New Assistant in Women's Phys-Ed

Mrs. Harold Morgan is the new assistant coach in women's athletics. She is a graduate of the Sargent School of Physical Education, and is especially interested in out-door sports. She will be on the field Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons, and probably Tuesday and Thursday mornings.

Mrs. Morgan refereed the match games in soccer, hockey, and basketball last year. Her fairness and her knowledge of the games were the cause of much comment.

To Give Sunday Evening Lectures

Dr. John Andrew Holmes will give brief lectures on Sunday evenings at 7:30 commencing October 8, on the first chapters of Genesis. He will conduct a question box in connection with these lectures, answering any questions that may be asked by members of the congregation. Dr. Holmes will answer such questions as the following: "Whom did Cain marry? Was the world made in six days? Was man made in a day, or was he made by evolution? Was woman made out of a rib?"

Following is a list of the topics:
"The Making of the World."
"The Making of Man."
"The making of Woman."
"The unmaking of man and woman."
"The remaking of the human race."

Mother of Former Instructor Dead

Mrs. Barbara Hrbek, mother of Jeffrey D. Hrbek and Miss Sarka B. Hrbkova, graduates of the University of Nebraska and aunt of Cyril Hrbek, a former student, died at her home in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, September twenty-fifth.

Sarka B. Hrbkova is with the foreign language information service in New York and Washington. Jeffrey D. Hrbek, who taught in the language department of the University of Nebraska, was the first instructor of the Czech language in any state university.

Violin Girls Leave For Pacific Coast
