TRANSFER FRESHMAN 10 O'CLOCK CLASSES TO ARMORY FOR RALLY

Dr. Condra and Coach Schulte Are Principal Speakers; Innocents, Black Masque, Vikings, and Silver Serpents in Charge of Gathering to Give Frosh True Idea of Nebraska Spirit.

EXPECT OVER 1,500 AT STADIUM-PLEDGE MEETING

All freshman classes from 10 to 11 o'clock will be transferred to the Armory this morning for a stadium-pledge rally. At least 1500 freshmen are expected to show their Cornhusker spirit by turning out for the meeting.

Dr. Condra and Coach Schulte, the speakers, are known for their spirit and ability to imbue other with it. The organizations in charge of the rally, Black Masque, Innocents, Vikings, and Silver Serpents, have planned a rally that will not only raise funds for the stadium but also will give freshmen a true idea of Nebraska's spirit.

Many Freshmen Subscribe. The freshman honorary organizations, the Green Goblins and Mystic Fish, published their approval of the drive in Sunday's paper and pledged themselves 100 per cent.

A monster thermometer has been erected on the Armory to indicate the progress of the drive. As the pledges are made the mercury will be painted higher and higher until the quota is subscribed. The campaign committees visited fraternity and sorority houses and the dormitories last night so that many freshmen have already pledged their units.

Only One-fifth Due Now. The pledges are paid off over a period of two years, one-fifth of the amount due now. An additional fifth of the pledge becomes due every six months after the first payment is made.

Other colleges and universities over the country have built stadiums on a similar plan. Illinois with an enrollment of 9,208, is building a stadium by student and alumni subscription, worth $1,800,000; Ames, with an enrollment of 4,859, built a million dollar stadium; Kansas, enrollment of 4,011, subscribed a million dollars; Minnesota, enrollment of 8,120, raised two million dollars; Iowa, enrollment of 4,923, built a million dollar stadium by subscription.

Calls Meeting of Varsity Swimming Crew Candidates

Swimming practice begins officially next week. Coach Frank Adkins has issued a call for a meeting in the Armory Thursday at 5 o'clock of all men who can swim and want to try out for the varsity. The team needs fancy divers, plungers for distance, and long distance men, especially.

Prospects for a good swimming team are bright. Three veterans from last year, Jack Graebing, Frank Hutton, and Dan Reed, are out for the team this year, and there are some other promising men who will make their debut on the varsity this season.

Negotiations are under way now for meets with Ames, Kansas Aggies, and probably the Omaha Athletic Club. Several invitations to meets have already been received by the athletic office.

Nebraska expects every student to do his duty.

Knut Rockne can't know it all.

Chancellor Leaves Today for East

Chancellor Avery leaves this afternoon for Charlottesville, Va., to attend the meeting of the association of American Universities. On November 10 he will go to Chicago to attend a meeting of the National Association of State Universities, which is in session from November 12 to 13. While in Chicago he will also attend the Association of Land Grant Colleges from November 13 to 15. On his way home the Chancellor will stop at Columbia, Mo., to attend the inauguration of Stratton D. Brooks as president of the University of Missouri.

Nebraska fears Nebraska spirit.

Nebraska's spirit is never broken.

NEBRASKA-NOTRE DAME RECORD:
Notre Dame—4 victories.
Nebraska—3 victories.
Let's even up the score this year.

TICKETS NOW ON SALE FOR ANNUAL DAD'S DAY LUNCHEON

Innocents and Vikings Are in Charge; Expect More Than Came Last Year.

FATHERS TO BE HONOR
GUESTS AT BANQUET

Tickets for Dad's day luncheon in the Armory, Saturday, November 10, may be secured now at the student activities office or from any Viking, Nebraska dads will be the honor guests at the noonday banquet and at the Notre Dame game in the afternoon.

Plans to receive more dads than were present last year are being made by the Innocents and Vikings, senior and junior men's honoraries, in charge of arrangements for the second annual Dad's day.

The first "get-together" will be the banquet at the Armory at 11:30. Co-eds will not be able to attend the banquet, but it is expected that the fathers of the girls will be present.

