ENTER 250 MEN IN TRACK MEET

Two Special Races on Card for Sixteenth Annual Valley Tourney.

COACH SCHULTE MAKES STATEMENT ON CONTEST

Schulte's Statement.
Friday preliminaries and Saturday finals for the Missouri Valley championship will be the biggest event ever put on in the state of Nebraska—in fact, the whole Valley, exclusive of the Drake relays.

A great football game brings together the twelve or fifteen best men of the two contending universities. The Valley track meet will bring together the carefully trained dozen or more men from all the universities in the Valley and outstanding stars from several of the smaller colleges. With such spectacular performers as we have in the Valley this year, and with the great Joie Ray, Watson and Riley, all of whom are out for records, there is no question as to the quality of the meet.

Incidentally, Nebraska is running this meet for the Valley. If we lose money the Valley schools carry the loss. That is a tradition in the Valley. For this reason season tickets and N men's passes are not accepted. (I am going to observe the tradition myself, and buy tickets.)

But bear this in mind: The meet as an attraction will be as great as the Notre Dame-Nebraska game.

Yours for Nebraska,
HENRY F. SCHULTE.

With 264 men entered for the sixteenth annual Missouri Valley track and field championships and such great runners as Joie Ray and Ray Watson, in a special distance race with Riley and Levi in a special 400-meter race hurdle race, the meet according to all indications will be the history of the Valley. The nine members of the Missouri Valley conference and seven non-conference colleges to be represented will furnish thrills equal only to that of the Notre Dame game.

Riley is the present American Intercollegiate champion in the 400 meter hurdles. He won the event at the great Penn relays this spring. John Levi, from Haskell Institute, is considered a great possibility for the Olympic team, and is thought to be a greater athlete than the world-renowned James Thorpe, the Carlisle Indian athlete.

CADETS HOLD BANQUET TO MAKE CAMP PLANS

Chairmen of Nebraska Units Going to Fort Snelling Are Elected.

The first meeting of cadets going to Fort Snelling this summer was held last night at a dinner at the Grand hotel. Plans were discussed for camp and for winning first place from Missouri. Charles Caldwell was elected general chairman in charge of the Nebraska detachment, and Emmett V. Maun was elected chairman of the advanced course division. Emmett Junge was elected chairman of the basic course division.

Talks about camp were given by Major Erickson, Lieutenant Oliver and Grant Lantz. John Madden, cadet morale officers, was toastmaster.

The general chairman and the chairmen of the basic and advanced course units will appoint the heads of the committees that are to be in charge of the activities at camp. There will be committees on baseball, track, pistol and rifle, entertainment, wrestling, boxing.

ANNOUNCE SYSTEM OF GRADING FOR COMPET

Infantry Drill to Be Chief Factor in Picking Best Cadet Company.

In the annual "Compet" to be held next Saturday morning, infantry drill will be the biggest factor of the morning, counting 300 points toward winning the cup. Inspection and manual of arms will each count 100 points, making a total of 500 points possible for one company to make.

Under the heading "inspection" the following will be considered: Uniforms clean and neatly pressed, shoes shined, hair neatly trimmed, leggings neatly wrapped, all men clean shaven, sleeve insignia properly sewed on, discipline of men in ranks while at "attention," execution of "inspection arms," "set-up" and military bearing of men in ranks.

Companies will report on the field in the following order for the inspection. Companies M, H, I, K, L, E, F, H, G, C, D, A, and B. There will be a parade and review of the regiment before the inspection and the different companies will be taken off the field to wait their turn.

Any cadets who may wish to change any article of uniform must do so before 5 o'clock May 22.

Blue, red and white ribbons will be given to the companies taking first, second and third places in the compet. There are three loving cups given by Major Erickson to the men who make the best showing in the individual compet held after the companies have left the field. Men are being picked from the companies at each drill period to take part in the individual drill.

REGISTRATION MUST BE COMPLETED BY FRIDAY

Announce That a Fee of $3 Will Be Charged After Tomorrow Noon.

