DONATE TODAY FOR JACK BEST'S VACATION

ALL NEBRASKANS ASKED TO SUPPORT VACATION FUND FOR JIMMY BEST

Three Day Campaign Will Be Carried on to Send Veteran Husker on Vacation

UNI'S "GRAND OLD MAN" WILL GO TO CALIFORNIA

Ten Cents From Each Person is Enough For Good Sized Vacation Fund

Today, Wednesday and Thursday a campaign will be carried on at Nebraska by the "N" Club to get money to send Jimmy "Jack" Best to California for a vacation this summer. Boxes have been placed in the Social Science Building, U Hall, the Armory and at 12th and R streets so that passersby may drop a little free-will offering as a "thank you" for the thirty-four years of devoted service Best has given the Husker school.

The "N" club, composed of all letter men in the University, originated the idea to give the veteran trainer a reward for the service he has so faithfully given to Cornhusker athletes.

Seventy-six year old Jimmy Best received his athletic training in England. Nearly all the time he has been in the United States has been spent at the University of Nebraska. In the old days he made all trips with the team and would tenderly care for the injured arms and bruised legs of Nebraska's former stars. For several years he has been unable to get even to the fields when athletic contests are taking place.

California is the place Best has long desired to see and he hopes the sunshine and sea air will make it possible for him to go on with his work at the University.

Four boxes, placed so that every student will pass them at some time during the day, have been placed at different places on the campus. Above the boxes signs have been placed to attract the attention of passersby.

Ten cents from each of Nebraska's four thousand sons and daughters will give Jimmy a four hundred dollar fund—enough to give him a pleasant trip west. Twenty-five cents from each student will make the trip a luxurious one.

Let us show that the younger generation is not forgetful of the service rendered by our elders for Nebraska!

SILVER LYNX WINNERS OF TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Silver Lynx won the inter-fraternity tennis championship Monday afternoon by defeating Sigma Phi Epsilon in a title match played on the University courts before a large and enthusiastic crowd. Silver Lynx won 6-3, 2-6, 7-5.

Members of the Silver Lynx team were Gregg McBride and Cecil Matthews. The Sig Ep pair was Bob Russell and Fred Colby.

Silver Lynx walked off with the first set in a handy manner. McBride and Matthews were working their placement shots in a handy fashion and were constantly besting their opponents at the net.

The second set was a different story. The Sig Eps won it easily, 6-2. Russell's serve was working in an excellent manner while Colby turned loose a series of brilliant returns.

The third and deciding set saw the Silver Lynx on the long end of a 7-5 count. The style of aerial play used by the champions seemed to baffle the Sig Eps. The cross-court shots of McBride and the placements of Matthews worked effectively and Silver Lynx weathered the set with few errors.

The final deciding game was won by the Silver Lynx, when after an exchange of volleys, McBride sent the ball down the center of the court in a hard drive which neither Russell nor Colby were able to reach.

HUSKER TRACK MEN MEET KANSAS AGGIES

Kansas Farmers Here Saturday Afternoon For Dual Meet—M. V. Meet, May 27

The University of Nebraska track team, which defeated the Cyclone tracksters last Saturday by a 72 to 53 score, will meet the Kansas Aggie track team Saturday afternoon on Nebraska field. Coach Schulte will send the cinder men through a series of stiff workouts and tryouts for the meet with the Kansas Farmers.

The showing made by the Cornhusker field and track athletes last Saturday was very satisfactory, according to Coach Schulte. The Husker track men outclassed the Ames Cyclones, who have one of the strongest track teams in the Valley. The breaking of three Nebraska track records featured the meet.

Allen, Omaha Medic, who won the mile run by a beautiful sprint in the last 200 yards, broke the Nebraska mile record by crossing the finish line in 4:29 3/5. Allen passed Rathbun, Cyclone star distance runner, on the home stretch.

Following the Kansas Aggie meet on Saturday, the Huskers will compete at the Missouri Valley Conference outdoor track meet May 27 at Lawrence, Kansas. The Huskers won this meet last year. The Cornhuskers will close the 1922 season with the National Collegiate meet on June 9 and 10. The outstanding Husker track stars will be entered in this meet, in which the Huskers placed sixth last year, out of sixty-five schools entered.

FEW REGISTER ON FIRST DAY FOR NEXT YEAR

Students Slow to See Advisers For Making Out Programs When Registering Stars

SATURDAY WILL BE LAST DAY TO FILE

Fees to be Paid September 4 to 7 Late Fees Charged If Do Not Register Now

Registration for the first semester of the 1922-23 school year was started Monday morning with but a few students reporting to their advisers. The entire routine of registration must be concluded before Saturday of this week. Students who do not register now but return in the fall will be charged a late fee.

Fees will not be paid at this time. Only the routine work of making out schedules and filing them with the assignment committee will be concluded now. The fees will be paid from September 4 to 7 in the Armory.

