INTER-FRAT CAGE TOURNAMENT BEGINS

Phi Gams and Sig Alphas in Lead to Date; Good Games
Being Played.

DELTA SIGS FORFEIT GAME TO DELTA CHI

The inter-fraternity basketball tournament was underway yesterday afternoon with three games scheduled. The Delta Sigma Delta team forfeited the first game to the Delta Chi quintet. Phi Gamma Delta and Sigma Alpha Epsilon were winners in the two games played.

The Phi Gam team defeated the Zeta Beta Taus by the score of 19 to 6. Bernard was the star and high point man for the winners, while Ravitz played the stellar game for the losers.

The Sig Alpha team, winners of the tournament last year, looks very strong again this year. That team gave Phi Tau Epsilon the overwhelming defeat of 31 to 3. Among the features of that game was the goal which Butler of the Phi Tau team threw in the opponent's basket.

Today and Tomorrow

The games today are as follows: Sigma Nu vs. Sigma Phi Epsilon, 4:00; Alpha Gamma Rho vs. Beta Theta Pi, 4:20; Alpha Sigma Phi vs. Acacia, 5:20. Three games a day will be played until the first round of the tournament is finished.

After leave of absence for eighteen months from the University, Frank D. Keim, B. Sc. Ag. '14, M. Sc. '19, has returned from post-graduate work applying on his doctorate at Cornell University to resume duty as professor of agronomy in the College of Agriculture.

Nebraskan Reporters Apply at Office Now

Applications for reporting work on the Daily Nebraskan will be received today in the office in the basement of University hall. Applicants should leave copies of their class schedules, telephone numbers and addresses with the managing editor.

No Nebraskan Issued Without Renewal of Expired Subscription

The list of all persons whose subscriptions expired with the end of the last semester will be found elsewhere in this issue of the Daily Nebraskan. There are approximately 450 of these. No more papers will be distributed after today's issue to those who have not subscribed for the next semester.

All persons whose names appear on the list should make an effort to subscribe for the next semester, as there will be no campaign for subscriptions. The price is $1.25 a semester, undelivered and $1.50 by mail. Fraternities and sororities should attend to their subscriptions within the next two weeks. All balances must be turned in to the Daily Nebraskan office within that time.

INSTRUCTORS FURNISH PEACE PLAN BALLOTS

Voting Will Cease Thursday
Night; Checked by Registration List.

Balloting on the Bok peace plan will continue today and tomorrow. No votes will be counted after tomorrow night. Several thousand ballots have been sent to instructors to be distributed in their classes, and can be obtained from them at any time. Ballot boxes are placed in the Social Science building, the Library and in Station A in University Hall. If students cannot get ballots in their classrooms they may use the one published in the Daily Nebraskan. Students will be allowed to vote only once on the referendum. Every ballot must be signed and no votes will be counted without signatures. Every ballot will be checked with the registration list, so that any attempt to vote twice will be found. The vote on the peace plan is creating a great deal of interest throughout the country. Nearly every college and university is taking a vote on the question. Last Thursday students and faculty of Nebraska Wesleyan University voted on the plan.

HUSKER RIFLERS ELBOW OUT FOUR OPPONENTS

Three Eastern Colleges on List of Defeated; Highest 206
Below Nebraska.

Nebraska's second week of intercollegiate rifle shooting which was finished the week before examinations, and on which reports have now been received, resulted in a straight string of four victories for the Husker marksmen. Universities defeated were Michigan Aggies, Syracuse, New York, and a five-man team from the University of Delaware. The Nebraska ten-man team score was over 200 points higher than the week before and the team nearest to the Nebraska total trailed along 206 points behind the mark established by the Husker riflemen.

SKITS FOR UNI NIGHT TO BE IN BY FIRST

Selections Made Immediately;
Time for Rehearsals Left
After Return.

All skits for University Night must be in the hands of Welch Pogue, chairman, by February 1. The committee will not accept any manuscripts handed in later than that date.

