

IOWA HAWKEYES START PRACTICE

Face Heavy Schedule in Coming Football Season—Play Yale and Ohio State.

Iowa City, Ia., Sept. 12.—(Special)—Somewhere between the rosy and the drab lie the prospects for 1922 of the University of Iowa football team, the champions of the Big Ten in 1921 and inhabitants of the pinnacle of gridiron fame during the past year. Five good regulars and true are lost to the team but, on the other hand, a likely crew of seven regulars, eight first team men and a score or more of yearlings are at the disposal of Head Coach Howard H. Jones.

Actual drill in the art of football offense and defense will not begin until Sept. 15. Hardening processes have been under way with most of the prospective candidates all summer. Meanwhile Coach Jones and his staff have been mapping out the plan of campaign behind closed doors and under their respective hats with not even an S. R. O. sign to appease the curiosity of prying scouts.

A mountainous task faces the Hawkeyes. Knox, first on the card, should be a foe worthy of its steel. When Iowa meets Yale at New Haven October 14, their respective coaches, Howard Jones of the old Gold and Tad Jones of the Blue, blood brothers, can settle all family strife while the east and west are turning Kipling upside down by actually meeting on a common field all decorated up with year lines, officials, goals, and other impediments. It'll be the first time that Iowa ever invaded the east or played an eastern team.

Another newcomer on the Iowa slate this year will be Ohio State. The Hawkeyes will tangle with the Buck-

CRIME NEWS DOES NOT DOMINATE NEWSPAPERS

That crime news does not dominate the newspaper of America and, in fact, occupies but a relatively small amount of space is the conclusion reached by Prof. Bristow Adams, of the New York State College of Agriculture, after a recent survey. He gave his findings, obtained from a study of the issues of one month of representative newspapers, at the recent meeting of the New York State Press association.

New York City dailies print more news of business and finance than of crime, more of sports, more of politics, more of labor, and more from foreign fields and educational sources, he finds. Since it occupies only 4 1/2 per cent of the grand total of space in these newspapers, crime ranks seventh in news importance.

Crime news in cities of the second class in New York state is even less regarded by the press than in the metropolis. In such cities it fills only 3 1/2 per cent of the newspaper space devoted to news, being topped by sports, educational, society, labor, business and finance, government and politics, agriculture, foreign, death and disaster news, in the order named.

In newspapers in cities of the third class crime news drops to eleventh place in importance, with a total of 1 1/2 per cent of all text matter printed.

In the survey Sunday editions were excluded because of their special supplements and articles of opinion.

Engagement of Miss Georgia Avary Sandusky to Frederick J. Patz has been announced. Miss Sandusky is a member of Alpha Chi Omega.
