

TO PUBLISH LIST OF JUNIORS DAILY

Group Will Go Each Day to Have Cornhusker Pictures Made.

STUDENTS SHOULD MAKE DEFINITE APPOINTMENTS

All juniors should watch the Nebraskan this week in order to know when to have their pictures taken for the 1924 Cornhusker. Every day a list of the third year students will be published and these students should get in touch with the Cornhusker office either by telephone or personally and make a definite appointment to have their picture taken.

The Cornhusker staff is asking the co-operation of all juniors in having their pictures taken as soon as possible. In order to have a representative annual every junior should have his picture in the book and if this is to be done properly the cuts must be made as soon as possible, according to Charles Adams, junior editor, who has charge of the junior pictures.

Owing to a change in the plans, organization and group pictures will be taken on Mondays instead of Tuesdays, as announced in the Friday Nebraskan. Heads of organizations should make their reservations as soon as possible so that a space can be made for them in the annual.

At the studio information cards will be handed out and juniors should not fail to fill them out as directed for they are very important.

Up to date the juniors have reported to the studio promptly and many have already had their pictures taken. Early indications point to the fact that with few exceptions every junior will have his picture in this year's annual.

To Have Pictures Taken Tuesday.

The following list of juniors are to have their pictures taken Tuesday at Dole's studio, 1225 O street. It is imperative that each person on the list below call the Cornhusker office sometime Monday and arrange for a definite appointment for his picture. The list follows:

PLAN DEMONSTRATION OF EXTENSION WORK

The first public demonstration of Agricultural Extension Woman's Work ever given in the state by farmers' wives is scheduled for Thursday morning at the Home Economics Association meeting at Organized Agriculture here this week. Mrs. O. A. Falk and Mrs. E. L. Iden of South Sioux City will demonstrate the "Home Care of the Sick," using as a basis for their actions and explanations the things they learned in the Home Nursing project given them last year by the Agricultural Extension Service.

The demonstration will show how to make a bed with the patient in it, how to take the temperature and pulse accurately, and how to sterilize the sick-room clothing in a common wash boiler.

GADETS WILL SHOOT IN NATIONAL MATCH

Three Teams Chosen From R. O. T. C. Will Compete for Hearst Trophy.

Twenty-one members of the Reserve Officers Training Corps of the University will comprise three rifle teams to compete soon in the National Rifle Match for the William Randolph Hearst trophy. The competition is open to every college and university maintaining a senior unit of the corps. Applications have been received at the Chicago headquarters of the match, from a great many of the principal American schools.

The teams will consist of seven men each. Only the five high scores of each team will be counted. Firing will be from four positions—prone, sitting, kneeling, and standing. The rifles used will be of .22 calibre. An officer of the United States Army or a duly qualified military instructor will supervise the firing, marking of the targets, correctness of the scores, and the rules governing the competition. The commanding general of the Sixth Corps Area will designate officers on his staff to act as judges.

The rules of the contest prescribe that in case of a tie between two or more teams, these teams will fire again under the rules to be fixed later. The cup to be awarded the winning team will be a perpetual trophy, retained by the first institution winning it three times in succession. Individual gold medals for each member of the winning team will be offered. The individual having the highest total score for the four positions will be awarded the gold marksmanship medal.

TO GIVE RECITAL OF "OTHELLO" THURSDAY

H. L. Southwick Presents Program Under Auspices of University Players.

Henry Lawrence Southwick, noted orator and artist, will give an interpretative recital of "Othello" at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, January 10, at the Temple Theater. The recital is under the auspices of the University Players. Admission will be 50 cents.

Mr. Southwick is president of the Emerson College of Oratory at Boston. He is a brilliant orator and platform entertainer who has won much distinction as a reader, especially in the interpretation of Shakespeare. The New York Times describes his recitals as "a literary treat," and the Los Angeles Times says he always gives "a scholarly production—a message to university men and women of the highest value."

CHICAGO: Directors of the Rockefeller foundation appropriated $2,725,000 for the medical schools of the University of Chicago, the University of Iowa, the University of Toronto and the University of Alberta, Canada.

UNIVERSITY NIGHT COMMITTEE TO MEET

Will Plan for Calling in and Judging Skits at Meeting Monday.

There will be a meeting of the University Night committee at 5 o'clock Monday at Ellen Smith hall, according to announcement made yesterday by Philip Lewis, secretary of the committee.

Plans are to be made at the meeting for the calling in and judging of the skits prepared by organizations. Before Christmas recess organizations were asked to start work on skits for the annual stunt night which is to be held this year in the city auditorium February 23.

The committee plans to ask for the skits soon and to submit them to a committee which will select the best ones for presentation.

VARIETY SHOW COMES MONDAY AND TUESDAY

Chorus of University Co-Eds Featured as Part of "Music Store Revue."

The third annual DeMolay Variety Show, given under the auspices of the Lincoln chapter of the Order of DeMolay, will be held at the Orpheum theater Monday and Tuesday evenings and eight clever vaudeville acts have been arranged. The program for the annual show will be featured by a headline act the "Music Store Revue," written and directed by C. L. Coombs.

