GIVE OUT PROGRAM FOR CORNHUSKER ROUND-UP IN JUNE

University Alumni Association Announces Plans for Fun-fest and Commencement Exercises.

IVY DAY WILL BE MAY 31

Laying of the Cornerstone of the Memorial Stadium to Be Feature of Big Celebration.

(University Publicity Office).

The program for the second annual Cornhusker Round-Up and commencement exercises covering a period of five days—from Thursday, May 31, to Monday, June 4—has been announced by the Alumni Association of the University of Nebraska. The first three days constitute the alumni three-day fun-fest. Thursday will be Ivy Day, when the traditional exercises will be observed on the city campus. The May Dance and the crowning of the May Queen will take place in the morning, while the tapping of the innocents and the masking of the Mortarboards will be held in the afternoon. A University sing has been scheduled for the evening.

The annual competitive military drill of the R. O. T. C. starts the Friday morning program. An alumni council meeting for accredited alumni club and class delegates will be held in the Law building at 10 o'clock. College reunions follow the meeting.

Perhaps the greatest event of the round-up will be the laying of the Memorial Stadium cornerstone at 3:30 Friday afternoon. The detailed program for these exercises has not been announced. Fraternities and sororities will hold their annual reunion banquets Friday evening.

Saturday morning will include the class of 1903 reunion, alumnae meeting at Ellen Smith Hall at 9:30, class reunions on "The Midway" at 10 o'clock, the alumni parade through the streets of Lincoln, and the luncheon at Memorial Hall at 12:15. The afternoon program is as follows: Annual alumni business meeting and alumni address, class stunts and award of Alumni Day class trophy and the Kansas-Nebraska annual commencement baseball game at 3:30 on the parade grounds. A dance will be held at the Armory Saturday evening.

Rev. Herbert Gray of Scotland will deliver the baccalaureate sermon Sunday morning, and Mrs. Carrie B. Raymond, directing the University Chorus, will present a sacred concert.

Rev. Timothy Stone of Chicago will deliver the commencement address Monday morning at St. Paul M. E. church.

CIVIL SERVICE TESTS TO BE HELD IN JUNE

Several Laboratory Positions Open to Students with Sixty Credit Hours.

Laborators, laboratory assistants, junior engineers, junior physicists, and junior technologists are needed by the Civil Service Commission. Assembled examinations will be held for the first-named position on June 20-21. Examinations for the other positions will be held on June 6-7.

The salaries to be paid the successful applicants vary according to ability. Either men or women students who are in their senior year may tryout for the three last-named positions. The laboratory assistant must have ninety credit hours; anyone applying for the laboratorian rating must have at least sixty credit hours.

The applicant must have had considerable mathematics and general physics in order to pass the examinations. Education, training, and experience count from twenty-five to forty per cent.

"The bureau of Standards offers a wide field of work in physics, chemistry, engineering, and industrial technology," states a circular sent out by the commission, and offers valuable experience to those preparing for these professions. The chances for advancement are good. Experience in the Bureau is considered admirable training for scientific work."

Author of "The Yellow Lantern" Cyril Coombs, Has Splendid Record

An actor, a playwright and a dramatic coach of recognized ability—and a student in the University of Nebraska. Such is the record of Cyril L. Coombs, author and director of the 1923 Kosmet Klub play, "The Yellow Lantern."

CYRIL L. COOMBS.

Author and director of the 1923 Kosmet Klub play, "The Yellow Lantern" which will be shown at the Orpheum in Lincoln on May 4 and at the Brandeis in Omaha on May 7.

Coombs, who is well known around Lincoln for his distinct successes with the University Players, is devoting his entire time to the production of the Kosmet musical extravaganza. All the musical hits of the play, including "Underneath the Chinese Moon," "Yellow Lantern Night," "Aim Missin' Mississippi," and "The Maker of Dreams," were written by Coombs.

