

THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

Elections Today.

Elections Today.

VOL. XXIII—NO. 96

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA, LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1924

PRICE 5 CENTS

PICK ADDITIONAL CADET OFFICERS

Promotions and New Appointments in R. O. T. C. Are Announced.

KORNHUSKER KADET COMES OUT TODAY

Promotions and new appointments in the Nebraska unit of the R. O. T. C. were announced yesterday by Major Sidney Erickson, commandant. The appointments were made upon the recommendation of the professor of military tactics and science and were approved by Chancellor Avery. The Kornhusker Kadet will be out today. Dudley Furse is editor this semester.

The list of appointments follows:

- To be cadet major:
Herbert W. Rathskak.
- To be cadet captains:
Jay W. Anderson
John A. Cameron
Elmer M. Swengle
John W. Madden
Edward M. Buck
Amos K. Gramlich
Francis B. Millson
- To be cadet first lieutenants:
W. Harold Shultz
John Rieker
Nathaniel Foote
John H. Kellogg
Oliver Joy
Dale Skinner
Roy F. Randolph
Willard D. Dover
Philip O'Hanlon
James D. Marshall
Paul B. Zimmerman
Glen A. Dunkle
Emmett V. Maun

((Continued on Page 4))

MAY BUILD TWO MORE STORIES ON TEMPLE

Chancellor Discusses Plan in University Journal for February.

An enlarged Temple building is discussed in the Chancellor's corner of the University Journal for February. The plan calls for raising the roof above the cafeteria to provide for two additional stories.

A new east wall is to be built to stand the increased load. The other three walls will remain the same as they are strong enough now for the added weight. The cafeteria itself will be unaffected, except that more light will be admitted through the new east wall.

The exterior of the Temple as seen from the streets will be unchanged, and there will be only slight modifications in the appearance of the hallways. The expense of the proposed change will be one third as much as would be the cost of corresponding space in a new building.

Fine Arts to Have New Space.

The new space will provide additional quarters for the dramatic department, and for a studio for the fine arts classes. There will also be new dressing rooms for the Temple theater.

The Alumni association offices will be moved from the Law building to the Temple. The vacated space in the Law building will be used for general classroom purposes. There will probably be a rearrangement of the Y. M. C. A. and student pastor's rooms in the Temple.

The plan has not yet come before the regents for final approval, but has been generally commended by alumni officers, University officials, and others interested in the project.

Harvard College Offers Fellowship

Announcement has been received by Dean Carl C. Engberg of the Jacob Wertheim research fellowship for the betterment of industrial relationships, offered by Harvard college. The income from $100,000 is used for the support of original research in the field of industrial cooperation, and is open to persons who already have expert knowledge in this field. The award is for one year but may be renewed for a second year at the discretion of the committee. Application should be made to Dr. Niles Carpenter, Emerson Hall, Cambridge, Mass., not later than March 1.

ALUMNI HAVE NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH

M. S. Bacon and C. L. Rein Nearly Killed in Shooting Fracas.

A leather card case in his vest saved Minor S. Bacon, LL. B. '01, court reporter, in the shooting which threatened the life of Clifford L. Rein, A. B. '13, and killed Judge W. M. Morning, district judge, yesterday.

After firing the shot which almost instantly killed Judge Morning, Wallace G. Wallick leveled his revolver at Bacon and fired the shot which plowed through fifteen pages in the leather case, twice penetrated his vest, and caused a slight flesh wound under Bacon's arm. Death was probably prevented by the card case located in the upper left vest pocket over the heart.

Turning to Rein, who was across the room, Wallick fired a bullet that grazed the cheek of his wife's lawyer. The shot left powder marks on Rein's face, and the bullet lodged in the shutter of the window behind him.

Rein received his A. B. degree in 1913, LL. B. in 1915, and J. D. in 1920. While at the University he debated on the teams of 1910 and 1911 and was a member of Delta Sigma Rho and Silver Lynx. He was assistant to Prof. M. M. Fogg in argumentative composition, 1912-13, and assistant to Chancellor Avery 1913-15. He recently acted as a judge in selecting the 1924 debate team.

