THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

VOL. XXII-NO. 80

SERVICES HELD IN MEMORY OF PROFESSOR DANN

Lincoln Musicians Play and Sing Selections Written by the Late Critic of Art.

SAMUEL AVERY SPEAKS

Prof. Fossler Pays Tribute to Late Colleague—Jones Lauds Former Friend.

At the memorial service for the late Prof. William Francis Dann held in the First Congregational Church Sanday afternoon, Lincoln musicians played and sang Professor Dann's own compositions. Chancellor Avery, Mr. W. O. Jones, and Prof. L. Fossler recalled his attributes to the audience The attendance from the city and the University testified to the love in which Professor Dann was held.

ict in F, which Professor Dann had composed for string quartet, were played by them just as they had received it a few years ago. One of his anthems, a musical setting for Whittier's poem, "I Know Not What phony in D, played by the string quarplace Professor Dann had won in the affections of the community, and Prof. Laurence Fossler told of his life in the University and of the scholarship that gave him such a hold upon the University community.

"These of us who live and work off the campus and like blind babes cry for more practical and less expensive instruction may well pause to consider the rich and well-rounded life of our triend," warned Mr. Jones in his address. "We may well ask if we are likely to grow such splendid and usetul characters by shallow plowing of the field of current events, by exalting vocational studies above education. and by assuming that the ancient would has nothing for our inspiration and guidance. We cannot review such ABIETY SHOW PLAYS system of education, now unfortunately no longer popular, out of which this life so glariously emerged."

a tubnity five years' associat

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, TUESDAY, JANUARY, 30, 1923

Yale Man Explains Why Shooting to Be Played Soon Should Be Intercollegiate Sport The next production of the Univer-

By William R. Biggs, Manager Yale University Rifle Team 1920-1922;

considered by Mr. Burns Mantle of The Great War brought many to institute new and miscesting for the New York Evening Mail, as "one changes in the colleges of the United tures continually. Because of the tele of the ten outstanding plays of last States yet perhaps none of them have graphic feature of the matches one of season." The author, Eugene O'Neill, been as striking as the sudden growth the great incentives to going out for also considers it the greatest of his in interest in rifle shocting as a reg a sport is taken away and this must heavy dramas. The leading role will ularly constituted college sport. This be counteracted. The feature to walco be played by Herbert Yenne supported is due to a wide variety of causes. I tefer is the taking of trips which is by Miss Helen Martin. Miss Marian The chief reason seems to be that one of the most important factors in Sargent, John Dawson, and Nell luring the war many Americans whe setting men to come out for the minor Brown. The special scenery for had never even seen a rifle before college sport. Every manager should every act has been designed by Mr. were forced to become very familiar do his best to get his athletic associa H. Haugseth. with it. What is more, they were de- tion to finance one trip a year if pos leges.

Seats for the four performances, pendento n their rifle and the skill sible. Arrangements could be made February 1, 2 ami 3 are on sale at with which they used it for their very with another college to shoot alter-Ross P. Curtice Co. The early seat lives and many of them learned to love | nately on each other's home range or sale has been very heavy and the their rifles. At the end of the war, some neutral range upon cortain premanagement advises that seats be they did not wish to give up their scribed conditions. This would do newly acquired art altogether and wel- more than anything to keep interest in secured at once in order to assure favorite seats. comed the chance to practice it at col- the sport alive and to get the best

"Beyond the Horizon" sity Players, "Beyond the Horizon, is

'RESOLUTIONS'' ISSUE OF AWGWAN APPEARS

Portions of the Andante of the quin- January Number of Nebraska's Comic Is Out-Five Color Cover Design.

war by bringing more men into con-"Old Man Awgwan" brought out his "Resolutions" number Tuesday morn-The cover for the January issue 31118 the Future Hath," was sung by the was painted by a professional artist church quartet. Two favorites of in Minneapolis and is reproduced in Professor Dann's, the "Andante Sym- five colors. This is the first time oges. Awgwan has ever appeared with a tet and organ, concluded the program, cover designed by an artist of na Chancellor Avery presided and tional reputation or reproduced in so gave Professor Dann a high placs many colors. This allustration, with among the professors, who have given the other cleverly done pictures or the University its standing and repu- the inside of the book, are said to be lation. Dr. J. A. Holmes offered the the best selection of art illustrations prayer. Will Owen Jones outlined the that the Awgwan has yet reproduced Many short jokes and New Year stories are features of this issue. The number was delayed for two weeks because cuts, from the engraving company in Minneapolis, were lost in the mail. Copies may now be obtained at Station A. The next number of the Awgwan will appear thout the middle of February and will be called the "Heroes" number. This name was chosen because of the fact that many national heroes were born in the month of February. Any appropriate contribution for this number will be welcomed in the Awgwan office or may be sent to the editor through Station A.

