

UNIVERSITY HAS SWEETHEART SONG

"Cornhusker Rose" Name of Newly Published Popular Waltz by Adamson

A long felt need at the university for a sweetheart song has now been supplied. Howard Adamson has written a waltz song, "Cornhusker Rose," which, it is believed, will live as a traditional Nebraska piece.

The Summer Nebraskan at twenty-five cents each and a large number of them have been received. The songs were sent out Monday. The feature of the song is the fact that Vivian Hanson, well known university girl, adorns the front page. A contest was conducted this summer through the Summer Nebraskan to decide the most representative girl at the university and Miss Hanson received the largest number of votes.

As an inducement to the sale of the song, Adamson is giving a paneled picture of the six high girls in the contest—Miss Hanson, Mildred Hultinger, Mrs. Ruth Kadei Seacrest, Margaret Stidworthy, Ruth Fickes and Mildred Taylor—with each order for the song sent to the Summer Nebraskan. Orders are still being received through the paper. University students who wish copies of the song before coming to the university this fall should send their orders to the Nebraskan.

"Cornhusker Rose Waltz" Harvey H. Carroll, dancing instructor of Lincoln, has arranged a new dance waltz for the "Cornhusker Rose". His dance is called the "Cornhusker Rose Waltz".

In explaining the new step, Mr. Carroll said, "The main characteristic of the dance is the style of walking step. It is based upon the cantor, hesitation and glide waltz. Although the music is fast, the movement of the feet is slow, thus giving opportunity for grace. Unlike the ordinary waltz, only one step is taken to three counts a part of the time while two steps is taken to three counts the rest of the time. I believe that most people prefer the smooth and graceful style of dancing. The long, sweeping step and the simple arrangement of steps in the "Cornhusker Rose Waltz" make it possible for any one with ordinary dancing ability to appear gracefully on the dance floor."

Mr. Carroll will supervise the dancing and entertainment at the city auditorium, which opens state fair week. Mr. and Mrs. Carroll will demonstrate the new step and the Spanish tango then.

Huntington Takes Trip Through the European Countries

A trip from England to France by airplane, a tour of Verdun and Versailles and a view of the Passion Play at Oberammergau look up a large part of the time of H. T. Huntington, Methodist student pastor, who was in Europe this summer. He accompanied Ernest Bruce who will enter the university this fall and John Bryan, grandson of W. J. Bryan. "I thought it very wonderful," stated Mr. Huntington in speaking of the Passion Play. "When you consider that the text for the play, the music and the characters are all from the little out-of-the-way village of Oberammergau, that the play is given in German, when you consider the make-up is used except robes appropriate to the parts, that there is no love story in the plot and no attempt at humor, it is not surprising that I call it wonderful when people go there from all over the world and are held almost spellbound by it."

"The day we were there, August thirteenth," continued Mr. Huntington, "there were about seven hundred people who stood up during the entire eight hours of the performance. The play is not commercialized at all," he stated. "It cost us only about thirty-five cents apiece for admission. We stayed at the home of Sebastian Bauer, one of the players, and the cost of the board and room was ridiculously low in price." "Yes, the players are all workmen," affirmed Mr. Huntington. "It is their life ambition to take part in the Passion Play. One of the principal players, a man with a wonderful voice, was acting on Sundays and Wednesdays when the play is given, and was the village blacksmith the rest of the week."

In order to give an idea of the way the German mark has depreciated, Mr. Huntington stated that he received 1030 marks for a dollar on the day he left Germany while before the war, only ten marks would have cost $2.50.

While in Paris the party visited the Louvre, the Eiffel tower and other points of interest about the city. The men saw the palace at Versailles and visited the battlefield around Verdun. A trip was also taken through Switzerland to Italy where Naples, Florence and one were visited. At Rome, Mr. Huntington and his companions saw the ruins of the Coliseum, old Roman baths, the Catacombs and the present day St. Paul's cathedral.

Just after seeing the Passion Play, the party sailed down the Rhine, stopping at Cologne. While in Brussels a little later, the travellers saw the battlefield of Waterloo.

Mr. Huntington and the two boys sailed from Montreal and spent a week in London. Another week was spent in touring the country, including Scotland.

Stag Evenings on Y. M. C. A. Program

At stag parties tonight and Thursday at the Y. M. C. A. club rooms at the Temple, refreshments, games, and getting acquainted will be a part of the informal good time. Every university man is invited although the evening has been arranged primarily for freshmen. On Thursday, the feature will be a moving picture taken last year by Ed. Condra's department. The Y. M. C. A. management is anxious that every freshman make it a point to be at the Temple on both evenings.

Fraternity Pledges To be Interviewed

Fraternity pledges will not be officially announced until each pledge has been interviewed by a committee consisting of Prof. R. D. Scott, O. J. Fee and Eugene Holland. This committee has acted for several years in the effort to stamp out high school fraternities by not allowing their members to join fraternities at the university.

Any lists that may be made before that time are unofficial and not authorized by the inter-fraternity council. Pledging by the fraternities started last Thursday noon and is still continuing. It is expected that the committee will begin interviewing the pledges before the end of this week, but no definite time has been set for the announcement of the pledges.
