CLASS DEBATES TO START SOON

Unicameral Legislature for Nebraska is Subject for Annual Tournament

TRYOUTS FOR TEAMS
COME ON DECEMBER 5

"Should Nebraska adopt the Unicameral Legislature?" will be the question for the annual inter-class debate tournament according to an announcement made yesterday by the chairman of the four class debate committees.

Tryouts for the class teams will be held Wednesday, December 5, in University Hall 106, Law 101, 201, and 202. The preliminary round of the debates in which two of the teams will be eliminated will be staged sometime in December before the Christmas recess. The final debate will come immediately after the recess.

The committees have decided that freshmen laws will be eligible for the sophomore team, junior laws for the junior team and senior laws for the senior team. Varsity debaters are barred from the contests.

May Sign Bulletin Board.

A bulletin board will be provided on the first floor of University Hall so that candidates for the teams may sign up. Anyone wishing to try out may sign on this bulletin board or hand in his name to the chairman of his class debate committee. The chairmen for the different classes are: Senior, Merle Loder; junior, Charles Adams; sophomore, Hugh Cox; freshman, Douglass Orr.

Although no definite announcement has been made yet it is probable that the tryout speeches will be five minutes in length.

The inter-class debates were revived last year for the first time since the war. The committee are attempting to run them off earlier this year in order to avoid any conflict with the intercollegiate debating season which will begin after the Christmas vacation.

HONORARY FRATERNITY ELECTS TWENTY-FOUR

Sigma Tau Discusses Plans for Coming Annual Conclave at Meeting.

Twenty-four pledges were elected to Sigma Tau, national honorary engineering fraternity, at a meeting held Thursday evening in Faculty Hall.

Plans for the coming national convocation of the fraternity next year were discussed. This includes celebration of the twentieth anniversary of the fraternity, which was founded in 1904 at the University of Nebraska.

Professor J. H. Wahlenberg, of the Sheffield Scientific School, is grand president and is a member of the Nebraska Chapter.

The list of pledges follow:

James Marshall, C. E.; D. H. McCook, C. E.; Judson Meir, C. E.; W. J. Turnbull, C. E.; William Bertwell, C. E.; C. H. Schildmeck, C. E.; R. G. Sturm, C. E.; E. L. White, E. E.; Allen Meek, E. E.; Harold Edgerton, E. E.; F. J. Boucher, E. E.; Roy Randolph, E. E.; E. F. Dismeyer, E. E.; O. H. McKenty, E. E.; A. O. Andrews, E. E.; Elmer Gustafson, M. E.; H. A. Burns, M. E.; S. E. Olsen, M. E.; R. R. Slaymaker, M. E.; R. H. Smith, Arch. E.; O. K. Hedden, Ag. E.; F. J. Wehner, Chem. E.; Herbert Ulrich, Chem. E.

These men are eligible to election by being in the upper third of their classes on the basis of scholarship. The highest grade made was an average of 95.2 and the lowest was 73.3. Sociability, practicality, and scholarship are the three qualities considered in election.

Three Are Chosen For Poultry Judging Team

The men who go to the International show at Chicago on December 1 as judges of poultry, are now selected. The Ag college team is composed of three men: Donald E. Wight, Ernest Hatcliff, and Claud E. Wiegner. These men leave for Chicago sometime next week. Clarence G. Olson was chosen as an alternate. The coach who will accompany the team is S. J. Marsden.

Fight, Nebraska, Fight!

Nebraska has one more game to play; one more contest before the season officially closes. It is a game with a team that is not nationally known, but it is a team which, like all Missouri Valley teams, is playing brilliant football.

The Kansas Aggies have the team that was downed last year by a great fight on the part of the Nebraska football team.

They are coming back—coming here with the intentions of beating Nebraska.

One more game Cornhuskers—one more supreme rally—and the curtain shall fall upon Nebraska football for this season.

There are three more days before the team packs away their uniforms. Students, make those three days the greatest days that Nebraska has ever passed through. End the great season with an extraordinary display of spirit.