The cast and choruses of U. of N. men and co-eds are practicing under his direction each night. His success as a coach has been demonstrated to Lincoln audiences in the production of "The Bells," "Within the Law," and "The Meanest Man in the World."

During the seasons of 1916 and 1917, Coombs played with the Ida Root-Gordon players touring Wisconsin, Minnesota and North Dakota. Here he played in several well-known shows including, "Bought and Paid For," "Easiest Way," and "It Pays to Advertise."

"Sig," as the Kosmet coach is known to University students, is a senior in the Law College. He is a member of Pi Kappa Phi and of Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity. He has recently severed his connections with the University Players in order to devote full time to the coaching of "The Yellow Lantern." Coombs will be initiated into the Kosmet Klub this week.

Not content with success as actor and director, Coombs entered into action "behind scenes" and served for three years as stage manager for the University Players. His intimate (Continued on Page Four).

MANY WILL ATTEND FORT SNELLING CAMP

160 Members of University R. O. T. C. Regiment to Take Course in July.

Over 160 members of the University R. O. T. C. unit are expected to attend the summer training camp at Fort Snelling, Minn., June 14 to July 26, according to Major Sidney Erickson, commandant. Of these, fifty will be advanced-course students who will be paid 70 cents a day while in camp. All the men who go are paid 5 cents a mile railroad fare, there and back. Their subsistence, laundry and uniforms are furnished free. Attendance at one summer camp is required of all advanced-course students.

A dinner was held at the Grand Hotel Thursday for the purpose of organizing the men who have signed to attend the camp this year. Chauncey Nelson was elected president and Howard Hunter vice president of the camp organization. Major Sidney Erickson, acting commandant, and Captain Hagan spoke to the students explaining the benefits and purpose of the camp.

In 1920—the first year of the R. O. T. C. camp—five Nebraska men attended; thirty-five went in 1921, and fifty-four were present last year. Nebraska's quota at present for this year is 110 but it is expected that this will be increased. The Nebraska men won second place—a silver cup—in general efficiency at last year's camp. A dinner was held at the Grand Hotel Thursday for the purpose of organizing the men who have signed to attend the camp this year. It is planned that one night at camp will be Nebraska Night when alumni of the Twin Cities will be invited to camp, where the Cornhuskers will put on a show. The Minneapolis and St. Paul alumni have promised to hold a smoker or dinner for the Nebraska men some evening. A great deal of enjoyment is secured by the men in camp from the athletic contests, the trips to the cities and into the country, the invitations to homes in the cities, and from the work.

Wyer Attends Annual Library Convention

(University Publicity Office). Librarian Malcolm G. Wyer left Saturday for the American Library Association annual convention at Hot Springs, Arkansas, April 23 to 28. Mr. Wyer is second vice president, and a member of the executive board and a member of the association. He will report for a special committee, of which he is a member, that has been studying library training. Mr. Wyer is a member of the committee on constitutional revision, and also of the council which is composed of fifty members of the association.

PLANS FOR SUMMER SESSION ANNOUNCED

Courses in All Departments of University Work Will Be Offered.

The summer session of the University of Nebraska will run from June 1 to August 17, according to the official bulletin of the University Extension Division issued this week. The first term will be from June 1 to July 11. The second term will be from July 10 to August 17. The instruction in nearly all the courses is planned so that work begun in the first term can be continued in the second. No additional fees are required for the second term. All courses are carried at the City Campus with the exception of those in Agriculture and Home Economics. Because of superior facilities, the laboratory work in those courses will be given at the Agricultural Campus.

For many years the summer session offered but six weeks of work. This was increased to eight weeks. In response to a demand for an opportunity to use more of the summer in student work, the summer session was lengthened to two terms of six weeks each. The purpose of the summer session, according to the bulletin of the extension division, is "to offer opportunities to the teachers of (Continued on Page Four).

CONVENTION OF FRATERNITY TO BE HELD HERE

Alpha Gamma Rho Will Convene in Lincoln for Three Days—Grand President Will Attend.

