Kansas 17, Drake 0, at Lawrence.
Washington 13, Missouri 7, at St. Louis.

Games This Week.
Oklahoma vs. Kansas Aggies at Manhattan.
Grinnell vs. Iowa State at Ames.

Missouri Valley championship football elevens have finally been whittled down to a duet of teams, Nebraska and Kansas. Kansas holds a single win lead over the Cornhuskers for the top most position and each combination has but one more contest to play before the season closes. The Jayhawks meet Missouri Thanksgiving and the Huskers mix with the point towards a knot as far as titular Kansas Aggies. At present things honors are concerned also either team may be downed Thanksgiving and leave but one claimant to the conference bunting.

Of the three contests booked for last week one running mate for the title was cut off when Kansas defeated Drake; the weekly upset fell upon Missouri when Washington won its first Valley game of the season, while the Husker-Ames meeting turned out as was expected.

Perhaps Drake was over rated early in the season, since the Des Moines representatives failed to show the expected brand of ball on the Jayhawk field Saturday. Kansas demonstrated a championship game against the Bulldogs and copped a 17 to 0 decision. The winners relied entirely on straight football, while the losers attempted an unsuccessful aerial attack.

Washington Wins.
The upset came when Washington won from Missouri 13 to 7. The winners were admittedly weak, having sustained an 82 whitewash the week before at the hands of Kansas and came back and downed the Tiger combination which held the Cornhuskers to a 7 to 7 tie early in the season. Missouri is now near the bottom of the Valley scramble with three blots debited. The showing of the losers in this mix gives Kansas a big edge over the Tigers in the coming Turkey day clash.

Nebraska came through a free for all at Ames on the long end of the 26 to 14 count. As the result of the unnecessary rough tactics used by the Iowa Aggies, it is not likely that the cross river artists will appear on the Scarlet and Cream-slate in coming seasons. Rumors have it that Drake may be substituted in the Husker schedule next year.

Drake Wants Game.
While the Husker team was in Des Moines Friday, Drake authorities called upon Coach Dawson personally for the purpose of booking coming contests with the Huskers. In view of the circumstances that resulted at Ames Saturday, a switch may be made from Ames to Drake.

Coe College triumphed over Grinnell 17 to 0 while Oklahoma defeated Texas Uni 26 to 14 the same score that Nebraska defeated Ames.
But two conference clashes are on this week's card. The feature meeting is between the Oklahoma Indians and the Kansas Aggies at Manhattan. From recent showings made by the southerners, the winner of the contest cannot easily be foreseen. At present the two teams are knotted for third place in the Valley standings. Iowa State seems to have a slight edge over the Grinnell gridsters at Ames and are expected winners, but with only two contests slated, the weekly upset may fall true at the latter clash.

Drake, Washington, Missouri and Kansas remain idle this week and all are hard at work preparing to close their '23 season Thanksgiving.

BOOM HUSKERS FOR CALIFORNIA GAME

Nebraska Would be Drawing Card Los Angeles Sport Writer Says

The unexpected Cornhusker victory over the far-famed and "invincible" Irish of Notre Dame is still a topic of much interest among sports writers of the country. The latest hashover from the game comes from the far west where a writer on the Los Angeles Herald proposes Nebraska as a possible eastern contender in the Tournament of Roses.

"Nebraska's victory over Notre Dame," he argues, "gives the Cornhuskers the call, in my opinion. Notre Dame vanquished the Army and Princeton, and was considered, possibly with the exception of Yale, the strongest team in the east. Now comes Nebraska and trims the Irish eleven by a score of 14 to 7, and it was no fluke either. Notre Dame uncorked all they had and Nebraska was better in every department of the game.

"A contest between Nebraska and the University of Southern California would prove a tremendous drawing card," he continues.

He said further that Southern California is filled with numbers of former residents of the middle west who would revel in the opportunity of seeing one of the best western teams in action against one of the best coast elevens.

KNOT HOLE CLUB MAY SEE SYRACUSE GAME

Is Possible That Boys and Girls Will Be Admitted Free Saturday.

Plans are being made by A. S. Dougall, chairman of the Rotary Club boys' work committee, and John Selleck, business manager of the University Athletic department, to admit all members of the Knot Hole Club to the Syracuse game free.

The large sale of tickets for the game stands in the way of the plan. So far the advance sale is greater than that of the Notre Dame game. However, the additional seating capacity will probably handle the large crowd without using the end bleacher seats. If this is possible the Knot Holes will be admitted free. Everything possible is being done to accomplish this. The chances are that the members of the club will be admitted without charge.

The club is an organization of boys and girls between the ages of nine and fourteen. All children are eligible for membership. Any who failed to enroll for membership when the club was organized, can do so this week. Membership cards can be gotten by the boys at the city Y.M.C.A. and by the girls at the city Y.W.C.A. All cards must be countersigned by their school teachers before Saturday game.

CAGE TEAMS PLAYING PRACTICE GAMES NOW

First Game at Home Is With Missouri Five on January 5.

The varsity cagers are in their second week of practice and are now doing team work with the candidates divided into five or six groups. The basketball team will stage its initial game at home January 5 against Missouri.

A game so close at hand means a lot of hard work, and Coach Kline is beginning to whip his men into shape.

Heavier practice with scrimmage is gradually becoming the order of the day. Teams were matched against each other Monday and Tuesday and regular scrimmage games lasting ten minutes each were played. The showing in these preliminary jousts is being watched carefully by Kline who will soon cut down the squad to about fifteen men.

"Any man who intends to try out for the team should do so at once. It is expected that several football men will report next week after the pigskin sport terminates.

There are many promising candidates numbered among those out, among them Lyle, "Booze" Holland, all state high school forward and Lincoln captain in 1920. Holland was on the team last year but injuries kept him from getting a letter. Lewellen, guard on Lincoln high team, is also expected to report soon.

Leter men from last year who are showing up well in the workouts are Captain Usher, Cosier, Tipton, and Volz. They will have some strong competition in Wyant, Holland, Goodson, Hamilton, Black, Beerkle.

CHOOSE DELEGATES TO INDIANAPOLIS MEETING

Thirty to Represent Nebraska at Student Volunteer Convention December 28

Thirty delegates to represent the University of Nebraska at the Student Volunteer convention in Indianapolis, December 28 to January 1, will be selected within the next few days.

All names will be considered and the thirty delegates selected by a committee composed of Mr. McCaf-free, Grace Spacht, William Alstadt, Roy Youngman, Martha Curtis, and Agnes Kessler, with Miss Appleby and the students pastors as advisory members.

Sherwood Eddy, well known to Nebraska students through the series of meetings he held here two years ago, will be one of the main speakers at the convention.

Four Nebraska alumni are to have an active part—Mary Backer '21, Stan Pier '16, Walter Judd '20, and Paul Harrison '05.

It is reported that a thousand missionaries have already arrived in the United States to attend the convention. Many foreign students will also be in Indianapolis.
