

HIGH SCHOOL DEBATERS WHO WILL MEET HERE IN ANNUAL CONTEST
(Continued from page 1)

Omaha Central (Eastern District)

David Iellman, '25, was member of the freshman class and junior interclass debate teams, is president of the Mathematics society; and is member of the Speakers Bureau. He intends to prepare for law.

Sam D. Minkin, '24, is member of the senior team that won the interclass debate championship this year. He plans to study law.

David Sher, '24, has for three years been member of the high-school debate teams; is member and coach of the champion senior interclass debate team; is winner of the extemporaneous speaking contest of the East Nebraska District this year; is business manager of the "Register," the school weekly, and of the "O" Book, the school annual. He also lieutenant in the cadet regiment, is member of the Speakers' bureau, of the Senior Hi-Y society and of the National Honor society. He will study law at the Harvard Law School.

Gerald Vasak, '24, (alternate), is third member of the champion senior interclass debate team and is member of the high school extemporaneous-speaking team. He has an excellent record in scholarship. He will study law.

Lincoln (East Central District)

Otho K. De Vilbris, '24, member of the interclass champion debate team for two years, has represented the school in interscholastic debates for three years. He is president of the Student Council and of his class and is member of the Forum debating society. He intends to study law at the University of Nebraska.

John Skiles, '24, has been a member of the interclass champion debate team four years. He has been on the school team one year. He is member of the Mummies and of the Forum and took part in the junior play. He will attend the University of Nebraska to prepare for the law.

Evert Hunt, '24, has represented the school in debate one year. He has been member of the interclass champion debate team two years. He is member of the Mummies, Orpheus Club, and the Glee club, and took part in the junior play. He also intends to enter the University of Nebraska to study law.

Don Underwood, '25, has been member of the school team one year. He is member of the Forum, Mummies, Orpheus club, and is president of his class.

Albion (North-Central District)

Francis H. Whalen, '24, who has been in argumentation and debate work two years, has a scholarship of the annual, treasurer of the Girl Reserves club, member of the Honor "A" club; and has been in dramatic work two years. She will attend the University of Nebraska next year to prepare for teaching.

Lloyd V. Clark, '24, who also has a scholarship average of 95 per cent, has been in argumentation and debate work for one year. He is president of the Hi-Y club and of the Honor "A" club, and has taken part in dramatics and athletics two years. He intends to study law at the University of Nebraska.

Charles E. Whalen, '24, who has made his high school course in three and a half years, has been in debate work one year. His scholarship is 95 per cent. He is secretary of the Honor "A" club, and has taken part in dramatics and athletics two years. He will prepare for medicine at the University of Nebraska.

Ethel M. Oliverus, '24, (alternate), completed the high school course in three and a half years with an average of 95 per cent. She has been in debate work one year and in dramatic work two years. She is member of the annual staff and of the Honor "A" club. She will take up dramatics at the University of Nebraska.

Wayne (Northeastern District)

Wills Ickler, '24, in the two years has been on the debating teams and has taken part in seven debates, of which his team won five. He will attend Wayne Teachers College, where he will prepare for law.

Thelma Peterson, '24, has been in debate work one year. She plans to attend the Wayne State Teachers College, taking the normal course.

William Johnson, '25, came to Wayne from Evanston, Ill. He has been in debate work one year, taking part in two debates.

Superior (Southern District)

Paul Montgomery, '24, has debated two years and has taken a prominent part in other school activities. He expects to enter Nebraska Wesleyan next fall.

George Johnson, '24, has completed the high school course in three years. He has been in argumentation and debate work three years. He is active in other school affairs. He will enter the University of Nebraska next fall to prepare for law.

Lloyd Speer '25, has been in debate work for two years. He is an honor student.

Pawnee City (Southern District)

Harold Bosiey, '24, has been member of the debate team three years. He is prominent in school dramatic work and is member of the staff of the annual. He intends to teach the next two years.

Charles Calhoun, '25, is debating this year for the first time. He is active in school entertainments. He is president of his class.

Archie Martin, '24, has debated only one year. He will teach next year.

John Molan, '25, (alternate), has been member of the team one year. Nebraska School of Agriculture, Curtis (Southwestern District)

Sheldon Wincert, '24, has been prominent in school activities, taking part in the senior play and making his letter in football. He has high rank in scholarship and intends to continue his studies at the University of Nebraska.

Frank Darner, '24, has made an honor record in scholarship. He took part in the senior play. He will enter the University of Nebraska next fall.

Howard Hinton, '24, is member of the judging team that won the championship of the National Western Stock Show at Denver in January. He ranks high in scholarship, and intends to enter the University of Nebraska.

