YEAR BOOK CAMPAIGN TO CLOSE THIS WEEK

Students May Subscribe For 1922 Cornhusker Up Till Saturday

Subscriptions for the 1922 Everybody's Cornbasker will be received for the last time this week at either the Cornhusker office or the Student Activities effice, both in Administration Hall, according to an announcement by Business Manager Ray Stryker yesterday.

Students who have so far forgotten or have neglected to subscribe to this year's annual Cornhusker are urged to take advantage of this offer at once in order that they will not be slighted when the book is distributed in a few days.

The 1922 Cornhusker promises to be the best year book that has come from the hands of Nebraska students in many years, according to the ma terial that has been submitted and accepted. It will vie with any of the other representative annuals of the country for honors.

The winners of the Cornhusker Vanity Pair "Beauty and Personality Contest" will be seen in rotogravure in a specially prepared section, in will be exploited to good advantage.
