PROSPECTS GOOD FOR BASKETEERS

Pony Team Goes Twenty-five Minutes Without Being Scored Against.

MAY PRACTICE DAILY DURING VACATION

Basketball prospects are brightening day by day and with every practice, new and undiscovered features are revealed in the workouts, new stars are discovered and given their chance.

In one of the workouts this week, the pony team went twenty-five minutes in stiff scrimmages without having a basket scored against them. The scrimmage was held against three different squads but none of them were able to penetrate the stiff defense. The pony team consists of Captain Usher and Cozier, forwards, Black center, Volz and Tipton at guards. While the oppositions were striving desperately to connect for a counter, the pony combination was dropping them in from all angles. The attack was led by Captain Usher and Cozier.

To Have Strong Defense.

With results such as these obtained so early in the season it leads an on-looker to believe that a real defensive team will be representing Nebraska this year. With basket shooters such as those already mentioned along with Goodson, Andrews, Olds, Schroeders and many others, the Cornhusker squad will be one that will be ready to take on any comers.

It is believed that scrimmage will be staged daily throughout Christmas vacation, and if this belief matures, the cagesters will be in mid-season form for their first Valley game which comes on the eve of January 5 in the Armory against the Tigers from the Show-Me state.

A number of football men have reported to Coach Kline for basket service. They are Westoupal, Hubka, McGlasson, R. Dewitz, Rhodes, Volz, Goodson and Hill. All of these candidates are in condition and some of them are making strong bids for berths.

The exact time for scrimmage with the freshmen has not been settled as the frosh have had but a few days for scrimmage. Coach Frank will have the yearlings in shape to battle the varsity before long.

HUSKERS HAVE HARD SCHEDULE TO MEET

Have Not Yet Contracted for Thanksgiving Game; May Play Coast Team.

A glimpse at the Cornhusker's 1924 football schedule shows it to be one of the best that the University has ever undertaken. Three of the major elvens of the country are already on the schedule and another big game is yet to be arranged.

The schedule to date is:
Oct. 4—Illinois at Lincoln.
Oct. 11—Oklahoma at Norman.
Oct. 18—Colgate at Lincoln.
Oct. 25—Kansas at Lawrence.
Nov. 1—Missouri at Lincoln.
Nov. 25—Notre Dame at South Bend
Nov. 22—Kansas Ag at Manhattan.
Nov. 29—No game scheduled.

Illinois Team Is Opener.

Opening the season with Illinois at Lincoln, the Huskers will have one of their hardest games of the season. The Illinois team, this year's Big Ten champions, rated as one of the nation's best teams, lost very few of this year's veterans. Nebraska fans will be given a chance to see Harold "Red" Grange in action and to compare him with the Nebraska backs.

Following the Illinois fray the Huskers journey to Norman where they meet the University of Oklahoma. The Sooners always have a strong team and should furnish the proper kind of game to prepare the Huskers for their third tussle of the season.

season, with Colgate, at Lincoln. The Colgate team ranks high in the East, being the only team to defeat Syracuse the past season. The game will be one of the few big inter-sectional contests of the year.

Play Kansas at Lawrence.

The week after meeting Colgate, the team will again be on foreign grounds — playing Kansas at Lawrence. Missouri will be at Lincoln the week following. No game has been scheduled for Nov. 8 and this date will probably be left open to give the Husker mentors plenty of time to prepare for Nebraska's traditional foes, Notre Dame. The Notre Dame game will be played at South Bend and will easily rank as one of the best if not the very best game of the whole season.

Following their return from South Bend the team will again be away from home, meeting the Kansas Aggies at Manhattan.

A Thanksgiving day game has not been arranged but will probably be played at Lincoln. A game with the University of Southern California is being much talked of and the officials of the western school seem quite favorable toward such a game.

The whole seasons' schedule reflects the growing importance of football at the University. The schedule is even more strenuous than that which Rockne's Irish tried this year. The 1924 schedule drops Ames and Syracuse, and adds Colgate and the team which will play here Thanksgiving day. A game with Drake University of Des Moines could not be arranged as they could not be fitted into the Husker's schedule. If such a game could be arranged it would be a source of much satisfaction in Valley circles.

FIFTY MEN OUT FOR WRESTLING PRACTICE

Welterweight and Middle-weight Positions Attracting Competition.

From forty-five to fifty candidates for the wrestling team have answered the initial calls for practice. Competition is becoming keen as the number of men in each of the seven weights increases. With only one letter man in the race there will be a number of new letter men by the close of the season.

The 145 and 158 pound class is at present attracting the most attention, since the competition in these classes is the keenest. Lundy, who made his numeral in wrestling last year as a freshman, is making a strong bid for representing the 158 pound class if he can train down to that weight. Otherwise he will enter in the 175 pound class. Two football men, Berquist and Robertson are training for the 175 pound class and will prove mountains of strength in this class. Kellogg, the only letter man left from last year's squad, is knocking 'em over in the 125 and 135 pound classes. He will probably train down to 125 before the season begins.

Coach Clapp wants still more fellows to come out for wrestling. This will be a great wrestling year. The wrestlers meet every Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoon in the west end of the Armory.

There are several freshmen who almost made their numerals last year and who, with a little more coaching and better training, can undoubtedly make the team this year. The coaches want all of them to report for practice.

FRESHMAN TOSSERS SHAPING UP WELL

Coach Owen Frank Expects to Develop Strongest Squad in Years.

Although most eyes are focused on Coach Kline and his varsity basketball proteges, the freshmen candidates under the tutelage of Coach Owen Frank are not to be overlooked. The frosh mentor expects to develop one of the strongest first year quintets that ever represented the University during the next few months. With seventy-five cage enthusiasts turning out at every practice everything points towards a strong team.

The initial scrimmage of the year for the freshmen was held last evening in the Armory. Some clever passing and hoop work was exhibited.

Scanning the personnel of the freshmen cagesters, several former high school stars are seen, including five Class A performers. Many other courtmen are known to be enrolled in school and are urged by the freshmen coach to turn out for early practice. Of those who have already reported Gil Reynolds, captain of the Omaha Central hoopers last season, Russ Gibbs of Bayard, Ed Cunningham of Wahoo, Haith of Pine Bluffs, Wyo., Holmes of Clarke School, Hanover, N. H., and Miller of St. Johns seem to loom up as the most promising. One of the promising candidates for the frosh pivot post is Ford of Cathedral high, Lincoln. Clarke of Columbus, Hughes of Omaha Central, Thompson of Tilden, Haskett of Milford, McManigal of Glenwood, Swanson of Holdrege and Anderson, former Graceland artists, all demonstrated class during the scrimmage last evening. There will be no scheduled contests for the freshmen due to the Missouri Valley athletic rulings and the only contests slated are against varsity.