100 DELEGATES EXPECTED

Was Founded at Ohio State in 1904—Has Twenty Chapters at Leading Agricultural Schools.

The annual convention of Alpha Gamma Rho will be held in Lincoln, April 26, 27 and 28. Business sessions and social events will occupy the time of the delegates. Glenn H. Campbell, grand president of the fraternity will attend the convention. This is the first national convention of a social fraternity ever held on the Nebraska campus.

Alpha Gamma Rho is a national social fraternity whose membership is restricted to students in agricultural colleges. The fraternity was founded at Ohio State University in the fall of 1904 and at present has twenty chapters in the leading agricultural colleges of the country. The total membership of the fraternity now numbers over three thousand men. The organ of the fraternity is the Sickle and Sheaf published quarterly. In 1919 Alpha Gamma Rho was admitted to membership in the national Greek Inter-Fraternity Conference.

Members of the Executive Council who will attend the convention are: Grand President Glenn H. Campbell, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Grand Vice President H. E. Allanson, Washington, D. C.; Grand Secretary Prof. Sleeter Bull, Urbana, Ill.; Grand Treasurer Prof. H. F. Wilson, Madison, Wis.; Editor Dudley Allenman, Augusta, Me., and Past Grand President T. D. Harman, Jr., Pittsburgh, Pa. Delegates will attend from the chapters which are located at the following colleges and universities: University of Illinois, Ohio State College, Pennsylvania State College, Purdue University, North Dakota Agricultural College, Cornell University, Iowa State College, University of Missouri, University of Wisconsin, University of Minnesota, Massachusetts Agricultural College, North Carolina College of A. & E., Alabama Polytechnic Institute, University of Kentucky, Oklahoma A. & M. College, State Agricultural College of Colorado, State College of Washington, Michigan Agricultural College and Connecticut Agricultural College.

There are also alumni chapters in eight states, Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, New York, Nebraska, Pennsylvania and South Dakota. Each active chapter may send two student and one alumni delegates, and each alumni chapter may send one delegate in the convention. At least one hundred men are expected to come to Lincoln for this event.

The business sessions of the convention will be held each day in the Lincoln Hotel. Thursday night a smoker will be held at the chapter house for the guests. Friday evening the fifteenth Annual Convention Banquet will be held in the main dining room of the Lincoln Hotel. An auto trip is planned for Saturday afternoon to acquaint the visitors with Lincoln and vicinity. The closing event will be the convention dance in the ballroom of the Lincoln Hotel.

Kappa Chapter of Alpha Gamma Rho was established at the University of Nebraska on April 11, 1917 with fifteen charter members. The membership of the chapter now numbers over one hundred. The past presidents of this chapter are, F. B. Campbell, practicing law at Osceola, Neb.; J. D. McKelvey, manager of Marsh's Dairy Farm, Waterloo, Ia.; C. W. Jones, assistant state club leader, University of Nebraska; H. N. Lawritson, dairy extension specialist, Lincoln; A. D. Zollars, stock salesman, San Bernardino, Calif.; W. A. Metzgar, New England Mutual Life Ins. Co., Lincoln; L. W. Ingham, professor of dairy husbandry, College Park, Maryland; R. E. Fortna, livestock advertising department of the Nebraska Farmer, Lincoln; O. M. Krueger, Omaha Trust Co., Omaha; G. E. Scheidt, student, and F. K. Warren is now president of the local chapter.

University Pastor to Give Talk at Vespers

The Rev. Harry Huntington, Methodist student pastor of the University, will speak at the regular Vesper service of the University Y. W. C. A. at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. His subject will be "The Christian Attitude Toward War." Amy Martin will lead the meeting, and De Maris Stout will sing a solo.

SIGMA DELTA CHI ELECTS NEW MEN

Professional Journalistic Fraternity to Have Alumni Banquet Thursday Night.

Thirteen men were elected to Sigma Delta Chi, men's professional journalistic fraternity, at a meeting held Thursday evening at the Delta Upsilon house.

