

HUSKERS MAKE GOOD SHOWING

one-tenth of a second faster than the time made in the regular university heat which was won by Evans of Illinois in 10 seconds flat. Irvin of Kansas was second, and Locke, of Nebraska was third. Locke was leading at the finish of the race but slowed down a bit to look back, and this allowed the Illinois and Kansas men to speed by him.

The Nebraska mile relay team composed of Bloodgood, Whipperman, Hein and Crites was second in their section of the mile relay. Illinois was first in another section with a time of 3:21.5.

Turner tied for third in the high jump which was won by Poor of Illinois at a height of 6:3. This was one inch lower than the mark made by him at the Kansas relays last week, and was the same mark made by Turner at Kansas.

The Husker two-mile team composed of Crites, Lewis, Higgins, and Gardner came out fourth in the two-mile relay race. The four-mile team made up of Slemmons, Ross, Zimmerman, and Cohen was fifth. Illinois was first with a time of 18:12.

Hatch, Nebraska broad jumper, placed fifth in the broad jump with 21 feet 6 inches. Hubbard of Michigan, winner of this event, jumped 24 feet 2 inches.

Davis, Nebraska pole vaulter, went out at 11 feet 6 inches. McKown of Kansas State Teachers college was first with 13 feet.

Red Layton, running unattached in another race, placed sixth in a special quarter-mile dash. Wilson of Illinois was first at a time of 49:9 seconds.

Scholl of Minnesota won two first places, hurling the discus 128 feet, 5 inches, and throwing the javelin 196 feet and 9 inches.

Two races in which Nebraska did not place were the two-mile relay won by Northwestern, and the 120-yard hurdles won by Kinsey of Illinois.

Mr. John W. Gorby, vice president of the National Transportation Institute, will speak on "The Transportation Problem and Its Solution" Wednesday morning at 9 in Social Science auditorium. Mr. Gorby is on a speaking tour of the country.

CHOOSE PATRONNESSES FOR KOSMET COMEDY

Practices for the comedy have been held almost daily since the first of March, under the direction of Cyril L. Coombs, author of the play. The first full rehearsal was held Wednesday and one will be held every night this week. A dress rehearsal will be held Thursday evening.

"The Wishing Ring" is a three-act musical comedy, written by Cyril L. Coombs, author of "The Yellow Lantern," 1923 Kosmet play. It contains eighteen song hits, composed by Mr. Coombs and arranged by August Dietz. Four songs, "The Wishing Ring," "All Day Long," "When I Waltz With You," and "Dear Ole Virginia," will be published in popular song form and sold at both performances for thirty cents each.

Special scenery and lighting effects have been arranged. The cast includes over sixty students with Marguerite Munger and Ward Wray appearing in the two leads.