BEFORE LARGE HOUSE

men out.

all over the country the realization terest up is the constant addition of that the best safeguard against war new features in the way of shooting a reasonable preparation in peace, and in the schedule. For the last two

There could be no better preparation years Ya's has shot an annual watch than a general knowledge of shooting with Oxford University and this has to any great extent can testify to the and the symathetic support and co creat charm of the sport and thus the operation of the athletic association

Men who have used a figie or shot interest of the undergraduate public

Another factor which helps keep in done more than any bing to arouse the Last year a new feature was added to timulants to interest.

(Continued on Page Four).

the championship in the interclass men will clash over the question "Re-veterans of the World War." The freshmen will uphold the affirmative and the juniors the negative.

and so the sport must appeal more the learn to shoot against Oxford. Inor its own take. The management torsectional matches are also great of a rifle team more than pechaps any other coust keep wide awake and constantly promote its sport, and try

Then too there came to many people among the college men of the day.

(Special to The Nebraskan). Chicago, Ill-1s the college graduate poorly equipped physically? Has his bodily development been neglected because of physical fitness be re quired of every student as a qualification for a degree?

collegiate journalism fraternity. answer these questions.

Tryouts for the Vesper Choir, an organization under the auspices of the University Y, W. C. A., will be held Tuesday afternoon from three to five o'clock at Ellen Smith Hall. Any girl who likes to sing, and would like to help with the choral music at the reg ular Tuesday afternoon vespers of the Association may try out, says the lead er of the Choir.

Vesper Tryouts Open

This organization furnished a Christ mas cantata at vespers, and sang at the University Christmas tree on the carols in front of the houses in the campus. Afterward the girls sans windows of which candles were burn ing for European student relief.

PRESIDENTS MEET TO DISCUSS ELECTIONS

Offer Opinions on Publication Appointments.

In order to discuss the present and possible means of selection of the editorial and business staffs of the Cornhusker, the presidents of thirty of the leading organizations on the campus, met at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon in the Social Science Auditorum. Joe Noh, a member of the Student Publication Board, presided.

The opinions expressed in the open members of the Publication Board, to which body the Board of Regent has given power to "control Univer sity publications as it sees fit." There is one thing which I think

In outlining the possible plans of selection, three ideas were given. Ne braska is the only school at which dent Forum. the staffs are selected by populat vote, it was said. The other methods by the Board, followed by election by the students, and election by the Student Publication Board, as in the case of the staffs of the Daily Nebraskan

Dean Dawson declared that "If you have appointive office, you should have people on the Board who are qualified to chose among the candidates the memers of the Student Publication Board should be composed of representative business or editorial men, qualified to make a real judgment."

Adolph Wenke, editor of the Cornhusker, in defense of the annual and v in which it is managed, made price than at any other school. At

to Girls Who Sing STUDENTS FROM ABROAD WILL BE HERE TO SPEAK

Returning Visit Made by American Coilege Men Last Summer-Accompanied by Secretary.

DATES OPEN TO GROUPS

Yale Alumnus Writes of Interesting Meeting with Foreigners and His Impressions.

mans Tiesler of Germany, Plet Roest of Holland, and Jorgen Holck of Denmark, accompanied by the Rothschild of Harvard and Jasper King, travelling secretary of the National Student Forum, will be at the University to speak to student audiences February 13, 14 and 15. These students are in this country on a return student pilgrimage, somewhat similar to Leading Men on the Campus the trip made last summer by a group of American students IncludingKenneth McCandless of the University of Nebraska.

Due to a misunderstanding of routing, it was erroneously published in the Nebraskan that another group would be here. Student groups may withdraw their invitations in cases where this makes a difference, and requests for the time of these students may still be brought to the office of The Daily Nebraskan.

"The foreign men are not in this country to ask for aid for their counforum which followed the opening of try. They are not intending to do the question, will be taken before the anything to secure money for their countrymen. Their only object is to help to bring about the rehabilitation of Europe, and a resumption of that feeling of fellowship among students which is such a force in education," says a bulletin from the National Stu-

In view of the approaching visit of these students. The Nebraskan is togiven are nomination of candidates day publishing an article, written by Basil H. Pillard, who was graduated from Yale in 1917, which he has entitled "When We Grow Up," and in which he gives his personal impression of these men, with who mhe is personally acquainted.