Member of British Labor Party Will Speak at Vespers

Plan to Give Tea For Freshmen and Sophomore Women

The first of a series of teas given by Mortarboard for the girls of the freshman and sophomore classes will come on Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock at Ellen Smith hall. These teas will be continued throughout the year and it is hoped by members of the senior society that the underclasswomen can be welded into a unit to work for a bigger and better Nebraska.

To Postpone Festival on Account of Rally

The "Know Nebraska" festival has been postponed at the request of the coaches in favor of the great rally the school must hold this Wednesday night. Within the next few weeks the festival will be staged as it has now been planned. The question is, how well do you know Nebraska? This festival will help you answer that question and make you realize the greatness of Nebraska U. For that rally—let every Cornhusker be there. Wednesday night, November 28th at 7 o'clock.

RELIEF WORK IS HOPE OF EUROPE

May Make Possible the Growth of Internationalism Says
Conrad Hoffman

ORIGIN OF MOVEMENT
EXPLAINED BY CRANE

In European Student Relief lies the only hope of the intellectual life of Europe and the only possibility of the growth of internationalism, is the opinion of Conrad Hoffman, director of the work, who visited Nebraska University Tuesday and Wednesday of last week, speaking at convocation Tuesday morning.

A brief explanation of what European Student Relief is and how its work is carried on, is made by Harry Crane, a student of Washburn College and a member of the Friendship Pilgrimage in 1923, as follows:

"The European Student Relief was formed after the close of the Great War by the World's Student Christian Federation. Suffering among all classes in Europe after the war was appalling, but this organization was formed to make it possible for the youth, the coming leadership of these countries, to continue its studies.

The other classes were better able to care for themselves than were the students, because with a student's work he must give a great deal of his time and energy to study. The European Student Relief was far-sighted enough to realize that the one class of people that the war stricken countries could not afford to lose was the educated youth.

Consequently under the auspices of the World's Student Christian Federation, contributions have been taken from over twenty countries for the aid of these students. America has been the greatest contributor, because her present financial position is the best, although unemployed England has done nobly.

In the distribution of these funds the organization has been careful not to pauperize the recipients of the aid. Instead of giving the aid outright, plans for student work have been promoted. The European Student Relief give ten per cent of the money necessary to start a student store, shoe shop, bakery, or to build dormitories, for example, on condition that the students raise ninety per cent of the money. In all the war-stricken countries such plans for student work are flourishing.

Thus the money is not given outright to the students, but is used in helping them to help themselves.

The funds are in a position to be shifted readily from place to place as they are needed. For instance, two years ago the heaviest need was in Austria. For the past nine months no aid has been needed there at all. Since the floating of the Allied Loan for Austria her currency has become stabilized, and her business much more prosperous.

Today it appears that Hungary and Germany will need the most aid because of the rapid drop of the Kronen, and the Mark, and the fact that they cannot raise sufficient grain, even in peace times to carry them over the winter, and since their money has no value abroad, they cannot buy from the outside world.

However, whoever needs the aid will receive it. The head office of the European Student Relief, located in Geneva, Switzerland, is in the district and know conditions."

FRESHMEN WIN IN ANNUAL OLYMPICS

Flag Pole Breaks During Rush;
First-year Men Forfeit
Two Events.

FINAL COUNT IS 77-22
AGAINST SOPHOMORES

Freshmen won from the sophomores the right to burn their green caps by a score of 77 1-2 to 22 1-2 in the annual Olympics held Saturday morning in the stadium. The sophomores won the heavyweight boxing and wrestling matches by forfeit; both the 145 and 158 pound wrestling events and split the score with the freshmen in the 145 pound boxing event. The freshmen lost but two of the events in which they entered men, and tied one.

The twelve-foot pole snapped off at the ground as if it were a match a few seconds after the freshman flying wedges split into the heart of the little group of sophomores. With at least four times as many men, the frosh carried the second-year men ahead of them by weight of numbers. In less than a half minute Woodard, sophomore president, was forced to drop from the pole into the scramble of tight-packed men beneath as the pole swayed and fell.

