HELEN BENNETT TO GIVE SERIES OF DISCUSSIONS

Representative from Chicago Collegiate Bureau of Occupation Coming Here Next Week.

HER FOURTH VISIT HERE

To Speak on "Business Opportunities for Girls"—Extra Members of W. S. G. A. Board to Be Chosen.

Miss Helen M. Bennett of the Chicago Collegiate Bureau of Occupation will conduct a series of informal discussions and conferences with University girls on Monday, April 9th, and Tuesday, April 10th next week. This is Miss Bennett's fourth visit to the University of Nebraska coming as formerly, under the auspices of W. S. G. A.

Miss Bennett will probably give four talks, but the definite times will be announced later. The rest of her time here will be spent in informal conferences. Miss Bennett is very well posted on all subjects concerning vocational education for women, according to dispatches from other schools she has visited. Her talk on "Business Opportunities for Girls" will include information concerning the opportunities in advertising, publicity, newspaper work, public health, nursing, salesmanship, and special work in industry and employment.

"Girls who were in school last year will remember Miss Bennett's delightful personality, and freshmen girls this year will be eager to meet her. She is a very entertaining speaker and will talk on such broad subjects that the appeal is universal. Miss Bennett has the remarkable power of seeing possibilities in everything; in fact, that is her business. There is no doubt that she is the best informed woman on vocational subjects in the United States," says one of the members of the W. S. G. A. board.

At the close of one of the meetings, a mass meeting of all girls is to be held for the purpose of nominating two extra members for the W. S. G. A. board from each of the present junior, sophomore, and freshman classes. Elections will be held in the near future and only members will be allowed to vote. At present, a partial membership list is posted on the Social Science bulletin board. By Wednesday noon an addition to it will be posted, and the list will be complete. Girls not members who wish to vote, will be given the opportunity to join at the general mass meeting.

SPRING MIXER WILL BE HELD SATURDAY

Omaha Club Sponsors Entertainment to Be Held at Armory—Committee Announced.

A "Spring Mixer" sponsored by the Omaha Club, will be given Saturday, April 7, in the Armory. The University Quartet and a solo dancer are to provide the entertainment. A University orchestra will play. The admission price is thirty-five cents. Members of the committee in charge are Ray Phelps, Judson Hughes, Harold Payne, Merrill Northwall, Isabel Evans, Arilla Johnson, Pierce Rogers, Crawford Follmer, Mildred Othman, Irma Wiltse, Frank Jacobs and Elmer Gurenig.

"Education consists in much more than mere book knowledge. We must besides know how to enjoy life and build up our acquaintanceship—and where is there a better place to do this than at our University mixers when everybody or nearly everybody is there?" asked a member of the Omaha Club.

Refreshments will be served during the evening. Tickets may be secured in advance from some member of the committee in charge and at the College Book Store.

The Omaha Club is made up of students whose homes are in Omaha, or who formerly lived there. Monthly dinners and entertainments are held by the club. Coach Dawson spoke on the athletic and scholastic side of student life at a dinner Thursday, March 29, at the Grand Hotel. "Do not be brave in one and yellow in the other," he said. "Be brave in both!"

Returned Missionary Speaks at Vespers

Miss Josephine Walker, returned missionary from China, spoke at the regular Y. W. C. A. Vespers service Tuesday afternoon. She is at home on furlough and admits that the prospect of returning to China has its thrills for her.

She told some interesting incidents of her childhood in China, one in particular where the fidelity of her Chinese coolies prevented her from being kidnapped. She told of a particularly interesting boat trip through interior China on the river Ming. The country is beautiful and mountainous and the two hundred and fifty mile trip which takes ten days is very delightful in pleasant weather, said Miss Walker. One of the features is the constant rhythmic song of the standing rowers of the little boats. Miss Walker's talk sounded the key-note that altogether, a missionary's life in China has its pleasure and thrills.

PROFESSOR FROM COPENHAGEN TO LECTURE HERE

Dr. Jens Warming Will Speak on "Taxation of Real Estate" Thursday in Social Science.

GUEST OF FACULTY CLUB

Chief of Statistical Department of Danish Government—Connected with the University.

Dr. Jones Warming, professor of Economics and Statistics at the University of Copenhagen, Denmark, will speak to students on "Taxation of Real Estate" Thursday, at eleven o'clock in the Social Science Auditorium. He will speak on "Co-operative Marketing" to the Faculty Dinner Club at 6:15 in the Grand Hotel.

As one of the most prominent universities in the middlewest, Nebraska was placed on Dr. Warming's itinerary, in his tour of the United States, during which he is making a study of economic conditions of the country and of their relation to agriculture.

Dr. Warming has been chief of the statistical department of the Danish government since 1904, in addition to his duties at the University of Copenhagen. He is a recognized expert on economic questions. His theoretical work in politics has been supplemented by experience. In 1917 he was elected to the city council of Copenhagen.

The American-Scandinavian Foundation is sponsoring Dr. Warming's visit. Other state universities in the middlewest where he will speak are Illinois, Chicago, Wisconsin, Michigan and Minnesota.

All men of the faculty and administrative forces of the University are members of the Faculty Dinner Club, the chairman of the committee in charge of the dinner announced, and the committee will be assisted greatly if the men who are coming will notify some member before Thursday noon.

