MEN RETURN FROM Y. M. CONFERENCE

Fifteen Nebraska Men Home From Ten Day Encampment at Estes Park

University of Nebraska student representatives to the Rocky Mountain Student conference at Estes Park, June 9 to 19, returned Wednesday. Following ten days of the most enjoyable days of their lives, the men have settled down for the summer at their homes over the state.

The Y. M. camp this year was a decided success. More than four hundred students from Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming, Montana, Utah and New Mexico flocked to the meetings to spend an interesting ten day program.

The Nebraska men made the trip in cars. One car returned to Lincoln late Tuesday night following a steady and fast drive all the way.

The daily program at the camp follows:

- Morning
- 6:00 to 8:00—Morning watch, breakfast.
- 8:00 to 8:45—Christian fundamentals.
- 8:45 to 9:30—Methods of student Y. M. C. A. and church work.
- 9:30 to 10:15—Interviews, special conferences, etc.
- 10:15 to 11:15—Discussion groups considering student and world problems.
- 11:15 to 12:30—Platform addresses on the social and international tasks of Christianity.
- Afternoon
- 1:30 to 2:30—Interviews, study
- 2:30 to 5:30—Hikes, athletics, fishing, riding, etc.
- Evening
- 7:00 to 7:45—Opportunities for life investment.
- 7:45 to 8:45—Platform addresses.
- 8:45 to 9:30—Delegation meetings.
- 10:00—Taps.

Millionaire, speaking to a body of students: All my success, all my tremendous financial prestige I owe to one thing alone, pluck, pluck, pluck. Student: But how are we to find the right people to pluck?
