BEST'S FUNERAL FRIDAY AT 3:30

"N" Club to Be Honorary Pallbearers—Classes Excused in Afternoon.

BODY TO LIE IN STATE

Glee Club on Tour Sends Regrets Private Services on Day of Burial.

The body of Jack Best will lie in state in the Armory Friday, January 26, from 10 to 1 o'clock. All Friday classes that meet in the Armory and all Friday afternoon classes will be dismissed.

All flowers given by organizations should be at the Armory by 10 o'clock Friday.

Funeral services for Jack Best, aged seventy-seven, who died Tuesday afternoon will be held at 3:30 Friday afternoon. Private services will be held at his home, 1236 "U" street, Friday afternoon at 2:30 in charge of the Rev. A. P. Hesse.

Draped with his last "N" sweater and with "N" blankets, the body of the veteran trainer will lie in state in the locker rooms of the University Armory, the scene of "Jimmy's" work for the past thirty-four years, from 10 o'clock to 1 on Friday, January 26.

Members of the "N" Club will attend the funeral in a body and act as an escort to the cemetery. Members of the "N" Club will serve as honorary pallbearers and football men will be active pallbearers.

All classes will be dismissed Friday afternoon so that every Cornhusker will have the opportunity to pay respect to Jack Best. No teams are being suited and all inter-fraternity basketball games are indefinitely postponed. No gymnasium classes in the Armory will meet Friday.

The University Glee Club, now on a tour of western Nebraska, Colorado, and Wyoming, sent the following telegram in expression of their regret at the loss of the beloved trainer. "We wish to extend our heartfelt sympathy to the friends and relatives of our beloved Jack Best and join with our fellow students on expressing our regret at the loss of our University's 'grand old man'."

Nebraska's "grand old man" will have his casket covered with "N" blankets and his last "N" sweater presented him by Walter C. Booth, head coach at Nebraska twenty years ago. According to announcement made Wednesday morning, the body will lie in state in the locker rooms of the Armory where Jack spent the greater part of his life serving the University in an undefined and highly respected capacity.

The aged trainer and coach came to Nebraska in 1888 and has been acting as coach and then trainer to every Cornhusker team during the last thirty-five years with loyalty and faithfulness that has made him famous and loved by every student and alumnus. He was seventy-seven years old the fourteenth of last December. Statements by attending physicians give the cause of his death as cancer of the gall bladder.

NEBRASKA CRIDSTERS NATIONALLY HONORED

Eight Cornhuskers Named by Outing Magazine in List of Players.

The merit of Nebraska's football team was again evidenced when eight members of the 1922 Missouri Valley championship team were chosen on the honor roll of "Outing." The men who were placed on this "National Football Roll of Honor" are Preston, quarterback; Noble halfback; Hartley, fullback; Schoepel, end; Weller, tackle; Berquist and Bassett, guards; Peterson, center.

More men from Nebraska than from any other University were placed on the roll. At least one Husker player was named for each position. Three other M. V. teams had a man each placed on the roster. These men are Boelter, Drake; McAdams, Kansas and Schwartz, Kansas Aggies.

California, Nebraska's runner-up in the number of men placed on the list, failed to have a man at the center position. California has seven men honored. Michigan and Yale tied for third honors with six men each.

Law Dance to Come on Saturday Night

Rosewilde Party House is set for the scene of the only Law dance of the year which is to be held Saturday evening, January 27. The "Barrister's Shindig" will resemble a fall party, the committee promising interesting decorations and plenty of refreshments. Contrary to popular belief the dance is open to the student body at large. Tickets can be secured at the Student Activities office until Saturday noon. Tickets will also be available at the door. Music will be by Northwall's Jazz Orchestra.

COMMITTEE WANTS SKITS IN SATURDAY

Faculty Expected to Submit a Clever Act for University Night.

Students who are planning to submit skits for the University Night program must present them in outline form to the committee on or before Saturday, Jan. 27. The committee will then go over them and select the most desirable ones for the program. The persons whose skits are chosen will then be asked to stage them for a final selection.

The committee will try to have an equal number of stage and curtain acts this year and anyone having any suggestions of either nature is asked to submit his idea whether he desires to present it personally or not.

No definite place for the entertainment has yet been decided upon but arrangements are being made to accommodate all who wish to attend. For the past two years many students have been unable to attend on account of the seat shortage, but this year the committee plans to eliminate this undesirable feature so that all who wish to attend will be able to do so.

Each member of the committee will be assigned a certain group to work with in the development of skits. Skits may be turned in at the Y. M. C. A. office at the Temple or to any member of the committee.

The dramatic club has announced that it will present a skit, and many other organizations are expected to do likewise. The committee is looking with much anticipation toward the faculty and it is hoped that they will come across with a good one.

The next committee meeting will be held at Ellen Smith hall this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Honorary Fraternity Appoints Committee

Herman Wollmer, president of Alpha Kappa Psi, honorary fraternity of the College of Business Administration, announces the following committees for this semester:

Business relations: H. R. LaTowsky, chairman; Hobart Bancroft, Jack Austin.