Dr. George P. Shidler of York is to be the principal speaker at the banquet. Dr. Shidler is a Nebraska alumnus and was alumni day speaker at the class reunions last year. Captain Verna Lewellen will also speak.

Music will be furnished by the "Nebraskans" and the "Serenaders," student orchestras, and the varsity quartet. There will be boxing matches and several other forms of entertainment. The football team will attend the banquet in a body.

Reserve Seats for Game. After the banquet the fathers and sons will sit in a special section at the stadium for the Notre Dame game. Tickets for the Dad's day section in the stadium may be secured at the student activities office in the Armory Saturday morning. A block of tickets is being held out so that every dad and son will be assured of a seat in the honor section for the game.

Fraternities are requested to report the number of dads they are expecting for the day to Phil Lewis. Lewis may be called at B1482. Non-fraternity men may report to Lewis or to Bennett S. Martin at the Y. M. C. A. room in the Temple. It is necessary that this report be received by Wednesday night so that the committees may know how many dads to make arrangements for.

"Although the day belongs to Dad, Nebraska's mothers are welcome to come to Lincoln and share the day. The mothers will not be able to attend the banquet but they will be accorded a royal welcome and are urged to be at the stadium to see the Cornhuskers roll into action against Notre Dame," say members of the committees.

Fight for the Scarlet and Cream.
Nebraska's spirit is never broken.

Former Student Is National Officer of Student Volunteers

Mary Baker, '21, national student volunteer traveling secretary, is here to attend the student volunteer meeting for election of delegates to the convention to be held in Minneapolis in January. Miss Baker was a Paladian and medical student and is preparing to become a medical missionary to China.

Nebraska's spirit is never broken.

Torchlight Parade and Rally Planned for Friday Night

Cornhusker spirit will boil over at a football rally and torchlight parade to be held Friday evening. The traditional torchlight parade will be staged after the rally, when the students will march to greet the visiting Irish players. Notre Dame representatives will probably make speeches, as in previous years. Two or three Nebraskans will speak at the rally, which will be short.

GLEE-VARSITY PLAN MIXER FOR SATURDAY

Dance in Armory Is First Opportunity of Year to Hear Men's Club.

The Glee club- varsity quartet mixer Saturday evening in the Armory will offer the students first opportunity to hear the club and quartet this year. Between dances, the club, composed of forty men, will present popular songs, and the quartet will sing a few selections.

Good music, say those in charge, has been provided for the evening's dancing.

The Glee club is under the direction of Professor Parvin Witte who at one time sang in the Metropolitan Opera company at Chicago. He is giving his best efforts to the perfecting of the club's singing organization, according to members.

BIZAD GRIDSTERS TO MEET AGGIES FRIDAY

Ernest Raun Heads Commercial's Squad in Feature of Bizad Day.

Gridsters of the College of Business Administration will be pitted against the husky team of the College of Agriculture Friday afternoon. The game will be one of the many features of Bizad day. Ernest Raun is in charge of the Bizad team.

One of the teams for the Bizads will be Brown, Ashworth, and Bass from the Lincoln high team of last year. Dana, all state man from Midland, Warner, and Raun will play in the backfield.

Gus Edwards and Bob Russell are coaching the Ag team and they have developed a grid machine which held Cotner College to a 0-0 tie game recently. The Ag team won from the Reformatory team by a score of 14-13. They have been out regularly since the first day of school and are expected to show real form in the game Friday. Their line is heavy and the backs are fast and shifty.

If Ernest Raun plays with the Bizads he will meet his brother Al on the Aggie squad.

Sorority Furnishes Musical Program

The Sigma Alpha Iota sorority of the University School of Music furnished the music for the first Vesper services of the year at the Y. W. C. A. Sunday afternoon. The musical numbers were given by Ruth Lindsey, Myrtha Lynn, Verna Trine, Mrs. E. C. Boehmer, Miriam Righter, and Bernice Thompson.

Sing, Nebraska, Sing!

As one professor forcefully remarked the other day at the conclusion of a pre-class singing fiasco, "That sounds more like a dirge than a spirited song!"

