WHAT TO WEAR. Colleges are fundamentally, and broadly, places to get an education.

It would indeed be a great task to standardize clothing on this campus or any other campus, but such an idea, far-fetched as it may seem, would certainly merit worthy consideration.

Nebraska is nationally known for that wonderful morale and spirit displayed by the students.

RAG CARPET Contributions Are Invited

The Rag Doll says that some jokes are written in a verucose vein.

She pursued the poor fish with baited breath.

Rouge is responsible for a good many women being outside the pale.

LANGUISHINGS OF LUELLA. The feeble moon obscured the cloud, The birds began to sing.

There certainly were some queer psychologically fit for a torrent of alibis from the defeated.

As one of our contentment states, a mean trick is to borrow your friend's clothes, wear them on a date, tell the girl that they are yours, and then let your friend be accused of wearing borrowed clothes when the girl meets him.

Charter a bus, hire a hand car, roll a wheel barrow, or walk—but go to Ames.

One middle western university has a class of 800 juniors, according to the registrar—but the ballot box declared that there were 1140.

Nebraska students make an annual pilgrimage with the football team, and this year it is Ames. Seven hundred are needed in the Nebraska section.

There are but a few good jokes. Different people just tell them in a different way is all.

who saw it officially dedicated and named after Michigan's "Grand Old Man" of football, Fielding H. Yost.

OHIO—A drive for $3000 is being made. Unlike other years, the 1923 campaign will not be for membership, but will have for its purpose the solicitation of funds.

OHIO—A general catalogue of Phi Beta Kappa, honorary scholastic fraternity, has been issued, and is the first to be published for the last 20 years. More than 55,000 members received between 1776 and 1922 are listed with a brief biographical statement concerning each.

OHIO—In a leading scientific magazine is given an account of a newly invented milk bottle opener recently patented by a student. The new cap is made from one piece of sheet metal. Pressure on the arm of the invention causes a barb to pierce the cap. A gentle upward lift takes the cardboard from the bottle. Pressing a small spring releases the cap from the back.

PENNSYLVANIA — All classes were suspended on Saturday morning as a fitting observance of Pennsylvania Day. The day was conducted as a student social and athletic occasion.

UTAH—A student of the university just received a scholarship from the Columbia University.

UTAH—Freshmen may now flirt with co-eds without danger of the tub. The decision was reached this month, because the former ruling was considered too stringent.

UTAH—Mrs. Herbert Hoover was in session with the Dean of Women in regard to the system and operation of the Big Sister plan that was inaugurated on the University campus last year. Mrs. Hoover is interested in work pertaining to the social betterment and uplifting of young women.

MICHIGAN — The Michigan maiden's ideal man is not mustached. A reporter asked 12 of the prettiest girls their opinions concerning the habit of many men to neglect the shaving of their lips. The verdict in every case was thumbs down for the thatched lip.