Monthly dinners: Kenneth Cozier, chairman; Hoyat Hawke.

Entertainment: Arnott Folsom, chairman; R. W. Kerkov, Edward McMonies.

Initiation: R. L. Mockler, chairman; Raymond Eller, R. W. Maxwell, Edwin Loder, Harry Amende.

Constitution: R. R. Hartwell, chairman; Edgar Hiebsenthal, Theo. Skillstad.

Luncheons: C. A. Isaacson, chairman; Harry LaTowsky.

Rooms: Reid Ellermeier, chairman; Kenneth Cozier, Edward McMonies.

Glee Club on Last Lap of Long Trip

With its trip half completed, the Glee Club filed an engagement last night at Sterling, Colorado. Tonight the club is staging an entertainment at Fort Morgan.

The organization filed its first engagement January 17, at York. The members then visited in turn, North Island, Kearney, Cozad, North Platte, Chapell and Sidney. The club then crossed the line into Colorado and played at Sterling, January twenty-sixth it performs at Denver and the next day at Yuma. McCook and Cambridge will both be visited on the twenty-eighth. The last date is the twentieth at Oxford. The date to appear at Hastings on January thirtieth, has been cancelled.

LEGISLATURE TO CONTINUE EXPENDITURE INVESTIGATION

Committee Declares That the Faculty of the College of Agriculture devotes the Major Part of Time to Private Business—College Work a Sideline.

LAW-MAKERS OPEN ATTACK ON DEAN I. F. CUTTER

Attorney Fees for the Law Suit Between University and State Termed "Definite Extravagance"—Harry D. Landis Furnishes Information.

Promising sensational disclosures of extravagance, the special House committee which has been investigating the expenditures of the University, won from the House of Representatives consent to continue the investigation. Only ten members of the body voted against the continuance. High spots in the committee report were the declaration that the members of the faculty of the College of Agriculture were devoting the major part of their time to private business and taking their college work as a sideline, and the declaration that thousands of dollars were being wasted by faculty members on junketing trips.

SECOND NUMBER OF "THE BIZAD" APPEARS

New Publication Carries Articles on Salesmanship by Dean Le Rossignol.

The second number of "The Bizad," official publication of the College of Business Administration, was issued yesterday. Articles by Dean J. E. Le Rossignol, Alexander Legge, president of the International Harvester company, Frank A. Munsey, and W. W. Husband, the United States commissioner of immigration, feature in the January "Bizad."

"The philosophy of Salesmanship," is the title of the article by Dean Le Rossignol. Mr. Legge's contribution is on "The Relation of Agriculture to Business Conditions." An address by Mr. Munsey before the American Bankers association on "Problems of the Hour," is also included in the "Bizad." The article "How Let in the Men We Need?" by W. W. Husband, United States Commissioner of Immigration, is reprinted from "The Nation's Business" Magazine.

Student contributors to the January Bizad are: Guy Hyatt, John Comstock and Raymond Eller.

HUSKER GAGESTERS MAKING IOWA TOUR

Coach Frank Takes Ten to Meet Grinnell, Ames and Drake.

Nebraska's basket tossers left at 12:30 last night on a three-game eastern tour. Coach Frank's proteges play Drake on Thursday, Friday evening they take on Ames, and tackle Grinnell Saturday. The team will return Sunday.

Ten men are making the trip to test the strength of Ames and Grinnell, neither of whom have played Nebraska this season. Ames is recognized as a strong opponent as the result of holding Missouri to a low score last week. Grinnell fell before Kansas, but reports coming from the Cornhusker camp give promise of a tight game Saturday. The game with Drake should have a different outcome than the first one when the Cream warriors fought off the fast passing of the little Bulldog team. Coach Frank has been planning for this return match.

The men to make the trip are: Captain Warren Klepser Cozier Usher Goodson M. Tipton Russell Volz Riddlesbarger P. Tipton Holland.

The information concerning expenditures was furnished to the committee by Harry D. Landis, president of the board of regents. The figures represent amounts paid for salaries, wages, commodities and all University expenses.

A motion introduced in the House yesterday to dissolve the committee led Representative Dysart to declare: "I believe that it is for the best interests of the University to go on with it and if an investigation is to be effective it should be made by men none too friendly with the cause."

The information concerning expenditures was furnished to the committee by Harry D. Landis, president of the board of regents. The figures represent amounts paid for salaries, wages, commodities and all University expenses.

Professor W. E. Sealock, dean of the Teachers' College, was unable to be in his office Tuesday because of an attack of la grippe. Although not fully recovered yesterday, he was carrying on his work.

The Columbia Spectator gives a few rules for classroom etiquette: "Don't rush to classes. The later you arrive the better impression you make."

"Plant your feet carefully on the back of the person in front of you."

REPORTERS WANTED.

Any student who wishes to report on The Daily Nebraskan the second semester should see the managing editor or fill out an application blank in the Nebraskan office in the basement of Administration hall as soon as possible. Sport writers are particularly needed.
