WRESTLERS FACE HARD SCHEDULE

Eight Contests Are on Card of Nebraska Team This Year.

NORTHWESTERN IS FIRST OPPONENT

1924 Wrestling Schedule.
Jan. 26—Northwestern at Evanston
Febr. 1 or 2—Open
Febr. 8—University of Kansas at Lawrence.
Febr. 15—Iowa State Agricultural College at Ames.
Febr. 22—Iowa State at Lincoln.
Mar. 1—Minnesota University at Lincoln.
Mar. 7-8—Missouri Valley Championship meet at Ames.
Mar. 14-15—Western Intercollegiate meet at Chicago.

Nebraska's 1924 wrestling schedule was announced as final yesterday afternoon by Head Coach Clapp and will include five dual meets and two championship meets. Two contests are booked for Lincoln. The schedule arranged by the mat mentor for the coming season is one of the heaviest cards ever booked by the University and the '24 season promises to be the most successful in the history of the institution.

The Husker slate was not made final until late Thursday when word was received from Northwestern officials and contracts received stating the terms of the match at Evanston. Two assistants have been instructing Varsity candidates daily during the past few weeks and try-outs for representation in the initial meet against Northwestern will be held Wednesday of next week.

One mat man will be selected in each of the seven weight divisions to uphold the Cornhusker colors January 26.

The week-end following the Evanston meet is open. Coach Clapp is uncertain of financial means of booking another meet and believes that seven tough twists is enough for a single season. Should another team be added to the present schedule, it will likely be Oklahoma A. & M. since the southerners have been angling for a dual for some time.

Nebraska journeys south on February 8 to meet Kansas at Lawrence and returning to Ames to meet last year's Valley winners there.

First Home Match February 22.

The first home match of the season will not be until February 22 when Iowa comes to Lincoln. The two home meets comes together with Minnesota grappling against the the Scarlet and Cream performers March 1. The climax of the season will be marked by two strenuous championship meets. The Missouri Valley title will be decided at Ames March 7 and 8. Athletic authorities are planning to send representatives to Chicago to participate in the Western Intercollegiate wrestling championships March 14 and 15.

Members of the 1924 team of mat artists will travel nearly 3400 miles during the eight weeks of the wrestling season. Twice the representatives go to Chicago, once to Lawrence and once to Ames.

Officers Elected by Union Society

Officers of the Union Literary Society elected for the second semester follow: President, Emma Kosch; vice president, W. E. Hinze; treasurer, George Bowers; secretary, Richard Brown; critic, Edward Antrim; editor, Dene Hodges; sergeant-at-arms, Frank Starr.

Francis X. Mills is to organize a junior college to make a nine month cruise around the world, starting next September. This school will offer a full year in high school or college combined with a year of foreign travel.

Louisiana will have a new university two miles south of Baton Rouge. The institution will combine the Louisiana State University and Agricultural and Mechanical college. Designed to become one of the greatest institutions in the south, it will be opened in the fall of 1924.