Theta Sigma Phi to Edit Thursday Issue of Daily Nebraskan

The Thursday edition of the Daily Nebraskan will be edited by the members of Theta Sigma Phi, honorary and professional fraternity for women in journalism. All reporting, copy-reading, and choice as to position in the paper will be done by the members of the sorority.

Each year the girls have charge of one issue of the publication. Members of the society are already actively engaged in doing the work of the publications on the campus, and it is in an endeavor to show their proficiency and their independence that they take over the editorial department of the newspaper.

An Appeal to Nebraska Spirit

To every Nebraska student who has the best interests of this University at heart, this letter is addressed.

Starting at eight o'clock this morning you are urgently requested to boost the movement to keep off the grass on the city campus. This means that you yourself are asked to not "cut corners" but to stay on the sidewalks and also you are asked to use your influence to prevent others from violating the spirit or letter of the movement.

With the removal of the iron fence, there is greater difficulty experienced in keeping the campus lawn as beautiful as it should be. Other campuses of great Universities are beautiful because the students want beautiful campuses. They want it badly enough to refrain from walking on the grass.

Nebraska has this same spirit, but it is latent. It must be brought to the top. There must be no slackers. To make the movement successful, every student must cooperate.

The Vikings are sponsoring the campaign to create such a spirit of school pride that no student will aid purposely or thoughtfully in destroying the beauty of the campus. Their plan deserves 100 per cent backing. Drastic measures should be instituted if a few students lag behind the majority.

This week should be termed "Keep Off the Grass" week if it will bring the proposition more squarely before the students.—The Editor.

How the astronomer, with telescope and spectroscopy, finds the nature of the stars, will be explained by Dr. Swezey. Material for Student Life Section Wanted

What do you know about your neighbor? What has happened this year that your sense of curiosity tells you would be of interest to the campus at large? What do you have up your sleeve that no one else knows about?

The Student Life section of "Your Cornhusker" is making a personal appeal for information this week. Snapshots, bright, breezy bits of gossip, amusing incidents and truthful episodes are food for the "brilliant" department of the annual publication. "Five or six editors can't collect the needed material and make the scope of the section extend to all the students," said the editor of the satire section, "so we are making an appeal for contributions."

Boxes for the collection of general information for this section are being placed at the entrance of the Library and in the hall of the Social Science building. Snapshots are pictures will be especially helpful to the staff in making up this section.

DR. MOTT SPEAKS TO FIVE HUNDRED GUESTS MONDAY

Executive Head of International Committee of Y. M. C. A. Leaves City at Close of Convention.

TO HOLD EFFICIENCY WEEK

Chairman of State Committee Presents Report of Work of Past Year in the Association.

Dr. John R. Mott, executive head of the international committee of the Y. M. C. A., left the city last night after having charge of the thirty-seventh state convention of the Y. M. C. A. which closed at five o'clock. Officers, committeemen and delegates to the national constitutional convention were elected by the convention. Sessions were held at the association building and at the St. Paul church Monday and Tuesday. The convention closed with a dinner at which plans were made for efficiency week which will be held throughout the state the last week in April.

Dr. Mott spoke to five hundred guests at a dinner at the Lincoln hotel Monday night. He was introduced by General Pershing.

"I have never been so alarmed about the state of the world as now. There is suspicion, irritation and fundamental want of unity. Economically, we are in an impossible position, and the curfew will ring later for innocent generations to come who will have to pay off our debts, the size of which no one can comprehend. Physical suffering is unparalleled. Political distempers are rampant. Yet of all this, it is the moral perils of which I am the most afraid."

"The Y. M. C. A. has been thrust into this situation with a unique purpose. Any nation would have taken years to form an organization which could cope with the problem of recasting the world. The Y. M. C. A. has been forming international foundations for the last thirty-three years. We have learned how to get the men and to train them, and how to get the money."

"We have the right principles, because they are the principles of Jesus Christ. We've got the spirit of hope and faith in this hour of pessimism. It is for us to get at the hearts of nations, their schools, confront men and boys with the living Christ. We must concentrate our force where it will do the most good."

J. Dean Ringer, chairman of the state committee, presented the report of the association covering the work of the past year. A printed copy was today placed in the hands of every delegate. C. O. Bruce, chairman of the budget reviewing committee, reported concerning the financial side of the Y. M. C. A. "What the Hi Y Means to Our Town" was the subject of student meetings held this afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. building.

There are in Nebraska eleven city Y. M. C. A.'s, two railroad associations, five county associations, seventeen college Y's, forty-four Hi-Y clubs and a state camp, representing an investment of $30,000, owned and operated by the state committee and located near Columbus.

To sum up, the association year book shows that during the past year $564,000 was expended for Y. M. C. A. purposes in Nebraska, of which $125,900 was received in contributions; property and buildings are held to the value of $1,450,000; endowment funds total $30,900. The Nebraska associations have 12,181 members of which 8,366 are men and 3,815 are boys; there are fifty-three employed secretaries; there have been 2,800 enrolled in Bible classes with a total attendance at religious meetings of 136,000; 951 social and entertainments were given; in physical training classes, 3,740 were enrolled; educational classes enrolled 1,340 in day and night schools; 2,182 boys attended camps—2,403 were taught to swim; 455,000 meals were served in Y. M. C. A. restaurants and cafeterias; situations were secured for 1,557.