Students who do not register for the first semester of next year by Friday noon will be charged a late registration fee of $3. The registration must be completed by that time because of the military fete planned for that afternoon and Saturday morning. Only a small percentage of students have seen their advisers, Dean Engberg said yesterday. Those who have not done so should register today, he also stated.

Students must first see their advisers and arrange their schedules with them. The schedules must then be taken to the dean of the college in which they are registered. Fees will not be paid at this time but must be in by September 8. Students should leave their correct summer addresses on their schedules so that their bill for fees can be sent to them in the summer.

All Arts and Science men will have their schedules authorized by Professor Canby in Mechanical Arts hall 301 B. Students in other colleges will see any advisor listed in the program for next semester.

Men and women who do not intend to come back in the fall should register now. Fees will not be paid until fall and so any confusion would be eliminated if they should come back.

Weather Forecast

Friday—Probably fair; slightly warmer.

TROOPS ARRIVE FOR MANEUVERS

Fort Riley Detachment After March Lasting Eight Days Reaches Lincoln.

UNITS PITCH TENTS ON FAIR GROUNDS

After an eight-day march, starting at Fort Riley, Kansas, the regular army units, headed by Battery A of the Ninth U. S. field artillery, arrived in Lincoln yesterday morning and pitched tents east of the grand stand at the Fair grounds. These are the units that will take part in the military maneuvers at the Fair grounds Friday afternoon, in connection with the military carnival.

Members of the detachment state that the march was not forced at any time and that the outfit is in good shape and ready for the maneuvers at what has been termed "the greatest military exhibition in the middle west since the war period." Specially trained units of both the cavalry and field artillery will be the principal characters in the display.

A squadron of five planes will arrive this afternoon to take part in the exhibition. They will show the spectators battle formations and will give exhibitions of skill in formation-maneuvers. Another set of stunts will be given at the flying field Sunday afternoon.

Commanded by Captain Howard Hunter, the Pershing Rifles will open the military festival with a short exhibition of close order drill. This will be followed by fancy driving and field maneuvers by the artillery.

Company L of the cadet regiment, commanded by Captain Westermann, will give a field problem using the special infantry weapons and two platoons of infantry. The regular army cavalry will then give exhibitions of fancy riding, cavalry drills and Cossack riding. Five ships of the aero squadron will close the show with the battle maneuvers.

All visiting officers and enlisted men will be guests of the University at the Missouri Valley track meet Saturday afternoon. The detachments will start back to their posts Monday.

Senior Poem Contest to End on Saturday

The contest for the senior poem will close on May 25. The poem will be read on the afternoon of Monday. A prize for the best poem is being offered and all contributions should be turned in to Josephine Altman, who is chairman of the committee.

OKLAHOMA WINS FROM NEBRASKA

Sooner Rally in Last Inning Noses Out Huskers by Score of 5 to 4.

TEAMS TO MEET AGAIN AT 4 O'CLOCK TODAY

The Oklahoma pastimers, champions of the Valley for the past two years, nosed the Huskers out of a close baseball game at Rock Island park yesterday afternoon, winning 5 to 4. They meet again this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

It was entirely a fielders game, neither pitcher was working effectively. Lewellen struck out but two men and Pickett, Sooner twirler, fanned only one.

Nebraska started the scoring in the second inning, when both Gibbs and Collips got home runs, one after the other. Both hit the first ball pitched to them and they went over the right field fence at nearly the same spot.

Sooners Make Four Runs.

Volz added another tally in the third and the Huskers had a comfortable lead piled, 3 to 0. Then the Sooners tore loose in their half of the sixth and brought four runs across the plate before the Huskers could settle down.

Nebraska added another run in the eighth frame and tied the score. The team was unable to score in the ninth and the Oklahoma counter in the last inning won the game. The lineup follows:

Nebraska	Oklahoma
Lewellen	Pickett
Hubka	Groom
Volz	Phillips
Janda	Griffin
Gibbs	Lindsay
Bell	Fox
Collins	Mays
Bloodgood	Bishop
Patton	Archer
Substitutions—Nebraska, Rhodes for Bell, Lang for Hubka.
Two base hits—Janda, Lindsay, Fox and Griffin.
Home runs—Collins and Gibbs.