The article follows:

"The Jazz Age, so I am told, is passing away. Terms like 'flapper,' 'finale-hopper' and 'cake-cater' already have a slightly archaic sound. From several quarters I am assured that the fachion of 'youth' is passing; that the attempt to make people 'age conscious' has failed.

"I wonder if this is true. I do not doubt that in superficial things like words and clothes there has been a fashion and that it is passing. Yet those schools whose methods had every day I am more than ever conbeen cited. "At Nebraska," he said vinced that there is a very real dif-"you get a bigger book for a smaller ference between the old and the young generation. I have lately been Kansas the same-sized book is put led to speculate as to whether this divergence, particularly as it applies to outlook on life, is not actually increasing. I even begin to wonder if. instead of passing away, the 'Jazz Age' may not be merely the beginning of something much more significantthe first brimation, perhaps, of a new renaissance. 'At Nebraska, the cost per book is "One thing that has led me to speca little over $6.00. That may sound ulate in this fashion is the contact I have had with several of the Europcan students who are visiting this country under the auspices of The National Student Forum. These students have come from England, Holland. Denmark. Czecho-Slovakia and Germany. The youth movement which they represent started in much the same way as our 'Jazz Age' did; in uperficial differences of dress and speech and manners. Now, however, after thirty years, we find it has become a tremendously significant hing-a factor of vital importance in the life of Europe. So I find myself wondering if we young people may not develop further than our

Chance to Write. The final debate which will decide series wil be held at 8 o'clock Thursday evening. The juniors and fresh solved, that the government should grant adjusted compensation to the

Every male undergraduate in the United States and Canada has been nvited by Pi Delta Epsilon, honorary the Professor in church, club and general community life; Mr. Jones assert od that he had never once seen him lose his polse; had never once heard him express a hasty. Ill-considered, or uncharliable opinion.

Professor Fossler recalled the percompanionable, sane soul, with whom to come into contact was a delight. was cheer. The sanative, wholesome environment or atmosphere that followed him like his shadow whoever he happened to be-these are and will be to his friends fondly treasured joys, for his was light and love that pever failed, never dimmed."

All Girls Eligible for Dance Tryouts

Dance-drama tryouts will be held this noon in the Armory. All girls are eligible. Miss Marjorie Barstow, who a University student. will coach the play with the assistance of Benlah Grabill, W. A. A. sport leader, will have charge of the tryouts.

A list of simple technique and step the W. A. A. bulletin board in the symnasium.

A play-drama will be composed affer the participants are chosen. It will he given March 2, at the Temple The-

Dr. Pfeiffer Lectures for Legion Program

Dr. Laura B. Pfeiffer, of the history department, gave a lecture as part of a program broadcast from the American Legion radiophone station Friday evening, aJnuary 26, Her subject was, "The Present Situation in Europe." Other contributors to the program were:

Adelade Cain, violin. Geneva Cain, 'cello. Alvin Wallace, plano. Dr. D. L. Rediern, baritone. Mrs. D. L. Redfern, accompanist. Appreciative Audience Attends Opening Performance of DeMolay Show.

ing to a capacity house at the Orpheum Theatre Monday night, was Degree," Cecil F. Gordon, of Dart sonal qualities of "that rare, beautiful, largely attended by University stu- mouth College, General Undergradudents. Few tickets are left for the ate Chairman, said Tuesday night performance.

> The annual Variety show opened with "An Athletic Dream" presented Epsilon has two subjects: first, to by O. B. Anderson's boys from the interest American college students in city Y. M. C. A. Mr. Anderson was affairs affecting them all as a group; substituted for by Henry Brainard as and, second, to arouse a greater in-Anderson is at St. Elizabeth's Hos. terest in journalism in general and pital suffering with a severe attack of influenza.

Hart Jen.;s, assisted by Ruth Nou gett Edwards impersonated a Scotch man. His act entitled "Just a We' Bit of Heather" won the sincere applause of the audience. Mr. Jenks is Orville Andrews in a black face kit aided by Verne Powell and Stan ley Copps amply protected his reputation carned in last year's show combinations to be used is posted on with his presentation of "Pure and Simple."