The skits should not exceed eleven minutes in length, and they may be shorter. The subject matter should be of general campus interest, and should portray some angle of University life. The committee will begin selection of the skits immediately after they have been handed in, and will rush the work to completion as soon as possible in order that organizations whose stunts are accepted may begin rehearsals. The manuscripts will probably be returned by the middle of next week, which will allow plenty of time to rehearse before February 24, the night of the show.

The committee hopes to be able to accept nearly all of the skits submitted. Present plans call for about nine numbers.

University Night will be staged at the City auditorium this year, instead of at the Temple, and there will be ample accommodations for the entire student body. The auditorium seats 4000 and the business staff is beginning plans for a ticket selling campaign which will be announced soon, possibly before the end of the week.

WEDNESDAY LAST DAY FOR SENIOR PICTURES

Last Year's Photos May Be Used; Limit for Juniors
Is Past.

All seniors must have their pictures taken by Wednesday of next week if they wish them in the 1924 Cornhusker. Students who desire to use pictures taken last year at Dole's may do so but they should make arrangements for this at the studio. Several juniors have come in wanting to have their pictures taken now, but this is impossible because the engraving editors have already started to make up the panels.

The seniors should not forget to make definite appointments at the Cornhusker office when they see their names in the paper. The following list of seniors are to have their pictures taken Wednesday at Dole's studio, 1125 O street. They should call B6891, and ask for the Cornhusker office, to make their appointments.

"Thinkshop" Ready Again to Turn Out Products for Argumentation

The University of Nebraska Think Shop is again in action preparing for the intercollegiate debates with South Dakota and Iowa on March 13. The tryouts to select debaters to represent Nebraska will be held in the form of a preliminary debate and will take place within a week. Judges of the tryouts will be a committee of professors and former University debaters, all members of the Seminary in Argumentation and Debate.

The question to be debated is: Resolved, That The United States Should Prohibit Immigration for Five Years. Speaking membership on a team entitles a student to election to Delta Sigma Rho, national honorary debate fraternity.

All University students in good standing who were registered last semester may try out and they have the choice of which side they will speak on. The candidates will probably be given 8 minutes in which to present both direct and refutation arguments. Each candidate will draw lots for speaking order, and the one who gets the opening arguments on the affirmative will be given one minute less time than the others and then will be given two minutes at the end of the program for rebuttal.

It is recommended that every prospective member of the Seminary and teams keep from the start a systematic notebook. For an outline of the contents of this book they should see the bulletin board in the Seminary room, U. 106A.

The following set of instructions has been issued for the benefit of candidates.

1. Fill out today fully and clearly the Intercollegiate-Debate Seminary Biographical blank. (Former members will bring their record up to date).

2. Fill out class-schedule blank indicating: Name, college year, street address, telephone.

State clearly what your free hours are; give recitation and laboratory schedule—all engaged hours during day and evening. (Give classes and rooms).

If any outside work, tell when. Numbers of hours registered for this semester.

3. For announcements from day to day, watch the bulletin board (first floor University Hall).

4. See Seminary room (U. H. 106 A) bulletin board for instructions, headed Tools, Notebook, and Preliminary Debate.

5. Bibliography I and abstracts and Bibliography II (Nebraska High School Debating League) are at your service.

TRYOUTS FOR DANCANT BEGIN AT NOON TODAY

Donna Gustin to Judge Competitors; Will Select at Least Forty.

Try-outs for places in the Fete Dancant, annual dance recital given by the W. A. A. will be held during the noon hour today and tomorrow, January 29 and 30, in the gymnasium. Donna Gustin, who is directing the production, will judge the contestants on their sense of rhythm and general knowledge of dancing terms. Some forty girls will be needed in the recital and every girl interested in dancing is urged to try for a place.

This marks the third year for the presentation of a recital. Although no definite date has been set, it will be given within the next two months. Interest has centered around the preliminaries, and the past few days have found many girls on the gymnasium floor, practicing diligently those bits of technique that have been listed on the W. A. A. bulletin board. The event this year promises to be better and more artistic than ever.