James Hiner, '24, (alternate), is captain of football team and member of the National Western Stock judging team. He is a member of the basketball team and president of the high-school Y. M. C. A. He will enter the University of Nebraska.

Comstock (West-Central District)
The Comstock debaters are Martha Comstock, Verna Fretz, and Edward Redja.

Elmcreek (Western District)

Fred Barber, '24, valedictorian, has been in debate work two years. He has taken an active part in declamatory work two years. He is going to a military school and intends to study law.

Margaret Yoder, '24, is in debate work for the first time. She has participated in dramatic work and has been member of the basketball team two years. Her scholarship average is high. She is planning to attend Kearney State Teachers College to prepare for teaching.

Forbes Carter, '24, who has taken part in debates for two years, ranks high in scholarship. He is interested in dramatic work and is member of the basketball team. He will attend Kearney State Teachers College and is going into law.

Ray McFarland, '24, (alternate), has been in debate work two years. He intends to go to Kearney State Teachers College and will study law.

Perkins County High School, Grant (Western.)

Helen L. Kraus, '24, who has been in debate work one year, won the honorary scholarship letter for two semesters. She won first place in the local declamatory contest and third in the sectional contest. She has been member of the basketball team two years. She completes the high-school course in three years and plans to go to the University of Nebraska.

Mary Edna Mowry, '26, has been in debate work one year. She won the honorary scholarship letter three semesters and has taken part in basketball and track contests.

Leonard Wood, '24, won the honorary letter both semesters he has been at Grant. He has had one year of debate work. He will enter the college of Business Administration, University of Nebraska.

Henry Beahell, '24, (alternate), won the honorary scholarship letter four semesters. He has been in argumentation and debate work one year. He has taken part in basketball contests for two years and in track contests three years. He will enter the University of Nebraska.

GIRLS—Here is where to get your curls.

Beauty shop in the Bank of Commerce building. Hours from 8 to 9 by appointment. Phone L5255.

Townsend—Portrait photographer

RENT-A-FORD—Shove it yourself
Munson Motor Co., phones B1550 and B1517. 1125 P Street.

LOST—Kappa key Monday morning. Call Margaret Nelson.

This advertisement, submitted by J. C. Beesley, Jr., of Princeton University, was awarded fourth prize in the Postum Cereal Company's intercollegiate advertising contest.

Now I ask you—

When you
Oversleep and Miss breakfast
And haven't
But about
Ten or fifteen

Minutes to Get to class
And you
Throw your Clothes on and Run to the Nearest rest'rant

And order a

Big bowl of
POST TOASTIES
And cream—
You don't
Have to wait
As it's always

Ready to Serve—
And you
Hurriedly eat
Those delicious
Crispy flakes

And then
Get to class

Just on time
And in a
Good humor
Because You've had
A little

Extra sleep
And a most Delightful and Gratifying
Breakfast
OH BOY!

Ain't it
WONDERFUL!?

"Lower the Cost of Dressing Well"
KIRSCHBAUM CLOTHES

Sport Suits will be very popular this season

A type of garment particularly suited to active men and young men. Made for us with the accustomed perfection in the Kirschbaum Shops. Four-piece models—coat, vest, trousers and knickers—and shown in an unusually handsome variety of fabrics. Priced moderately—at less than you would expect to pay for such splendid quality.

$30 to $50

Rudge & Guenzel Co

Store for Men on N

A BIG willing companion for every note book

ACTUAL SIZE
You like to grasp a pen like this. It's big. It's husky. It looks strong, reliable, long-lived. And it is.

This new Wahl Signature Pen is a wonder for college work. It never needs prompting. You don't have to shake it. Touch that flexible point to paper and the ink starts with your thought.

The Wahl Comb Feed regulates the flow so perfectly that the ink never floods. The ink capacity is enormous.

And the everlasting nib—it's a marvel. It suits itself to any writing style. Just seems made for your hand. It is heavy 14-karat gold. Tipped with the hardest and finest grade of iridium that money can buy. Experts say this everlasting nib is the finest made.

Another big idea—clipped in pocket, purse, shirt-front, or notebook, the Wahl Signature Pen will not leak. The patented cap-construction assures this. The gold band you see around the cap prevents splitting.

There are two big sizes at $7 and $5—one for men, one for women. Ask for the Wahl Signature Pen. Other Wahl Pens from $2.50 up.

Made in the U. S. A. by THE WAHL CO., Chicago

WAHL
Signature PEN

Copyright 1925 The Wahl Co.