> Jimmy Schuyler, Clyde Davis and Dolly Dipple did a few clever numbers that soon had the audience on their feet. The Serenaders rounded out the act with music and "pep." The University Players formed one of the headliners of the bill with a comedy skit. Koby Sirinsky and Helen Mueller played violin selections of classical and popular pieces. "Sweet Heart Rose" formed the head line of the bill. This musical revue was written by Hart Jenks with House from President Warren G. music by Miss Edwards of Omaha. A Harding, a member of Pi Delta Ep large chorus of University girls ap silon, indicates his thorough endorsepeared in the act suporting a cast ment of the contest. As a former made up entirely of University stu newspaper and college man, he is in dents. All songs and dances used in whole-hearted sympathy with its obthe comedy were original, written by ject. Announcemnet of the contest Mr. Jenks. Flowers were given to the rules will be made within the coming week. patrons.

In announcing as the subject for Pi Delta Epsilon's 1923 Intercollegiate The DeMolay Variety Show, play- Editorial Contest "Physical Develop ment as a Requisite for the College

> "Last year hundreds of editorial were entered in our contest. Pi Delta editorial writing in particular. We confidently expect uo less than 3,000 editorials."

Medals to Be Awarded.

As in the past, Pl Delta Epsilon will award its coveted gold, silver, and bronze medals to prize winners. One gold medal, two silver medals and ten bronze medals will be given. Because of the nature of the subject chosen, extensive publicity will be city, will also address the gathering, given by the metropolitan press in general and particularly by sporting editors interested in intercollegiate and South America.

athletics. Philip C. Pack, Grand Editor of Pi Delta Epsilon, has urged co-operation by college faculties in making this subject compulsory with all students in English and rhetoric classes. "In 1921-22." he said, "many instructors in these subjects required entry by every student. Since the student is offered the additional incentive of participation in a contest of national scope. instructors may well expect very creditable work."

A letter received from the White

The freshmen team is Orville G Bosely, Pawnee City; Tyler Buck a comparison of the price of Nebras enau. St. Anthony, Idaho, and Hugh ka's yearbook with the annuals at B. Cox, Lincoln. The juniors are represented by Merle Loder, Waverly Alexander McKee, Omaha, and Floyd E. Leavitt, Bethany.

This debate concludes the first year out for $5.50. At Wisconsin, often of interclass debating since before cited as having the best annual 3: the war. Delta Sigma Rho. national this section of the county, the charge debating fraternity, has managed the is $7.50 and they publish 7,500 to Neseries this year and will be in general braska 2,200. Under conditions when charge of the contest Thursday eveafter a certain number, each book ning. The public is invited to this costs far less than the preceding, this debate. No admission will be charged. is significant.

Bishop Stuntz Speaks at Banquet Tonight funny to you, but the loss is made up by charging the individual for his in dividual photograph, and for the ple "The Ministry of Service," is the subject of an address to be given by tures of whatever organization he is Bishop Homer S. Stuntz at an alla member. Advertising makes up a Methodist banquet for University large part of this deficit."

University Students Have Special Service

Young People's Sunday was cele brated at All Souls' Unitarian Church by a special service conducted almost wholly by University students at the regular hour for morning worship at the church.

The devotional service was read by Alfred Francis, David Webster and Ruth Virtue, Brief addresses were made by Mariana Cummings, Guy Hyatt. Carol Aylesworth and Jess Randall.

Miss Cummings spoke on "Youth and the principles of the Unitarian church." Mr. Hyatt spoke on "What a liberal faith means to a university student." Mr. Randall discussed "Get ting acquainted with the Unitarian Church." Miss Aylesworth spoke on "The Need for Religious Education." During the service the minister, Mr. Macdonald, conducted a ceremony welversity students.

elders expect. Visit an Interesting Event.

"To everyone who is interested in such possibilities, the visit of these European students will be an interesting event. They tell us of the road we have to travel and the obstacles we must overcome.

"There is, however, something even more worthwhile to be gained from meeting these students. To explain what it is I find it necessary to speak of my own experience with them.

"When first I heard that students from abroad were coming to visit our coming into the church fellowship colleges I was interested in the proeleven young people, nine being uni- ject. I must confess, however, that (Continued on Page 2)

He has lived in India, the Philippines, Dr. Fordyce to Speak to Boys at Y. M. C. A. Dr. Cnarles Fordyce of the University will speak February 12 on "Truths a Boy Should Know," at the City Y. M. C. A. This is one of the discussion course, the first number of which was held Monday evening. Scoutmasters, four-square club leaders, boys of Sunday School classes and those who are interested in boys are invited by the committee to attend. REPORTERS' MEETING. A compulsory meeting of the reporters of The Daily Nebraskan will be held in the office Thursday evening at 7:15. Permanent assignments will be made and roll call will be taken.

students tonight at 7:30 in St. Paul's Methodist Church. Dr. W. E. J. Gratz. formerly of St. Paul's Church of this Bishop Stuntz is a world traveler.