This professor was correct.

Too often "The Cornhusker" is sung these days with a half-hearted listlessness which serves poorly to illustrate the boisterous enthusiasm of Nebraska men and women. For a quarter-century "The Cornhusker" has been Nebraska's defiance in defeat and her jubilant paean of victory. It is a grand old song.

When you sing it remember the traditions and the record of your University, pick up the tempo, and let the words roll forth in a resonant avalanche of sound. It is better not to sing at all than reduce "The Cornhusker" to a plaintive weakling wail. When you come to those lines:

"Now it rolls along in the good old song

put into them all the vigor, all the spirit, and all the power at your command. Make the corridors and the halls re-echo with the thundering volume of those thrilling words.

Cheering depends upon numbers for effectiveness, but a handful of persons can make "The Cornhusker" ring out defiance to our week-end guests. SING IT!

R.O.T.C. ISSUES FIRST "KORNHUSKER KADET"

"Beat Notre Dame" Is Watchword of Nebraska Military Sheet.

"The Kornhusker Kadet," a four-page mimeographed publication of the Nebraska unit of the R. O. T. C., has made its first appearance on the campus. The publication is issued for all cadets and officers and is full of military news. The Kadet makes its initial appearance on the eve of the Notre Dame battle and its watchword is "Beat Notre Dame."

The publication is best characterized by an editorial comment appearing in this first issue. "This sheet will always be informal. From time to time the Kadet should expand and change its content, but always with one purpose in view—it will be for Nebraska first, last and all the time."

A publication of the military department has been long needed, cadet officers say, but not until this year was the proposition seriously considered.

Robert F. Craig, cadet colonel, was in charge of the first publication. "A staff of juniors will soon be appointed to handle the writing of the pep sheet," said Colonel Craig yesterday. The Kadet will be a semi-monthly publication.

An increasing spirit of unity in the cadet regiment as the closest organization of Nebraska undergraduates was pointed out in the Kadet.

"Swagger sticks have been accepted as a part of the equipment of the seniors in the department," the sheet notes.

TEAM CAPTAINS TO MAKE FINAL REPORTS TODAY

Association Officials Expect Quota of $1975 to Be Subscribed by Noon.

RAISE $1268 UP
TO FRIDAY NOON

Final reports of team captains will be made at the luncheon for Y. M. C. A. financial campaign workers at the Grand hotel this noon. Subscription books and money will be turned in at the business meeting following the lunch.

At the Friday noon luncheon the total amount reported for the drive was $1,268. The quota set for the campaign was $1,975, including a $500 note which has been carried over from last year. The total operating budget for the year was set at $1,475, and the officials in charge of the drive expect that Tuesday's report will raise the total to this amount.

"We are very well pleased with the work which has been done by the campaign teams and with the results of the campaign. Approximately 600 men have given their money to support the Y. M. C. A. and its activities on the University campus. We feel that with the money that has been raised in this campaign that the Y. M. C. A. will be able to be of even greater service to the students (Continued on Page 4)

BIZADS TO HOLD ANNUAL COLLEGE HOLIDAY FRIDAY

Committee Sells Ribbons for Admission to All Events for One Dollar.

ALL CLASSES EXCUSED FOR TRADITIONAL DAY

The annual Bizad day has been set for Friday, November 9. The traditional holiday will be observed by all students and faculty members in the College of Business Administration. Students will be excused from all classes.

Ribbons are on sale by members of the committee in charge for $1. Students wearing them will be excused from classes and will be allowed to participate in all of the events of the day and evening, including sports and games, the lunch, and the dance in the evening.

The day will be started off with a big parade at 10 o'clock. The parade will include many new floats furnished by Lincoln business firms, the band, and the Bizad students and faculty members. The line of march will be through the downtown district and then to the scene of the field events.

Grid Game with Ags.

A football game with the Agricultural college, a baseball game between the faculty and the seniors, and track and field events for both men and women are to be held. At noon a hot lunch will be served.

The day will wind up with the dance to be held at the Chamber of Commerce.

"Fun for the day; for a dollar, they say," is the slogan adopted for the event.

