HAIL NEBRASKA!

Now this is Nebraska, the true Nebraska—a vibrant spirit that fairly makes you want to take your hat off in reverence and pride.

Let's carry it through to the last whistle of the "Irish" game and straight on from that game for all time, win, lose, or draw. Nebraska is great and she must be great always.

Expect Capacity Crowd at Game; Lincoln Fans Asked to Come Early

With clear weather there will be 23,000 at the Nebraska-Notre Dame game Saturday. This number will tax to the utmost the capacity of the unfinished stadium.

The large main entrances for each stand are blocked by the contractor's building machinery and will not be in use this year. Every available temporary entrance has been provided and all means have been taken to handle the crowd quickly and comfortably.

However, if everyone is to be seated at 2 p. m., at least 10,000 should plan to reach the stadium before 1:30. Several regular and special trains are scheduled to reach Lincoln for the game, some as late as 1:30.

It is requested that so far as possible, Lincoln people plan to be seated before the out-of-town guests arrive. Entertainment will be provided for a half-hour before the game.

Please come early and help us to avoid undue crowding at JOHN K. SELLECK. the entrances. Business Manager.

mage; Notre Dame on Way; Crowds Coming.

Preparations for Saturday's football classic of America are completed. The Huskers have gone through their final scrimmage, Notre Dame is one the way, and the crowds are beginning to move toward Lincoln. Weather forecasts indicate a favorable day, the field is dry and hard, and members of both teams are in good physical condition.

Coach Rockne left South Bend Thursday afternoon with a squad of forty football players, composed of six ends, six tackles, six guards, three centers, three quarterbacks, four full-Opened to Parties backs and seven halfbacks.