Bacon was graduated from the University in 1901. He was the court reporter in the case. He is a Lincoln lawyer and the United States examiner in chancery.

WOMEN WILL HOLD WASHINGTON PARTY

A Washington party for all freshman girls and big sisters will be given Saturday afternoon in Ellen Smith hall. Members of the Senior Advisory board will have charge of the party.

Big sisters are being urged to call their little sisters about the party and to attend it with them.

All freshman girls, especially those who are new in school this semester are invited to the party even if they should not hear from their big sisters.

An effort is being made by the board to get all freshman placed with upperclasswomen before Saturday.

Speaking Methods of Johnson Are Studied

Senator Hiram Johnson's methods as a convincing and a persuasive speaker were studied yesterday by the members of English 10, Prof. M. M. Fogg's course in Argumentative Composition.

To the professor each student will submit a written report by Wednesday morning on the workmanship of the senator—his use of testimonial evidence, his reasoning, and his methods in the field of persuasion—adapting material to the audience.

This "clinical" study of the work of eminent speakers will be continued during the year as occasion offers and during the campaign next fall, Professor Fogg announced.

HAMILTON HOLT TO ADDRESS STUDENTS

Will Give Three Lectures in Interest of League of Nations.

Hamilton Holt, former editor of the Independent, now speaking in the interest of the league of nations, will arrive in Lincoln today and deliver three lectures on the campus; one to University women at Vespers this afternoon at 5 o'clock in Ellen Smith hall, another Wednesday noon at the world forum luncheon at the Grand hotel, and a third Thursday morning at an all-University convocation in the Temple.

At the Vesper meeting Ruth Virtue will preside and the choir will sing 'At Even E'er the Sun Will Set' A string trio composed of Mary Creekpau, cello, Mary Ellen Edgerton, violin, and Harriet Cruse, piano, will furnish special music. Hostesses for the services will be Ethel Bulick, Alice Cook, Mary Cameron, Arline Rosenberry, Helen Schwager and Eleanor Keating.

Speaking at convocation yesterday and later at the city auditorium, Senator Hiram Johnson said that he admired Mr. Holt and that he felt that Holt was a worthy opponent who fought out in the open. The California senator characterized Holt as "intellectually honest" and "a gallant fighter" who always states his honest convictions.

Dr. Curry Leaves for Oklahoma University

Dr. Bruce Curry, who has been conducting groups for the purpose of teaching how to study the Bible, left Sunday night for Oklahoma University. As a result of his visit several new discussion groups are to be started.

MAY STILL ENTER FRATERNITY MEET

First Events Come This Afternoon; Postponement Caused By Weather.

SEVENTEEN TEAMS SIGN FOR CONTEST

On account of the bad weather the opening of the interfraternity track meet was postponed until today. The time for entries has been extended until 2 o'clock.

Present entries for the second annual interfraternity track meet include only seventeen organizations. With the meet postponed until today and time for entries extended until 2 o'clock today, the fraternities not entered may still do so. The Monday events will be run off today and the rest of the meet will be run in the usual order. Today's events consist of the 440 yard dash and the broad jump.

Hope to Have More Entries.

Coch Schulte expressed hopes that the fraternities that have not yet entered will take advantage of this extension of time. Up to date, the number signed up for the meet falls short of the number registered last year.

The fraternities entered are: Acacia, Alpha Tau Omega, Beta Theta Pi, Delta Upsilon, Delta Tau Delta, Bushnell Guild, Farm House, Phi Delta Chi, Phi Tau Epsilon, Phi Gamma Delta, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Silver Lynx, Kappa Sigma, Phi Kappa Psi, Sigma Nu, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Alpha Sigma Phi.

COMMITTEE NAMED FOR EDDY MEETINGS

Make Preparations for Talks of Noted Student and Lecturer.

