As I stated at the auditorium "Whatever Nebraska undertakes it accomplishes." The history of drives of this sort shows too that success is attained through the united effort of those most interested. The student drive is the first thorough, systematic attempt that has been made to raise the success attending this drive is indicative of what the others will go. The success of the faculty drive next week can easily be foreseen. A movement gathers momentum as it goes along. The first and most important victory has now been won in the stadium campaign.
