	worse, in my next class, as I sat in fear and trembling. I was asked to go in front of the class and recite and mercy me! as I got up, first down went my four books sprawling all or set the floor, then as I stopped to pick them up, my pen and pencil dropped and rolled merrily down the aisle with me scrambling after them so fast that I stubbed my toe just as I turneu to face the class and with my checks the color of crimson roses. I went slow,y back to my seat for I'd forgotten what I was going to say. Oh! it's terrible. Am I just born unlucky or do you think there's any hope for me? Now another thing is also bothering me. ## THE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF MUSIC ADRIAN M. NEWENS, Director

Offers thorough training in Music, Dramatic Art. A large faculty of specialists in all departments. Anyone may enter. Full information on request. Opposite the Campus.

A stream of students, six and eight abreast, six blocks long, marched to the City Auditorium yesterday for the Stadium Rally. All classes were dismissed at 9:45. The Laws met at the Law building and headed the procession of yelling Cornhuskers' to Thirteenth and P, where the Dental students took the lead.

There were between three and four thousand students in the line and it took about thirty minutes for them to reach the Auditorium after classes were dismissed. The in pbers of the colleges gathered in front of their respective buildings. The band led the parade with some spirited music.

Special Convocation For R. O. T. C. Men Today In the Armory

General George B. Duncan. Commander of the Seventh Corps Area, will address the students of the R. O. T. C. of the University at a special convocation in the Armory at 11 today. All R. O. T. C. men will be exused from classes to attend the meeting

This convocation was originally announced for the Temple, but because of a conflict in dates, it has been changed to the Armory. Because of his high rank and his interest in the tudents who are training in his corps area, all students are particularly urged to hear General Duncan.

stadium, capable of accommodating 40,000 spectators; a fiting memorial to Nebraska's part in the war; ac commodations for our athletes that will be worthy of the splendid teams that Nebraska every year turns out; a lasting monument and object of pride in years to come to those students and alumni who now contribute to its erection. That is our goal.

To reach it the students are asked to give ninety thousand del'ars; the alumni will take care of the rest. Twenty-five dollars opiece is just a paltry sum. It is the least ve can give to show our appreciation for the educational opportunities which have been given to us at practically no cost. It is not unreasonable to ask the students to help build this stadiunm which is to so obviously for their own good.

It is a sacrifice for you to give? So much the better! The things in life that come hard are the things that are worth having. What if you do have to forgo some pleasures? If you do it cheerfully, ten years from now you will remember the sacrifice you made with keener pleasure than Teachers' Foram upon Elementary if it had been easy for you to con- Economics. Every teacher who regtribute.

The student who fails to contribute now will regret it in the future when the privilege of listening to the leche returns to his Alma Mater and tures. realizes that he had no part in the erection of this memorial stadium.

Huskers! This program is an acid test of your loyalty. School spirit is not measured in yells and cheers; it is measured in willingness to sacrifice. We have set this stadium for our goal. "Let's get where we are going."

Get the Pen that Fills by a Press of the Button A Filler That's Not Exposed So Can't Catch and Spill Ink

11th & R Sts.

THIS is one of the vital reasons why the Parker Pen ranks highest with America's educators and student bodies. Its filler is "safety-sealed" beneath the neat screwcap end. There's no exposed lever to catch on the clothing, spill ink and spoil your suit or blouse. Remove the cap, immerse the pen in ink, press the button and the Parker is filled.

This simple, perfect filler was created by Geo. S. Parker, inventor of the celebrated leakproof "Lucky Curve" feed. And in no other pen can you obtain these features-so important to operation if a penis to perform without a hitch. And that's what you want in a fountain pen-not one that distracts your mind when you're trying to concentrate on study or class instruction.

All Parker points are 14 K rolled gold, so they can't rust, corrode or tarnish and are not affected by acids.

Prices range from $2.50 upward according to style and mounting. These pens are made with the same mechanical perfection and jeweler's accuracy and finish found in the famous Parker 25-year Duofoldthe lacquer-red pen at $7 that has taken America by storm.

Come pick out the point that best suits your hand-extra fine, fine, medium, coarse or stub. We'll give you a Parker Accident Policy free-insuring you for one year against any breakage, damage satisfactory service of any kind.