UNI CHARTER DAY TO BE CELEBRATED

Believe High Status of Nebraska
Will Grow With Alumni Loyalty.

The University will celebrate her fifty-fifth birthday February 15. The Alumni Association plans to commemorate the event by Charter day programs to be held by the various branches. That Nebraska needs a loyal alumni body if she is to maintain her present high status and this national celebration will be held in order to further alumni loyalty.

These branches of the Association will have meetings on February 15 to be in the nature of reunions. Election of officers for the coming year will be held by many, also. The feature of all the programs will be the radio program broadcasted by the University's station. The radio program is not yet complete but will include a short talk by the Chancellor and music by the University Band and Quartette.

Alumni branches at Detroit, Mich., Chicago, Illinois, Indianapolis, Indiana, and Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, have made plans for Charter day programs as well as many county organizations over the state.

Dr. Fred Webster, chairman of the operative department of the College of Dentistry, presented a paper to the Lincoln District Dental Society, January 21, on "Mouth Examination." Doctors H. H. Waite, C. E. Brown and L. T. Hunt, members of the faculty, were among those who discussed the paper.

Wednesday Is Limit for Sorority Photos

All sorority members must have their individual pictures taken by Wednesday of this week, according to Ruth Miller, editor of the sorority section of the Cornhusker. This is necessary because the panels must be made up and sent to Minneapolis and then sent back to Lincoln before the book can be printed.

Sends Debating League Pamphlet of Subjects

A 45 page pamphlet containing abstracts of thirty-eight authoritative articles on the immigration question recently went out to members of the Nebraska high school debating league from the debating and public discussion bureau of the Extension Division of the University. This year for the first time abstracts and bibliographies are being printed instead of mimeographed as in former years. Bibliography II on the question, "Resolved, That the United States should further restrict immigrations," was included in the pamphlet, which also contained suggestions to the member-schools on the conduct of debate work for the 1924 season, and a list of available judges for the contests.

Work on compiling the bibliographies and the abstracting is done under the supervision of Prof. M. M. Fogg of the University, president of the league, by competent students of argumentation and former members of the intercollegiate debate seminary.

The Wood family is widely scattered, but it gets together once in a while on the first page.

JASZI TO SPEAK AT CONVOCATION

Former Member of Hungarian
Cabinet Here a Week
From Today.

LECTURES TO FACULTY AT CLUB IN EVENING

Prof. Oscar Jaszi, leader of the republican movement in Hungary, and former member of the cabinet of the republic of Hungary established immediately after the war, will speak to the students at a general convocation at 11:00 o'clock on Wednesday, February 6; The subject of Professor Jaszi's talk will be "Red and White Bolshevism in Hungary." All eleven o'clock classes will be excused.

Professor Jaszi's lecture will be both interesting and educational, and all, especially those students in the College of Arts and Sciences, departments of History, Political Science, and sociology, should attend. The public is also invited.

Professor Jaszi will also give a lecture at the Faculty Dinner Club at 7 o'clock in the evening. All the members of the faculty, their wives and friends are invited.

Instituted Republic

Hungary was declared an independent state following the war and Professor Jaszi was instrumental in installing a republican form of government. This faction remained in power for a scant six months when it was overthrown by the Bolsheviks. The Reds held control of state affairs for about a year when they in turn were overthrown by a new opposing force, a party uniting both Red and republican principles.

When the original post-war government was overthrown by the Bolsheviks, Professor Jaszi was exiled from the country. He came to the United States and has been giving lectures on the conditions of Europe, and especially of the Bolshevik regime in Hungary. Professor Jaszi was at one time a professor at the University in Transylvania, and later a professor of sociology at Budapest University, situated in the capital city.

Professor Jaszi lectured before the International Relations Club of Vassar, on January 12. He is not an apologist of the present political regime; he is an anti-Bolshevist but was a member of the cabinet of the Republic of Hungary established immediately after the war.