Tickets have sold with exceptional ease this year due to the success of the Variety show in the past. Tickets may be obtained from any member of the local chapter for one dollar while reservations may be made at the Orpheum theater box office.

The committee in charge of the coming event announces that any single act could be used as a headliner with such favorites as the Louisiana Ragadors with Miss Harriett Cruise singing, Orville Andrews black-faced comedian, Chuck Wiles, xylophonist, and O. B. Anderson and his Y. M. C. A. tumblers on the list. John Dawson with Miss Bradshaw will give a song and dance sketch while Miss Donna Gustin has arranged a dance drama in which eighteen well known Lincoln girls will take part.

Representatives of Electric Company to Interview Engineers

Senior engineers wishing to learn of opportunities for entering the General Electric Company's organization may see M. M. Boring, representing the company of Schenectady, N. Y., in the Electrical Engineering building Tuesday. Mr. Boring is primarily interested in interviewing the electrical and mechanical engineers.

W. E. Byerts, representing the same company, will be glad to talk with any engineering students at the Lincoln Hotel any time Monday.

REGISTRATION PERIOD WILL LAST FIVE DAYS

Students Must See Advisers and Register Before Saturday Noon.

Students now in school have from Monday until Saturday noon, January 7 to 12, to see their advisers and register for the second semester. Fees for resident students are due by college dates. Students in the College of Arts and Sciences (including pre-medics, pre-dents, and pre-laws, the School of Journalism, the School of Fine Arts) and the College of Business Administration, will pay their fees January 21 and 22. Those in the College of Agriculture, Dentistry, Engineering, Graduate, Law, Pharmacy and Teachers will pay their fees January 23 and 24.

A late fee will be charged all students who do not see their advisers by January 12, or do not pay their fees by January 24. New students will be registered from Friday until Saturday noon, January 25-26. All classes will begin Monday, Jan. 28.

Because of conflict with the program of Organized Agriculture Week at the Farm Campus, students of the College of Agriculture saw their advisers from January 3 to 5. The second semester will begin Monday, January 14, in the Agriculture College.

Final examinations for the first semester will begin Monday, January 21, and will continue through Friday, January 25.

PROFESSORS ATTEND HOLIDAY MEETINGS

Miss Louise Pound Elected Vice President of Dialect Society.

Dr. Louise Pound of the English department was re-elected chairman of the popular literature section and vice president of the American Dialect Society at the fortieth meeting of the Modern Language Association of America at Ann Arbor, Mich., December 27-29. L. C. Wimberly, also of the English department and Miss Lillian Fitzpatrick were also in attendance at this convention.

Mr. Wimberly represented a survey of "Customs, Beliefs, and Superstitions in the English and Scottish Balads" before the comparative literature group which, according to Dr. Pound, was an excellent piece of work and well given. An article on "Nebraska Place-Names" by Miss Lillian Fitzpatrick was read "by title" to the association. A paper on "The Socratic Basis of Byron's Thought" by Dr. Elizabeth Atkins, a distinguished alumna, read before the English section was declared by Dr. Pound to have made a fine impression, both as to content and delivery.

At the meeting of the American Association for Advancement of Science at Cincinnati, Professor Leva B. Walker of the botany department read an article of "Glycogen and Spore Ejection" before the mycological section, Prof. J. E. Weaver presented a paper on "Direct Measurement of Water Loss Without Disturbing the Normal Structure of the Soil," and Prof. Paul B. Sears took part in the symposium on the vegetation of Ohio, and read a paper on "Pollens Degeneration" before the genetics section.

Prof. Nels A. Bengtson, who is vice president of the Association of American Geographers, presided at the annual meeting of the National Council of Geography teachers in Cincinnati during the holidays. Miss Esther Anderson, also of the department of geography, attended this same meeting.

Dr. Louise Pound on her return from Ann Arbor was the guest, in Chicago, of Miss Carrie Neely who was Dr. Pound's tennis partner when she held the western and central western title in the woman's doubles. Professor Waker visited a short time in Elgin, Ill., with Mrs. Margaret Hannah Atchison formerly of the botany department here.

ILLINOIS: Students absent from classes immediately preceding or following vacation are excluded from the final examination in the courses from which they have absented themselves.

W. W. A. Plans Tea for Faculty and Alumnae

At the monthly meeting of the Women's Athletic Association held Wednesday the association planned a tea to be held February 15 in honor of the faculty, the W. A. alumnae, and the friends of W. A. A.

The following girls have been chosen as a committee for the tea: Rosalie Platner, chairman, Eleanor Flatemersh, Louise Fisher, and Arline Rosenberry.

A discussion concerning the sending of delegates to the national convention of Women's Athletic Associations at Berkeley, Calif., April 9 to 12 was brought up at the meeting.

NEWS LETTER SENT TO DEBATE ALUMNI

Fourteenth Annual Publication of "Think Shop" Takes form of Pamphlet.