ART CRITIC TO ATTEND ANNUAL ROUNDUP WEEK

Famous Graduate of Nebraska Plans to Be Present at Celebration.

William C. Gregg, an alumnus of Nebraska who has attained nationwide fame as an art critic, will be among the noted alumni of the University who will be in Lincoln for Roundup week June 4, 5, 6 and 7. Mr. Gregg attended the University in the early eighties. He plans, according to his letter to alumni-secretary Holtz, to present an oil painting to the University, when he comes to Lincoln for the Roundup.

A reception in his honor on one of the days of the Roundup is being arranged by Prof. Paul H. Gramman, director of the school of fine arts. Mr. Gregg will speak on "My Experiences in Buying Old Masters in Europe."

Mr. Gregg will probably arrive in Lincoln on June 4, following the outdoor conference in Washington called by President Coolidge to which Mr. Gregg is a delegate. Next to his interest in the fine arts, Mr. Gregg is an enthusiast of the outdoors.

Mr. Gregg is also a member of the board of directors of the Outlook, and a contributor to that magazine of articles on economics and outdoor life. He is a member of the National Arts club of New York, and the Cosmos club of Washington.

Will Give Address on Political Platforms

Mrs. Charles H. Dietrich, of Hastings, regional director of the national league of women voters, will speak on "The Different Party Platforms," before the Junior League of the University, 5 o'clock today, at Ellen Smith hall.

All University women are invited to be present. Questions on political problems will be answered.

Michigan—The Latin Quarter of old Paris formed the setting of the sixth annual architects May party conducted by the students of the architectural college.

Husker Tracksters Who Will Meet the Valley's Best Saturday

"Red" Layton

Everett Crites

"Duke" Gleason

Orris Hatch

Dean Higgins

"Hobb" Turner

Ced Hartman

Maurice Gardner

Captain

This is Marvon (Red) Layton's last year on the track squad. Red runs the 440-yard dash and the low hurdles. Last year he won second place in his event in the Missouri Valley outdoor meet. He won the 400-meter low hurdles race at the Drake relays in April.

Everett Crites is one of Schulte's best bets in the 440-yard dash. In the Kansas Aggie dual meet Crites finished first in 50 seconds flat. Crites holds the Nebraska varsity record of 24 8-10 seconds in the 220 low hurdles established last year.

"Duke" Monroe Gleason won his first track letter last year in the varsity record in the Kansas Aggie pole vault. This year he broke it in dual meet when he cleared the bar at 12 feet 3 and 3-4 inches. The old varsity record was 12 feet.

Hatch is at present the best broad jumper on the squad. In the Kansas Aggie meet he outjumped the varsity record in this event but fouled so the jump was not allowed. Besides the broad jump, Hatch is a sprint man and was on the Husker quarter mile relay team that won first place at Drake.

This is Dean Higgins last year on the squad. Next to Mud Gardner, holder of the varsity record in the half mile run, Higgins is the best half-miler on Schulte's squad this year. At the Kansas dual meet he finished second, and was first in the Kansas Aggie dual meet.

"Hobb" Turner set up a new Nebraska varsity record last year and completed the job in this year by raising his mark of last year to 6 feet 3 inches. Twice this year Turner and Poor of Kansas have tied for high jump honors and the two will meet for the last time Saturday.

Ced Hartman placed second in the shotput at the Drake relays and broke the Kansas relays record at Lawrence earlier in the year. Last year he was first in the Drake relays. He throws the 16-pound shot consistently around 43 feet. This is his last year on the squad.

Captain "Mud" Gardner of the Husker track team is considered one of the best half-milers in the Valley. In the indoor meet he broke the Valley indoor half-mile record, and last year established a new Nebraska varsity half-mile record.
