

NO FACULTY CHANGES IN PHARMACY COLLEGE

Dean Lyman and Professor Burt Attend A. P. A. Meeting at Ashville, N. C.

Dean R. A. Lyman and Professor J. B. Burt of the College of Pharmacy attended the meeting of the American Pharmaceutical association at Ashville, N. C., during the first week of September. Prior to the Ashville meeting, Professor Burt was at the University of Wisconsin engaged in research work. Dean Lyman announced upon his return that the College of Pharmacy would continue on the plan of last year with no changes in organization of faculty.

H. R. Lewton, instructor in the College of Pharmacy, is doing research work at the University of Chicago.

Joe G. Noh, graduate in pharmacy last year, is now an instructor in the New Jersey College of Pharmacy at Newark. F. Scott Bukey, also of last year's class, is an instructor in the College of Pharmacy at Western Western Reserve University at Cleveland, Ohio.

Charles L. Wible, who finished last year, having been undergraduate assistant to Dean Lyman for two years, has been awarded a research scholarship in pharmacy which sends him to Rutgers.

L. M. Mares, '23, is attending the University College of Medicine at Omaha.

Nebraska expects every freshman to be at the rally today.

Nora Livingston, who graduated last June, is now teaching in the English department at Plattsmouth.

Frank Bieser, '23, is located at Denver, Colo.

John Riddell, '20, is practicing law at York.

In less than two weeks, the "Wonder Team" of the middle west will play the cream of the "Big Ten." This is a classic. Watch it.

Local News: While playing at R. I. ball park the other day Babe Ruth was hit by a ball bat and has been off his base since then.
