WRESTLING PRACTICE TO START THIS WEEK

With First Meet Only Seven Weeks Off, Intensive Work Is Begun.

Candidates for the varsity wrestling team will begin intensive practice this week. Several football men are out now that the season is over, and with the first meet on January 26, only seven weeks off, the coaches are going to push practice vigorously in order to get the men in trim.

Dr. Clapp and Coach Floyd Reed talked to the candidates yesterday, and emphasized the fact that wrestling is essentially a fighting game, and that men with the greatest spirit win. No other branch of athletics develops self confidence so much as wrestling, said Coach Reed in outlining training rules for the men.

Chances of making the team this year are better than in former years, according to Dr. Clapp who said that there are only two letter men competing with seven places open. The squad will consist almost entirely of new men and the sport will offer a hard and yet an easier path toward a letter on that account than any other. Dr. Clapp wants every man interested in wrestling to come to the afternoon session at the Armory.

Wrestling offers equal opportunity to men of all sizes and weights, because the men are classified according to weight, and the light man has as much chance of making the team as the heavyweight. Placing on the team is a matter of individual ability alone, and the best man in each class is the one who represents the team in that weight.

A change of rules adopted last week at the western intercollegiate conference was that of lowering the score for a decision from three to two. The old score of five points for a fall remains. The new rule makes a fall much more important than a referee's decision.

Hockey Contests to Be Played Next Week

Hockey teams have been chosen, and preparations are being made for the first round of the tournament to be played off at noon Saturday, December 8. After the finals Tuesday the winning team will be entertained at a "feed" in Ellen Smith hall at 6 o'clock.

EIGHTY FRESHMEN AT FIRST CAGE PRACTICE

Coach Owen Frank Expects to Develop Fast Squad of Tossers

Nearly eighty frosh cage candidates reported on the Armory court Wednesday. Coach Owen Frank has a wealth of material from which to pick his first year quintet and from early exhibitions, a fast floor combination will be developed. The freshmen mentor will not hold cage practice during the holidays until it is found that the majority are in favor of workouts.

In compliance with Missouri Valley rulings the freshmen will not schedule any contests.

Yesterday afternoon Coach Frank drilled his proteges on passing, devoting much time to floor work. The fundamental two and three man combinations constituted most of the day's drilling. The freshmen mentor has announced that there will not be any scrimmage for several days. Several promising hoopmen have already shown class and locate the iron rim with exceptional ease. Several former high school performers are out.

MICHIGAN: The Michigan Agricultural College has conceived a novel idea to help build its proposed half million dollar Union Memorial building. While the co-eds pass out coffee and doughnuts and the college band plays syncopated music, students and faculty members of the school will dig the basement of the building.
