

TELLS OF FACTS OF PAS-SAGE OF PROHIBITION AND GIVE RECOMMENDATIONS

ratified are Rhode Island and Connecticut, and in each of them, one house of the legislature has passed favorably. Thus, ninety-four out of ninety-six legislative houses have approved the amendment.

7. The movement which resulted in the eighteenth amendment began in 1851 when the first state adopted prohibition—seventy-two years ago.

8. When the United States entered the war, twenty-six states had voted "dry." Over 85 per cent of our area inhabited by 60,000,000 people was "dry" territory.

9. No other amendment to the federal constitution was ever discussed so widely over so long a time, and no other amendment was adopted by so large a vote.

Does that look as if something had been "put over?" The plain facts are that the "wet" forces haven't any other argument left. They realize the hopelessness of their fight. I quote Senator Carter Glass of Virginia:

"If they (the wets) would stop to consider for an instant that the saloon in America was abolished by the influence of the women, without the vote, how can they ever expect to restore it now that the women have got the vote?"

Know Repeat Hopeless.

The most optimistic "wets" know that repeal is hopeless so they have taken their last stand to break down the amendment by violation.

Of course, the average student does not stop to think when he patronizes the bootlegger that he is playing into the hands of the most sinister political influence in America, but that is exactly what he is doing. He is being duped by those who are undermining the very constitution itself. He is aiding and abetting the enemies of our government.

The conference adopted a rather lengthy report containing concrete suggestions to improve the campus situation. In the eastern schools, especially, intensive campaigns will be staged to arouse the students to their citizenship obligations. I quote only a few of the conference recommendations:

1. Inform students and faculty members concerning the facts about the passage of the eighteenth amendment.

2. Widespread understanding of the underlying philosophy of government of which the eighteenth amendment is an expression.

3. Arouse a sense of responsibility among athletic coaches, fraternity presidents, and various student groups which represent leadership.

4. A thorough discussion in student forums of the present condition of law observance and an appraisal of the resources available.

5. Assistance in various local political campaigns where we are citizens especially in insisting that candidates for office commit themselves for law observance and law enforcement.

6. Arouse college authorities to a sense of their responsibilities in this connection.

7. Recognizing the great influence of the alumni, we believe that each college should appeal to its alumni and invite their co-operation in all appropriate ways.

8. Enlist an even larger co-operation among college women to exert their influence for law observance and good citizenship.

Are You a Winner— or a Loser?

YOU have undoubtedly chosen to be a winner. You are training your mind and strengthening your will.

But what of your body? Will it sustain you when the race becomes fast and strenuous?

To keep in a winning condition, you must exercise every muscle and organ in the body. The fuel-supplying organs—the stomach and the digestive organs—need exercise in the form of digesting rough foods such as: whole-wheat bread, bran, and hard cereals.

Grape-Nuts not only exercises these fuel-supplying organs, but its nutritive elements of whole-wheat and malted barley, toasted to a nutty crispness, make it the most delicious breakfast food you have ever tasted.

For a well-balanced diet, try Grape-Nuts—four teaspoonfuls sprinkled with sugar, half cream and half milk. You will call for it every morning. There's a reason.

The ivy won't save any of us

THE ivy of tradition is a slender support. A man or a team or a college that clings to it, harking back to the glories of yesterday, is likely to be outstripped by some young but sturdy rival.

That is a sermon we have taken home to ourselves.

The Western Electric Company is proud of its fifty-four years of history. But it is a great deal more concerned with the next fifty-four—and that is why we have been talking to the college men of America month after month now for four years.

The future of this business depends not so much on the physical equipment we have built up as on the mental equipment which men of your generation are building—on your habits of study and conduct, on your right choice of a profession and your proficiency in it. So we have made suggestions for your guidance, with the conviction that they can help you—and us.

This company, with its laboratories, its distributing organization and its great telephone factory—in every respect a modern industry and in many respects a leader—will have openings from time to time for men who can qualify.