The pushball was in the sophomore territory almost the whole of the ten minutes allotted to the event and the frosh took 25 points to swell their staggering total.

Freshmen Win Relay.
The relay went to the freshmen by inches. The start won the race for them.

The events, points and participants were as follows:

Boxing.
175-pound—Sophomores, Scott, 5 points by default.
158-pound—Freshmen, Brandegan, 5 points; sophomore, Pickett.
145-pound—Sophomore, Moore; freshman, Ramsey; draw.

Wrestling.
175-pound—Sophomore, Popelar, 5 points by default.
158-pound—Sophomore, Lundy, 5 points; freshmen, Huckfelt.
148-pound—Sophomore, Gardner, 5 points; freshmen, Fulrodt.

TO HOLD RALLY FOR THANKSGIVING GAME

Plan Giant Pep Meeting Wednesday Night to Create Nebraska Spirit.

To show the team that, win or lose, every student is behind it, a big rally will be held Wednesday evening. This will be the last rally that many seniors will attend, and it will be the last for some of the veterans on the team. The Kansas Aggie game is the climax of the season, and according to committeemen, if this game is lost, our other victories will count for nothing.

The Thanksgiving game will be one of the hardest of the season, according to Coach Frank who scouted the Aggie-Sooner fray at Manhattan Friday. The Aggies gained over 500 yards on forward passes in this game. The whole of Coach Bachman's squad attended the Syracuse game Saturday, watching every man. Husker students must back the team, say committeemen, if Nebraska is to win.

The "Know Nebraska" convocation scheduled for Tuesday evening has been postponed at the request of the coaches, in order that Cornhuskers can come out full strength for the pep meeting Wednesday evening.

The Aggies are pointing for the Thanksgiving game. Every student in the school and every man on the team is set to beat Nebraska. They were outpointed in the battle at Nebraska field last year, and they are out for revenge this year, say the coaches.

In order that the Huskers may win, the Aggies must be faced by a team with a united student body at its back. The glory of the defeat of Notre Dame, the wonderful fight of the injured team against Syracuse, all the laurels gained this football season will be lost, according to committeemen, if Nebraska does not win.

"Be at that rally," is their command. "Be at that rally and back the team."

What's the Matter With This Picture?

This isn't the answer.

Some good and many weird answers were received by Kosmet Klub in response to its offer of a prize for the best answer to the question, "What's the Matter with This Picture?" a cartoon printed in the Daily Nebraskan two weeks ago. The contest closed Tuesday and the prize will be awarded in the Wednesday edition of the Nebraskan.

One student evidently labored long and hard to compose the following answer which touched everything in the picture except the right thing. He concludes that the picture is wrong because:

Bell bottom trousers and his collar.

Position of his and her arms. Picture only shows one of his arms. Position of their heads.

Position of the lantern in the second picture.

Intermission at ten-thirty. Watch for the right answer.

RALLY WORKS UP SPIRIT FOR GAME

Songs, Cheers and Speeches Create Enthusiasm for Syracuse Contest

MEETING ATTENDED
BY THREE THOUSAND

"If Notre Dame awakened us,
Syracuse set us on fire!"

Some 3,000 singing, cheering students, imbued with the spirit of Nebraska gathered north of the Administration building Friday night and made the basis for this statement by Welch Pogue, president of the Innocents, who presided.

"Syracuse has come a long way to go back feeling like Notre Dame," was the way Captain Verne Lewellen summed it up. "Six Nebraska men are crippled, but what difference does that make? They are going out there tomorrow and they are going to fight like hell!"

"We're here tonight to insist that the 'Orange' be peeled, and that being peeled, we give it a good Nebraska squeeze," asserted Welch Pogue in introducing Professor R. E. Cochran who represented the faculty in the absence of Professor R. D. Scott who was ill.

"I expect to see 'em do better than Colgate," said Professor Cochran, pointing to the team. "Colgate soaked 'em. We're going to give them an actual bath."

"All of our men are fit and able and we will have no alibis to offer if we are beaten," affirmed John Brockman, student manager of the Syracuse team. "Nebraska is to be congratulated at the excellent manner in which they turned out to meet us at the train."