In preparing to receive Sherwood Eddy when he comes to the University April 9, 10 and 11, Monroe D. Gleason, chairman, has appointed the following committees:

Helen Guthrie, chairman, women's committee; Ray Eller, chairman, men's committee; Francis Mentzer, chairman, women's houses committee; Merle Loder, chairman, men's houses committee; Arthur Whitworth and Helen Guthrie, joint chairmen, meeting places and hospitality committee; Herbert Brownell and Emmett V. Maun, joint chairmen, publicity committee; Lois Thompson, chairman, Mrs. Eddy meetings; Harold Edgerton, chairman, luncheon committee.

Crawford Folmer, Welch Pogue, Frances Weintz, joint chairmen. Information to faculty committee: Marion Woodard, business manager. Harry Pecha, Blanchard Anderson, Bennett Martin, Robert Shields, joint chairmen, organization in classes committee; Glen Curtis, chairman, parade committee; Amy Martin and Dietrich Dierks, joint chairmen, music committee; Deans C. C. Engberg, Amanda Heppner, LeRossignol and Buck and Dr. Winifred Hyde, faculty committee.

Grace Spacht, Clifford Hicks, William Alstadt, Gertrude Tomson, and Rev. Harry Huntington, ex-officio members; Harold Holtz, chairman, alumni committee.

To Appoint Others.

Other members will be appointed to work it, Gleason stated yesterday. By the time the committees are complete, it is hoped that as large and as representative a committee as possible will be working to make Sherwood Eddy's visit to Nebraska even more successful than it was two years ago.

"I want it to be understood that no organization is bringing Mr. Eddy here," Gleason stated. "He is coming here as a guest of the University of Nebraska, and he is coming here to tell the students about world problems. I hope that every student will feel vitally interested in Mr. Eddy's mission and will take a sincere interest in the thought that he expresses in his talks."

Names of other committeemen will be announced the latter part of the week. As soon as all are chosen, a meeting will be held to organize and start work in interest of the coming of Sherwood Eddy to Nebraska.

Weather Forecast

Partly cloudy Tuesday and not much change in temperature for Lincoln and vicinity was the prediction of the weather bureau Monday afternoon. Rain or snow was predicted for Nebraska for Tuesday.

JOHNSON SPEAKS AT CONVOCATION

Address Deals With Both Foreign Relations and Domestic Questions.

"Isolated from the rest of the world? We never will be. There is just one sort of isolation necessary—isolation from European diplomacy, feuds, and wars!" proclaimed Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California, republican candidate for the presidential nomination, to an overflow audience of students in the Temple theater Monday morning at 11 o'clock.

The senator ridiculed the proposed world court and the Mellon tax plan, and related the history of the Teapot Dome scandal. Dr. Paul H. Grummann introduced the speaker. The Student Republican club was instrumental in arranging the convocation.

"Utterly futile," was Senator Johnson's opinion of the world court. In support of this assertion he quoted from the president: "A covenant instrumentality to which we may go, but to which we cannot be brought."

Sneaking in the back door of the league of nations was his classification and condemnation of the proposed act of entering the world court. The Hague tribunal is functioning today with a greater jurisdiction than this "pseudo court," the senator said.

Describes Teapot Dome Scandal.

The recent disclosure in Washington of the transfer by Secretary of the Navy Denby of oil reserves for national emergency to Secretary of the Interior Fall and the latter's subsequent leasing of the reserves to the Sinclair and Doheny interests shook the confidence of the people in the public service, the speaker asserted.

Loss to the government through these leases, whether they were corruptly or honestly made, should warrant removal of every official connected with the transfer, Mr. Johnson insisted. He characterized the leases as tainted, charging that "private interests do not bribe officers of government to bring profit unto the government."

"I read that it is necessary to reduce high surtaxes to put money into productive enterprise. But I also read that 1423 was a peak year in American industry," Senator Johnson stated in commenting on the Mellon tax-reduction plan. "Reconcile these two statements if you can."

"Monarchs used to detract the attention of the people by providing foreign wars. In modern times we indulge in an appeal to their cupidity hoping they will forget everything domestic and international as well," was the senator's opening on the Mellon plan.

Attacks Mellon Tax Plan.

Figures on the savings to large incomes under the Mellon plan, and other evidence, were submitted by Mr. Johnson as proof that wealth and big corporation advocated the plan, gave it publicity, and would profit most under it, rather than the man with an income of less than $10,000.