Members of the University of Nebraska's Intercollegiate Debate Seminary (1902-1923)—there are 154 of these alumni of the "Think Shop"—"the only class on the campus that has an alumni association," received the annual holiday greeting from Prof. M. M. Fogg, organizer of the seminary and director of the School of Journalism—the Fourteenth News Letter. It is a 13,000-word letter, prefaced by pictures of "The 1923 Think Shop in Action" (U106a) and of the room where the work of the seminary was done from 1909-1916 (U107).

The News Letter, which has been mimeographed heretofore, appears this year in printed form—a 30-page pamphlet. It is No. 1 in a new series called University of Nebraska Publications, to be issued through the University Extension Division.

The 1923 news is set forth in six divisions: Twenty-second Anniversary, Establishment of the Seminary Reminiscences; News from the Think Shop and Its Activities; 1923 Debates; Extra-University Argumentation and Debate Activities; the University; and Biographical—a paragraph concerning each of the 154 members.

The high average scholarship of Nebraska debaters has been handsomely maintained this year, the letter points out. Sheldon Tefft, '22, Law '24, of Weeping Water, is the fourth debater to win the Rhodes Scholarship from Nebraska; twenty-five team members won election to Phi Beta Kappa; two-thirds of the debaters were graduated from the College of Law with membership in Order of the Coif, which elects the highest tenth of the graduating class, and Wendell Berge, '25, of Lincoln, won the $100 prize awarded by the Institute of International Education for an essay on the cancellation of the allied debts.

In fraternity representation on teams and in the Seminary Alpha Theta Chi still leads with eighteen. Delta Upsilon is second with ten; and Acacia, Phi Kappa Psi, and Silver Lynx tie for third at nine. Delta Chi has eight, Delta Tau Delta six, Bushnell Guild five. Six other fraternities have less than five.

Nebraska won twenty-one of the thirty judged debates from 1902 to 1916, securing the favorable division of sixty-five of the eighty-eight judges.

Half of the members have gone into the law. Twenty-five (including twelve college professors) are in educational work.

Nine have won fellowships, and ten have won scholarships at eastern universities. One hundred and one have taken advanced degrees.

Twenty-eight alumni are in Lincoln, eighteen are in Omaha. The undergraduate members of the seminary are:

- Wendell Berge, '25, Law '27, Lincoln.
Hugh B. Cox, '26, Lincoln.
Devon C. Eyer, Law, '26, Union City, Ind.
Bernard Gradwohl, '23, Law '24, Lincoln.
Alexander McKie, '24, Law '26, Omaha.
Welch Pogue, '24, Law '25, Grant, Iowa.
Franklin J. Potter, '24, Law '25, Lincoln.
Sheldon Tefft, '22, Law '24, Weeping Water.

Nebraska Home Economics Association will meet January 9-11 with the Organized Agriculture at the Agricultural College Campus.

HUSKERS DEFEAT MISSOURI 24-18

Nebraska Cagemen Outplay Invaders in Every Branch of Game.

SPURT IN LAST PERIOD WINS FOR CORNHUSKERS

Shooting baskets from all angles of the floor, and completely outplaying the invaders in every branch of the game the Nebraska basketball team turned back the Tigers in the opening game of the season to the tune of 24 to 18. The game was a thriller throughout and at no time did either team have a big enough lead to feel comfortable. A spurt at the end of the last period put the game on ice for the Huskers.

Nebraska started the scoring when Cozier slipped a free throw and the Tigers came back and Lester made a follow-in shot court. Goodson, who was inserted into the lineup for Nebraska at the pivot position, shot three field goals in quick succession and at the end of the first half Nebraska was leading by a 12 to 7 score.

At the start of the second frame the Tigers came back and brought the score up to 11 before Nebraska got started, then Black broke loose and dribbled down the full length of the floor and dropped in a basket. Soon after "Satchel" Volz counted two more baskets on a long shot and a follow-in.

Missouri depended entirely upon a short passing game while Nebraska used a medley of short passes and dribbling. Few long shots were attempted by either team. Each team missed some easy shots, but taken as a whole it was one of the best games that has been played in the Nebraska circles for some time.

Hays, guard on the Show-Me team was the stellar floor man for the visiting side while Lester played a good offensive game for them and was high point man, connecting for three field goals. Volz and Cozier played a mid-season game at guarding, and their floor work brought the apple down for baskets on many occasions. Few shots were allowed the Missourians within their own zone. Captain Usher and Black for Nebraska played consistent passing game each of them hitting the basket when a basket counted much. Goodson, who was in the game but half time, was high point man for the Husker quintet, with five field goals.

The next home game will be played in the Armory against the Oklahoma Sooners Monday night.

Organized Agriculture to Meet on Ag Campus

Organized Agriculture meetings will begin Monday, January 7, with the State Poultry Show at the Auditorium. The meetings on the Ag Campus will begin Tuesday and will last till Friday.

Meetings of all the important state organizations, such as the Home Economics Association, Farm Bureau Federation and Improved Livestock Breeders will be held. These meetings will be open to the general public regardless of membership in any association.

A feed will be served on Wednesday, January 9, in the Agricultural Engineering Building at 5:30 a.m. Only a limited number will be able to attend on account of the lack of place.
