk. His time is very valuable but he has consented to come up and tell the club of the workings of his organization and others like it. It is hoped that everyone will come out and give him a good audience.

COLLEGE OF PHARMACY FIRST TO HAVE WEEK

Another university tradition, which is gaining prominence with the passage of years is none other than the present Pharmacy Week. The College of Pharmacy was the first one on the campus to establish such a week. Since the organization of such a week many other colleges have adopted the plan with no little success. The entire responsibility of Pharmacy Week this year rests with the general manager, Wm. Simpson. He has charge of all of the program and is doing his utmost to insure an unprecedented success. The various committees were appointed about two months ago and have been working and planning for the big occasion since then. The aim is to advertise the College of Pharmacy and all work has been with that point in mind.

PHARMACISTS TO HOLD BIG PICNIC ON FRIDAY

On Friday of this week the Pharmacists will hold their picnic at Epworth Park. The picnic is an annual event of the College of Pharmacy and it is always held at some of the nearby parks or at Crete. They will leave the city at about eight o'clock in the morning, have a picnic dinner and in the afternoon they have entertainment enough to keep them going until about six o'clock in the evening.

In the afternoon the upperclassmen have challenged the freshmen of the college to a game of baseball. The contest has not yet been arranged but a treat of some kind will be expected. The picnic will serve as the climax for the Pharmacy Week.

SCHOLARSHIPS OPEN TO BIZAD STUDENTS

The Federal system of Bakeries of America, Inc., offers three scholarships to students of the Business Administration college. Each scholarship entitles the student to a course of training in baking technology, accounting, and merchandising. This course offered will be given this summer.

To one who completes this course satisfactorily is offered the minimum salary of $25.00 a week and up. District managers and other officials of this company receive from $5,000 and up.

This company which is less than four years old has established over 495 bakeries and is offering opening in the business to many students.

Full information concerning this matter may be obtained through Professor T. T. Bullock of the Economic department.

NEBRASKAN TO TAKE EUROPEAN STUDENT TOUR

"The friendship fund has furnished magnificent demonstration of international friendship and solidarity. It is dissipating the hatred and suspicion from the hearts of European students and leaving in its stead a feeling of good will and fellowship.

American students during the past year have demonstrated as never before that they are interested in world conditions. They evidenced their interest in European students by generous gifts often made at great personal sacrifices to aid their fellows over there.

To capitalize this good will which has been created between European and American students, this student pilgrimage of friendship has been evolved. These fifty representative American students go as emissaries of friendship from 400,000 American students. They will fraternize with the leaders of European student organizations. This will be an unparalleled opportunity for the exchange of ideas and it will inevitably strengthen the bonds of friendship and mutual understanding. In a way it is a student League of Nations.

"If Europe is to be restored, new leaders, free of animus toward their neighbors, must take hold. These leaders will come from the universities."

Students Pay Own Expenses

The American men in this group are paying their own expenses which, however, will be much smaller than those of the average tourist because the nature of the party has enabled those in charge to obtain as a matter of courtesy special rates. Many special courtesies will probably be extended to the visitors and Dr. H. C. Gossard of Atlanta, Ga., who is in charge of the preliminary arrangements, in America, has stated that it is probable that the Hungarian government will provide a boat to take the party down the Danube to Budapest. Arrangements in Europe are in the hands of Conrad Hoffman, administrator of the student relief fund.

As a follow-up of the summer conferences in Europe, the American college men will lay before their fellow students on the home campus what they have learned. Many substantial and beneficial ideas will undoubtedly be gleaned from these all-summer conferences which will prove helpful when transplanted to America.

Kenneth McCandless, the representative from Nebraska, is planning to pay particular attention to social conditions. He is a charter member of the Collegiate Industrial Research movement and will be a representative of that organization.
