JIMMY BEST

For thirty-four years Jimmy Best, Nebraska's Grand Old Man, has been belping Nebraska to turn out winning athletic teams. For thirty-four years Jimmy has been giving the loving care loves his work can give.

Since 1888 Jimmy Best has been on the festivity for the sneak day. the job day after day in cold and in storm, despite failing health, old age Athletic Department could ever pay not known. him for in money.

Now Nebraska has a chance to repay in a small way what Jimmy has done for the school. Nebraska is go- telling of the new building for the law ing to have a chance to help him get school, the prominence of laws in the a vacation-a trip to California that he has long been looking forward to Boxes have been placed at various places on the campus for contributions from the four thousand students in the University. Ten cents from each of these four thousand will give him a four hundred dollar trip that will be one of the happiest times in oif the honors in their respective his rapidly closing life.

During the past year Nebraska has seen many worthy drives put over the top by loyal Husker support, but without exception tid movement is the finest one Nebraska has seen this year. Every loyal Nebraskan ought to Hotel. give and give.

The Exhaust

"All are not fools who would fool you"-so moralizes Pathe, but we agree with Lincoln that most of them are. And our idea is another of the cinematograph mottoes, "Fool not lest you be fooled."

Kansas State Ag College-Valuable prizes will be given to successful com petitors in the first annual Missouri Valley Interscholastic Relay carnival to be held on Ahearn field, Saturday, May 27. Entry blanks for the big athletic event have been mailed to high schools and academies of Kansas, Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Colorado. Six relays and eight special events are included on the program for the meet.

University of Iowa-The Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. recently sponsored their third big spring carnival in the armory. The first event of the evening was a fraternitp and sorority parade with floats for the two best of which prizes were offered. There was also the general profusion of festival decorations and booths and a dance.

QUAKER GIRL CAST WORKS DILIGENTLY

Rehearsals Are Now In Full Swing.

Rehearsals for The Quaker Girl are in full swing. The choruses are working hard as well as the principals during regular glee club periods. All the minor parts have now been chosen. H. O. Ferguson has been staging the first act during the last two weeks. "The chorus movements are especially good this year," stated Mr. Ferguson. The principals were working Friday afternoon on the second act. Miss Sprung is assisting the members to accomplish the French accent.

Two absolutely new sets of scenery will be used in acts I and II of the annual glee club opera, "The Quaker Girl," to be given May 26. The set to be used for the first act will be at Indiana last Saturday when mem- changed so much that it will be posi-