"Fortify your nerves and steel your hearts for the tremendous struggle that our injured men are going to put up tomorrow," commanded Coach Fred Dawson. He discouraged the spirit of levity shown by some students at the rally and emphasized the seriousness of the battle to come, and the odds against which Nebraska, with her team riddled with injuries, would have to face.

"We won't be beat! We can't be beat!" This chant, inaugurated by the Corncocks, throbbed at intervals throughout the rally. Speeches were punctuated with shots from the six-shooters of rampant cowboys at the Military Carnival. "Bill" Bradley was in charge of the cheering. Corncocks in a large truck made the rounds of the fraternity and sorority houses, giving cheers and bringing out the students for the rally.

To Entertain Senior Soccer Team Tuesday

A soccer feed in honor of the senior soccer team will be given Tuesday, November 27, at 6:00 in Ellen Smith Hall.

The senior team is to be the guest of the other classes by virtue of the fact that it was the senior team which won the Soccer tournament.

Every girl who came out for one or more soccer practices is invited to the feed. Those wishing to come are asked to add their names to the list posted on the W. A. A. bulletin board in Memoria' hall.

HUSKERS LOSE TO SYRACUSE ELEVEN

Crippled by Injuries, Nebraska
Team Put Up Game Battle to the Last.

Kickoff—Nebraska none, Syracuse three for 130 yards (average 43 1-3 yards).

By John Hollingsworth.

Nebraska's Fighting Cornhuskers, battling gamely against terrific odds, outplayed the Easterners from Syracuse for the first three quarters of the contest yesterday, but lost to the Orange in the fourth quarter when the Nebraskans, crippled and worn, were unable to stem a bewildering forward pass attack, which resulted in a defeat for Nebraska on her own field since 1920.

The Huskers gave them everything they had; they fought every minute. Dave Noble and Herb Dewitz, Nebraska's halfbacks, both carrying injuries that should have kept them out of football for the remainder of the season were in there fighting every minute. On every play it could be seen that their injuries were hurting. Hutchison, center, also carrying a game leg, displayed the same undying fire and end fight.

Offer No Alibis.
"Injuries handicapped the team but we aren't offering that as an alibi. We have no alibis," said Head Coach Dawson after the game. "We gave them everything we had and we lost. Herb, Dave, and Hutch played wonderful ball."

The end running of Rufus Dewitz was easily the outstanding feature of Nebraska's offense. Rufe circled the ends on several plays one of which was good for thirty-three yards and would have made a touchdown had not Jappe, the Orange left wing man, cut in from behind and tackled him. Nebraska had the ball in threatening territory several times but inability to connect with passes prevented touchdowns.

Nebraska completely outplayed the Orange in the first half. The Scarlet and Cream registered 140 yards from scrimmage while the visitors made 58. The Huskers came back strong in the third period and marched down to a comfortable position for scoring but just couldn't plant the ball.

Dewitz Runs End.

In the first quarter, with the ball on the middle of the field, Rufus Dewitz swung around the Orange team's left end for thirty-three yards before being tackled from behind by Jappe. Noble hit the left side of the line for three yards. The Huskers faked a plunge at center and Lewellen ran the Syracuse right end for a yard. It would have been a touchdown had not Simmons, the Orange quarter, made a sure tackle.

The quarter ended with Nebraska in possession of the ball on Syracuse's 13 yard line. They started the second quarter by a pass from Rhodes to Noble, but it was incomplete. Rufus Dewitz attempted a place kick but it went wide. Syracuse took the ball on her own 20 yard line. After attempting two bucks at the line, Ruby punted out of danger.

Captain Lewellen's toe gained several yards in an exchange of punts. His attempt at a dropkick from the 60 yard line fell short by a few feet. Had he been kicking with the wind instead of against it Nebraska would have been the first to get results in the marker.

Basset and Weir, Husker tackles, broke through and threw the Orange backfield men for losses time after time. Little was gained through the Husker line. Syracuse resorted mostly to end runs and forward passes. (Continued on Page 4)