Changes in registration may be made any time until the fees have been paid according to the plans as they now stand. Students may register now for what they wish to take next year and in case of failure or decision to take something else, they may make the changes in the fall previous to paying the fees.

The first semester of next year will start on September 11. Decision to hold a part of the work of registration during state fair week was arrived at following a referendum vote held last semester at the same time as the students decided how they wanted their vacations for next year arranged. Paying of fees during fair week will enable many students to witness the state exhibition who might not otherwise get the chance.

Students should procure programs of study from the registrar as soon as is possible. They should then see their advisers at the earliest possible convenience in order that they may get the work of registering over with before the final rush on Friday and Saturday. All the routine of the pre-paying must have been concluded by that time.

The new plan is practically the same as that tried out very successfully for this semester registration. It avoids the long, tedious waits in line which upper-classmen and this year freshmen abhor; it avoids much chance for mistakes for each adviser has a limited number of students to take care of and he can devote more care and time to seeing that everything is o. k.

Freshmen will register next fall at the same time as upper-classmen pay their fees. They will be the only ones who will have the long lines to bother with and consequently the waits will be considerably shortened. Breaking into line and other tricks of the older students are avoided by this method since only the first year students will be in the line.

PALLADIAN SOCIETY HAS SPRING INITIATION

The Palladian Literary Society held its spring initiation for a class of twelve new members on Saturday evening, May 13. The initiation program was in two parts, the first of which consisted of inspiring talks of what Palladian means and its significance as an organization of University students, by alumni members. Professor H. C. Filley and Mr. H. Williams, Palladian alumni, spoke to the society.

The second part of the initiation was of a less formal nature, and included short talks of welcome by James Wilson and Daisy Graves, who is president of the society, after which a fun fest was staged.

TEACHERS COLLEGE NOW REORGANIZED

May 12 Red Letter Day in Calender College—Waterhouse Speaks

May 12th will go down in the history of Teachers' College as a red letter day. It marks new beginnings for this college as such and gives visions to its many friends of what the future has in store for this valuable institution as a part of the University of Nebraska. The fact that it is an autonomous college and has the right to recommend both the degree of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science places this college on a foundation equally as substantial as the foundation upon which each of the leading teachers' colleges of our land has been established.

Still another event that bids fair to establish this college on solid ground was the selection of W. E. Sealock, who for the past months has been Assistant Dean, as the Dean. He will have the loyal (Continued on Page Four)

COMPET DRILL WILL BE HELD NEXT THURSDAY

Companies to Compete for Marching Honors on the Drill Field Next Week

RIBBONS TO MEMBERS OF WINNING COMPANIES

Classes to be Excused all Tuesday Afternoon While Competition in Progress

Competitive drill will be held Tuesday, May 23, on the drill field north of Social Science Hall. Starting at 1 o'clock, classes will be excused for the rest of the day while the competition for honors in the military world is going on.

More than a thousand men students of the University will take part in the program. Twelve companies will work for high honors—the Omaha cup awarded each year to the winner of competitive drill.

An elaborate program has been planned for the afternoon. Starting at one o'clock, the twelve companies will file out on the field in turn and parade in an effort to win the laurels.

Each member of the winning company will be awarded a blue ribbon while each member of the second and third companies in the meet will receive red and white ribbons respectively. These ribbons will be pinned on the winners by the sponsors of the companies following the long program of competition to decide the best group of marchers.

To Award Loving Cups

Individual loving cups to the first, second and third best drillers will be donated and awarded by Colonel Americus Mitchell. This is the first time awarding of individual cups has been undertaken. The loving cups to be awarded to the individual competitors were exhibited in the windows of the College Book Store last week.

Competitive drill has been a tradition at Nebraska since 1893. Starting the year, General John J. Pershing took his company up to Omaha to compete in a drill program and came home with the Omaha cup which has been awarded to the winning company ever since. The program of drill has been held each year just previous to the final days of school.

HISTORY CLASS VISITS OMAHA ART GALLERIES

Miss Pfeiffer Takes Group to Metropolitan to View Various Art Collections

Dr. Laura B. Pfeiffer's class in Renaissance history made a trip to Omaha Saturday to visit the Art galleries and study other works of art there. The class was entertained at luncheon at the University Club where they were extended all the privileges of the club.

The C. N. Dietz home was visited in the morning where the class was shown through the house and the objects of art which the family had gathered in their foreign travels were explained. After luncheon Allen McDonald, a graduate of the University of Nebraska, took the class to see the new Unitarian church for which he is the architect. The church is a pure type of colonial architecture and very beautiful.

The class viewed the collection of the Friends of Fine Arts at the City Library. They were particularly interested in the work of Mr. R. F. Gilder, a local artist whom they meet. Former regent Frank Haller of the University showed the class through the Linger Art Gallery. The fourteen visitors took dinner at the Brandis restaurant which is finished in the Renaissance style.

Convocation

Lauren W. Barkley, head of the department of boy scouts, will be a speaker at a convocation to be held next week.