"Everybody believes in tax reduction. The only question is whether the nation shall keep faith," was Senator Johnson's reference to soldiers' bonus. In 1918, he said big business demanded adjusted compensation on contracts because of sudden cessation of hostilities, and was paid about three billions of dollars.

The adjusted compensation claim could be met, the tax on incomes of $10,000 and less could be materially reduced below that outlined in the Mellon plan, and 150 millions of surplus would still be in the national treasury, the senator estimated.

Relief for the hard-hit farmer was promised by Mr. Johnson. He deplored the action of the republican national committee when it rescinded its action that cut the appointive delegations from Mississippi and South Carolina to the national convention to a more proportionate comparison with that from northern states which elect them directly.

TO ELECT CLASS OFFICERS TODAY

Four Presidents and Publication Board Members Will Be Chosen.

HOLD REFERENDUM ON POINT SYSTEM

CLASS OFFICERS.
Senior president—Wm. G. Altstadt, Dietrich Dirks, Grant Lantz.
Junior president—Roland Eastabrooks, Bennet S. Martin.
Sophomore president—Reginald Everett, Pauline Barber, Harry D. Burke.
Freshman president—Millard Gump, Archibald J. Weaver.
Ivy Day orator—Harris A. Poley, Clifford M. Hicks.
PUBLICATION BOARD.
Junior—Arthur A. Whitworth, Arthur J. Latta.
Sophomore—Donald M. Reese, Jack Hunton.
Freshman—Joe Weir, Harold Grosshans.

Elections for class presidents, Ivy Day orator, and publication board positions will be held today. The polls in the student council office in the basement of the Administration building will be open from 9 until 4 o'clock. Students of the College of Agriculture will be required to vote in Dean Burnett's office on their own campus. All other students must vote on the city campus.

Eligibility for class offices will hereafter be determined solely on a basis of credit hours regardless of the college or year of the candidate according to a decision made at a meeting of the Student Council last evening. In the past a great deal of trouble has been caused because of the confusion resulting from rather indefinite eligibility rules. All students will vote on this basis also. This means that freshman law students will vote on the city campus.

THREE SCHOOLS LOSE TO HUSKER RIFLEMEN

Only Nebraska Defeat Comes From North Carolina Team.

Husker marksmen went on a shooting rampage last week, amassing a total of 3694 points and defeating Dennison university by the overwhelming margin of 745, Cincinnati university by 607, Dayton university by 395, and the Uni of Iowa by 174. D. P. Roberts was stellar performer for the Nebraska team. His score for the week was 384. Close behind him were W. Lamml and Dale Skinner, each with a mark of 382.

Reports from the week previous trailed in, bringing with them news of Nebraska victories over the University of South Dakota, and Mississippi A. and M. University. One school, North Carolina A. M., succeeded in knocking out more bulls eyes than the Huskers. The squirrel shooters from the revenue hunters' state made a score of 3717, 66 points more than Nebraska.

The North Carolina victory was the second defeat of Nebraska this year. The other school, Rhode Island state, outfired Nebraska earlier in the season by 85 points.

A string of eighteen victories marked by only two defeats is the record of the Husker rifle team so far this year. Schools that have fallen before Nebraska riflemen are Yale, Syracuse, Delaware, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, New Hampshire, Michigan Aggies, New York university, College of the city of New York, Porto Rico, Virginia Military institute, St. Johns college, Pennsylvania military college, Mississippi A. and M., South Dakota, Cincinnati, Iowa, Dayton, and Dennison.

The shooting this week is against Chicago University, Illinois, Michigan and Knox College.

Team captain Latelle DeFord wants all freshman who will be in the Heurst trophy matches to start intensive practice immediately. The matches will be fired within the next two or three weeks. There will be three teams representing Nebraska.

Vote Today

Polls Open 9 to 4

BASEMENT ADMINISTRATION BUILDING ON CITY CAMPUS.

BEAN BURNETT'S OFFICE, AG CAMPUS.

Election of Class Officers and Publication Board.