Ames Gridmen to See Husker-Irish Tangle Saturday

The eighteen regulars on the Ames grid squad will come to Lincoln in a body to witness the battle between the Cornhuskers and the Fightin' Irish from Notre Dame on Saturday. They will thus get a first hand line on the Cornhuskers in advance of the Nebraska-Ames argument scheduled for November 17 on the Ames gridiron. The Ames Aggies have been going at a rather fast clip this season and although they were defeated by Drake last week, they will undoubtedly show the Cornhuskers a real battle.

The Kansas Farmers from Manhattan have a blank day on their schedule November 24 and the entire team will be here to witness the Nebraska-Syracuse conflict.

Mystic Fish Plan Subscription Dance

Two special meetings of Mystic Fish, honorary freshman girls' organization, were held last week to plan a subscription dance to be held November 16 at the Lincoln hotel.

Tickets are now on sale and may be bought from any member of the organization. The dance is planned to be over in time for students to make the special to Ames, which leaves about midnight.

Committee chairmen appointed to manage the dance are: Ticket, Jennie Pursell; posters, Thelma King; dance, Frieda Anderson.

A special meeting will be held sometime this week to complete the arrangements.

11 p. m. Bulletin.
St. Elizabeth's reports Miss Meier still unconscious and very low. Doctors are considering an operation.

Miss Bertie Meier, eighteen, University freshman, was injured probably fatally, and Miss Etta Parks, twenty, also a freshman, suffered severe bruises and cuts on the face and head shortly after 8 p. m. Monday when they were struck by an automobile driven by H. H. Kentlehut, 2907 Star street, at the intersection of Sixteenth and N streets.

According to Dr. H. C. Arnold, little hope is held for Miss Meier's recovery. She received a fracture of the skull, and is suffering from hemorrhage of the brain.

The homes of both girls are in Scribner, Nebr. They were roommates and lived at 1645 K street in Lincoln.

On Way to Show.

The two girls with Miss Verona Stebenow, also a Scribner girl who is visiting the pair in Lincoln, were walking north on the sidewalk on the east side of Sixteenth toward the crossing of N street on their way to a show. According to Miss Stebenow, when the girls had just stepped off the curb a light flashed in front of them and a car turning the corner struck the trio before they knew it.

After striking the girls the car is said to have swerved diagonally across the street, dragging the two, and then crashed into a cement curb post. Two ambulances were called and the girls rushed to the St. Elizabeth hospital.

Kentlehut's Story.

The police were immediately notified and officers investigated the accident. Mr. Kentlehut was taken to the police station, where he is being held. According to his statement, after buying gasoline at the Skelley oil station on the corner of Sixteenth and N streets he drove south of the station driveway and turned north on Sixteenth. He said that when he returned east on N street he saw the girls and they supposedly saw him because one of them stepped back and the other two jumped in front of the car. He tried to dodge them and swung the car to the north, striking the curb. The car was slightly damaged.

Miss Meier is registered in the Teachers College and Miss Parks in the College of Agriculture.

To Explain Y. W. C. A. Industrial Experiment at Vespers Tonight

Agnes Kessler will tell about selling ice cream cones and working in a window shade factory as a part of the industrial experiment carried out by the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. in Denver, at the weekly Vesper service at Ellen Smith hall tonight at 5 o'clock. Emmaline Ferris will lead the meeting. Hostesses will be Marie Schuebel, Millicent Jaecke and Mildred Upton. The World Fellowship committee of which Agnes Kessler is chairman, has charge of the meeting. The purpose of the experiment is to show college students how the working men and women are forced to work long hours under poor conditions for very limited wages.

Omaha Club Gives Dinner Wednesday

An Omaha club dinner will be held Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock at the city Y. M. C. A. This is the first meeting of the year and a business meeting will follow the dinner to organize for the year. A special program is planned. Dean Back will speak on "The Spirit of Nebraska."

The purpose of the organization is to further the interests of Nebraska in Omaha schools and to serve as a social organization in the University. Any student from Omaha is eligible for membership and all students are invited to the first meeting. Dinners are held once a month.
