

Attractions That are Startling and Booths to Satisfy Hunger are Promised for Fair Midway

Jal Olson will present his minstrels, the "Foot and Mouth Acrobats of Darkey-land," at the Farmers Fair Saturday. Jal says he has four of the "fastest steppers in Jazzland," the volume, harmony, and pep displayed by the Coon chorus being unsurpassed. Then there is the "Nut Cracker Party," which promises to be a most comical coon act.

How did Rastus happen to steal his first chickens? Jal Olson's minstrels will explain Saturday.

The Coon station agent who sells tickets at a discount for cash will explain how he does it.

Mammy Rastus has fourteen children but she declares emphatically that her family "am not so large." Anyway, Mammy will perform with Jal Olson's minstrels Saturday.

Jal claims that he has a lot of trouble in keeping his patrons from laughing too much. "It is easy for the minstrels to make people laugh, but mighty hard for me to keep them from laughing too much," declares Jal.

The Snorpheum has six big acts of vaudeville to present. The man with the high soprano voice, and the laughing songsters are among the acts to be given. The last act will be a style show in which living models will gracefully display an array of gowns and dresses made by the home economics department.

The Cornfield Follies is a new feature of the Farmers fair. Harmonious dancing including the Butterfly dance are special features. "Campus Life" is another interesting offering. The inside story of the Teapot Dome scandal will be given out by the Cornfield Follies company. The vocal thrillers, a male quartette which travels with this company, will entertain the audieefees between acts.

Speaking of the Teapot Dome scandal, the Follies' management claims to have more scandal rounded up to present to the fair visitors on Saturday than has ever been imparted by any other single group of human beings, not excluding that "famous organization of gossiping women." Out of a huge snail-like affair of a horn called "The Scandal," appear the bearers of the astounding tales.

A large ox will be slaughtered by the barbeque committee and the choicest sirloin steaks, T-bone steaks, flank steaks, and round steaks will be served to the waiting patrons. Buns will be furnished with these steaks and there will be coffee for those who wish it. The committee is planning for enough to feed ten thousand hungry faces.

All kinds of lunches and dinners will be served at "The Purple Goose Tea Shop, which will be in the home economics cafeteria. The tea shop will be the popular concession place during meal time. It will be opened at 4:30 p. m. and will remain open until 7:00. Many pretty waitresses have been hired to give quick and quiet service.

"Direct from the frying pan to the stomach" is the slogan on the Doughnut Stand. Doughnuts are to be served all afternoon and evening. They will be made and fried as they are ordered. Milk, coffee, coco malt, or pop will be served for refreshments.

"Let your conscience be your guide when you step into the Yellow Dog Saloon," warns the bar-tender. Drinks, drinks, drinks for the thirsty and eats, eats, eats for the hungry—that is the Yellow Dog from one end of the country to the other. The management promises to feed food that feeds and serve drinks that quench.

AG FACULTY TO STAGE YELLOW DOG INITIATION

Plans to Entertain Omaha Chapter of Organization at Farmers Fair.

Farmers fair visitors will find that there is no relation between the Yellow Dog saloon and Cornhusker Kennel 237 of the Independent and Effervescent Order of Yellow Dogs. One is an innocent, soft-drink dispensary operated entirely by students. The other is an equally innocent faculty organization, founded by the late Theodore Roosevelt, to promote good fellowship among his associates while he was assistant secretary of the Navy.

Both will be in operation on the Agriculture campus during the fair Saturday. The Cornhusker Kennel reception committee headed by Prof. H. P. Davis and aided by H. P. Kauffman and other prominent Lincoln railway officials, will meet the guests and take them to the College of Agriculture.

After refreshments the visitors will probably present candidates for admission to the order. The initiation work will be done by J. O. Rankin, Chief Cur; S. W. Alford, Leader of the Mongrels; H. M. Martin, Custodian of the Bone; H. J. Young, Custodian of the License Tag; and L. V. Skidmore, Custodian of the Scent. Past Chief H. P. Davis and C. W. Ackerson, Past-Chief Curs, will also help with the initiation.

WILL GIVE "FOREST PRINCESS" AT FAIR

Girls of Home Economics Department to Present Play on Ag Campus.

"The Forest Prince" is an open-air pageant to be presented as a free attraction at the Farmers fair Saturday and will be shown in the space just south of the home economics building with its appropriate setting and background of evergreens and natural scenery.

The cast includes over sixty girls of the home economics department and will be a feature of the fair that will prove a large attraction to all visitors. The pageant will be given twice, the opening performance at 2:30 in the afternoon and the evening performance at 7:00.

The performance has been under the direction of David Lindstrom of the University Players. The music is directed by Belma Timmerman of University Place, and Mary Bailey. Rpyby Simpson is general chairman and Miss Bess Steele is faculty adviser. Dancing is directed by Julia Street.

Campus Togs

Clothes for Young Men

Why we advertise our quality Nationally

Our advertising efforts are on a large scale—as the number of cities in which we advertise emphasizes—from coast to coast, north to south.

Our window displays and magazine pages in color are other supplementary agencies of attractive publicity as are also the college dailies.

We have adopted the use of publications which have wide and general circulation, to acquaint as many men as possible with the high standard of our clothes and thereby win public confidence in the Campus Togs label which identifies our product. We recognize that with national distribution our customers represent a national audience and we want to apprise the public first hand of the security in buying clothes with our label sewn in the inside pocket.

We don't sell every merchant in the country, but neither can any other manufacturer have access to such service to the public, in view of the competitive condition surrounding the giving of confined sale to merchants in various localities.

There are a lot of clothing manufacturers, but only a few standard lines that establish the barometer of quality and value which identify them as feature lines. We are one of these standard lines and with thirty-five years of reputation behind us, our guarantee of satisfaction is a substantial fortification in the selection of clothes which measure high for genuine service and thorough satisfaction.

We guarantee our clothes
