THE GLEE CLUB

University night has come and gone. Some of the acts were very good, and deserve a great deal of praise.

The Glee Club skit, "Robin Hood at Nebraska," was a revelation. Here is a University organization that is little heard of, and it goes through the year minding its own business.

DR. ALEXANDER'S NEW BOOK. Dr. Hartley Barr Alexander is the author of "Nature and Human Nature," a new book published by the Open Court Publishing Company.

THE COLLEGE PRESS. THE PLASTIC AGE (N. Y. University News) Mr. Upton Sinclair, some short time ago, focused on the college of America his famous iconoclastic searchlight.

NOTICES. Annual Methodist Banquet. Tuesday, February 26, 6-8 o'clock, Grand hotel.

RAG CARPET Assistance! Sucker!

He—Why don't you speak to me, dear. She—I went to University night.

"But why didn't you throw a life-saver to the drowning man?" "But, my dear fellow, it had a hole in it."

"What system of finance does your son at college use?" "The touch system, mostly."

Many a person has received a cold shoulder from the butcher.

"Did you hear about the horrible murder?" "What?" "Tim hung his frat pin Saturday night."

with Miss Edith Ross, in the University School of Music, will give a studio recital Tuesday.

Lutheran Club. The Lutheran club will have a supper Tuesday at 6:15 at the Y. M. C. A. Ticket may be secured from the club officers.

And a dead beat is one that passes at least two mortuaries and a cemetery.

Geog. Prof.—Will you please point to Lincoln? Stupid—I've lost the place.

Probation at least gives one the experience of working on night shifts.

"Why don't you drop that course?" "I would, but the men are so good looking."

Sir Conan Doyle says that after death we all follow our vocations in a more spiritual sense. What about the coal men?

This being leap year, the question is "Where's the man?"

Michigan, 24 to 20, and Ohio States decisive win over Wisconsin, in the Big Ten basketball association.

The Boilermakers lead only by a small margin and they are closely pressed by Chicago, which took a hard fought game from Indiana, 26 to 25.

Ohio and the Badgers are now tied for third place, Indiana is fourth and the Wolverines fifth.