The new men are: Howard Buffett, Omaha. Emmett Mann, Laurel. Knox Burnett, Lincoln. Wilbur Peterson, Lincoln. Philip Lewis, Sutton. James Marshall, Fremont. Marion Stanley, Aurora. Raymond Eller, Clay Center. Donald Reynolds, North Platte. Clifford M. Hicks, Lincoln. Ronald Button, Lincoln. Charles Massey, Lincoln. Charles F. Sperry, Omaha.

All of the newly elected men are active in some branch of journalism in the University.

Plans have been completed for one of the biggest banquets ever held in the history of the fraternity. Cards have been sent to all of the alumni, who are scattered all over the world. Two of the former members are in London, three in South America, two in Hawaii and one in China. There are a large number in Lincoln and the other towns near here who are expected to attend the banquet.

The initiation ceremony will be held at 5 o'clock for the newly elected members and the banquet will follow at 6:30. Both will be held at the Grand Hotel.

TICKETS WILL GO ON SALE MONDAY NOON AT ORPHEUM

Reserved Seats for Kosmet Klub Play "The Yellow Lantern" Can Be Obtained Tomorrow.

ALL BOXES ARE ENGAGED

Big Production Will Be Presented at Brandeis Theater in Omaha Monday May 7.

Exactly at noon Monday the Orpheum box office will begin to sell reserved seats to the Kosmet Klub play, "The Yellow Lantern," to be presented at the Orpheum Friday night, May 4. "First come, first served" is the motto of the Klub in handling the ticket sale and there will be no special reservation for the faculty or the students. The box office will sell reserved seats to those in the line at noon, according to the announcement. Box seats will not be for sale as they have already been engaged.

The Orpheum will be able to accommodate only twelve hundred people at the Friday night performance. No further engagement of the Orpheum has been made by the Klub and it is probable that the May 4th performance will be the only appearance of the show in Lincoln. "The Yellow Lantern" will be presented at the Brandeis Theatre in Omaha on Monday night the 7th of May.

Four song hits and several other spicy musical numbers are the features of "The Yellow Lantern." More than forty co-eds take chorus parts in the play. An Oriental atmosphere pervades all the scenes. The plot deals with the problems of the United States government in China and contains mirthful episodes built around the experiences of the main comedy lead, Jasper Calander Jones, the black boy from Mississippi who has been left in the land of yellow men through strange circumstances.

The last scene of "The Yellow Lantern" will be a novel feature in the scenic effects. Special drops are being constructed under the supervision of the director, who is experienced in stage settings, to produce a series of shifting scenes for the events toward the end of the show which will occur in rapid fire succession. An Omaha artist has been engaged to paint the drops to achieve the effect desired.

Lewellen Hawley, the leading man of the play, has been hard at work for the past few weeks perfecting his role. In the part of Robert Kincaid, Hawley carries a heavy part. Playing with him as Osburne, is Dwight Merriam in the role of an American consul.

Dorothy Sprague, De Maris Stout, and Phyllis Easterday are playing the leading co-ed parts.

Complete arrangement for producing the show in Omaha has been put in the hands of a special committee of the Klub to act in cooperation with an alumni Kosmet Klub committee in Omaha. A special society event will probably follow the show in Omaha. Alumni and others interested in the University of Nebraska assure the success of the play in Omaha, according to the members of the Klub.

The cast will probably go to Omaha in a special section of the afternoon train and return after the show.

PRE-MEDIC SOCIETY INITIATES FOURTEEN

Theta Nu, Honorary Society for Pre-Medics Holds Initiation.

Theta Nu, honorary society for pre-medic students, held an initiation at the Phi Gamma Delta house, Thursday night. The men initiated were:

Earl Frazier, Arthur Miller, R. B. Sanderson, Donald Burdick, Leonard Mangold, Charles Mutzman, Floyd Smith, S. Cook, Alfred Greiss, C. H. Johnson, E. D. Creelius, Charles Green, J. W. Graham, and David Unsel.
