Not a day passes but what the noise from motors of automobiles parked on twelfth street north of R street interrupts lectures and recitation in all the rooms on the west side of Social Science Hall.

The frequency of this disturbance seems to be increasing. Students and faculty members alike are looking for some way in which the nuisance may be abolished. Shall there be a polite announcement that all people with noisy motors in their cars are asked to park elsewhere than around University buildings? Shall there be the ruling the no cars may be parked during the daytime on Twelfth street or other streets close to classrooms?

For the present, the temporary solution seems to be to ask owners of noisy motors to park far away from Social Science building. The saving on nerves of the professors should be sufficient inducement to make these owners change their habit.

The interruptions which have been so noticeable since spring vacation have given rise to a recurrence of discussion of the plan to close Twelfth street north of R street to the north limit of the campus near Bessey Hall. This plan is to tear up the pavement and transform that space into lawn. The city council has just passed an ordinance closing some streets a little farther north on the stadium grounds. Some would like to have a resolution passed closing a portion of Twelfth street.

No doubt, the beauty of the campus would be increased and the noise from automobile motors on Twelfth street would be a thing of the past. Are the advantages sufficient to warrant the change? Student opinion on this matter will be welcomed.

A parade to start out the 1923 home baseball season is being planned. Husker baseball fans have not had an opportunity to see the team produced by our new diamond coach officially in action. Many of them would be enthusiastic over the plan of the athletic department to celebrate the official start of the season. Whether or not the parade is scheduled, every booster for Nebraskans athletics is urged to be present for the "opener" on Friday afternoon.

In connection with the opening of the baseball season, let us congratulate ourselves that the adoption of the student athletic ticket plan makes it unnecessary to have a "big drive" to sell baseball tickets. We congratulate ourselves a second time when the first track meet is held here next week.

Campus Comment

As a reply to the talk delivered by Rev. W. H. Riley at Vespers on Tuesday of last week, entitled "The Ku Klux Klan is Fundamentally Un-Christian and Un-American" the following letter has been received by the Nebraskan. It is signed by a Lincoln resident whose name is withheld on request and printed in order that both sides of this controversy may be treated alike through these columns:

To the Editor, The Daily Nebraskan, Lincoln, Nebr.,
 Dear Sir:

"The American public has judged the Ku Klux Klan almost completely upon the daily newspaper reports and with all the charges they have carried in such screaming headlines, there has not yet been a single conviction. The Louisiana case for example, was a malicious lie and the Grand Jury finding no evidence proved that. The girl in Chicago who had the crosses cut on her body confessed later that she did it herself at the request of a Priest. But the press doesn't print the finish, it only prints the charge.

"The Ku Klux Klan takes no stand whatever on other peoples' religion, but says its initiates must believe in the tenets of the Christian Religion and acknowledge Jesus Christ as the Son of God and our risen Lord. That, the Jew will not do, therefore, he proscribes himself. If he renounces his Jewism and accepts Jesus as we do, he is eligible for membership in the Klan.

"The Ku Klux Klan denies emphatically, that it endeavors or even wants to 'smash' the negro. We want him to have his churches, schools, and all that goes with them to make him happy. We do not deny and we do acknowledge that, we claim this to be a white man's government and that the white race must and shall be the ruling race. All laws must be made and executed by the white man but with fairness to the negro.

"We say we stand for Christianity, protection of the weak and the innocent, for the right for Americanism; our enemies say we stand for everything else. Now if the good people want to be fair with themselves, they should not pass judgment until they hear both sides. Just ask yourself 'What do I really know about the Klan?'

"The Ku Klux Klan touches nobody, writes no threatening letters, and takes no law whatever in their own hands. And every Klansman has taken a solemn oath to abide by the law and to swear an unqualified allegiance to the Government of the United States, above any other and every kind of government in the whole world, temporal or ecclesiastical.

"Our principles and what we stand for are as open as the Holy Bible. The secrecy is in our membership only and we have good reasons for that and the two million already in are also perfectly satisfied.

"A Klansman's criterion of character is the Living Christ.

"All 100 per cent Americans are not Klansmen but all Klansmen are 100 per cent law abiding Americans. The Ku Klux Klan is fundamentally Christian and 100 per cent American."
